

The Daily Capital Journal

SALEM, OREGON, MONDAY, MAY 30, 1910.

VOL. XX.

No. 122.

ARE READY TO VOTE ON THE BILL

It Will Be Taken Up for Final Passage by the Senate Tomorrow and Will Be Sent to the President Wednesday.

ARE AFRAID OF HIS VETO

After Gathering the President's Suggestions Senate Will Be Ready to Send the Bill to Conference With the Lower House, as It Is Known It Will Not Agree to the Bill in the Shape the Senate Has It at the Present Time.

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.]
Washington, May 30.—The railroad regulation bill will probably be finally voted on in the senate tomorrow. Wednesday it is the plan of the senate leaders to send the bill, as finally adopted by the upper house, to President Taft. He will consider the bill carefully and make a number of recommendations. It is hoped in this way that the bill finally adopted by congress will be nearer the form first sent to congress than the battle-scarred remnant adopted by the house, and that now is on its way to passage in the senate.

The expected changes are to be made in the conference committee. The bills of the two houses differ considerably. It is certain that the house will refuse to adopt the bill as passed by the senate, and that the measure will go to conference. It is here that Taft's study of the bill passed by the senate is expected to count. The senate leaders will ask Taft to make immediate recommendations to the committee, suggesting the sort of bill he would be willing to sign. It is believed he will recommend that certain original provisions be reinstated.

The conference committee has practically the last word in forming the bill. The two houses can adopt or reject the suggestions of the committee or rush the matter back for further consideration, but no amendment can be adopted.

The regulars expect to rush the conference report through during the final days of the session, when the congressmen are anxious to get away from Washington. Naturally congress does not want to enact a bill that will be vetoed by the president, so his recommendations, it is expected, will have considerable weight with the committee.

The annual countryside meeting of the farmers and their families will be held at North Howell Prairie next Saturday, and a number of prominent public speakers have been invited. This neighborhood has made this an occasion for a visit and reunion and general good time, and everybody who has ever been there knows that the hospitality of the people of that neighborhood is not of the skim-milk variety.

This old-time neighborhood picnic will be held in the grove surrounding the Grange hall and church at North Howell on Saturday, June 4. It will be given under the auspices of the people of the Sunday school, church and Grange at that place. The principal features of the day's entertainment will be public speaking, music, games and basket dinners. The people surrounding the neighborhood are cordially invited to bring dinner, and come to rest and enjoy the day.

GRANGE AND CHURCH AND SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC AT HOWELL

The annual countryside meeting of the farmers and their families will be held at North Howell Prairie next Saturday, and a number of prominent public speakers have been invited. This neighborhood has made this an occasion for a visit and reunion and general good time, and everybody who has ever been there knows that the hospitality of the people of that neighborhood is not of the skim-milk variety.

This old-time neighborhood picnic will be held in the grove surrounding the Grange hall and church at North Howell on Saturday, June 4. It will be given under the auspices of the people of the Sunday school, church and Grange at that place. The principal features of the day's entertainment will be public speaking, music, games and basket dinners. The people surrounding the neighborhood are cordially invited to bring dinner, and come to rest and enjoy the day.

CURTISS COVERED 137 MILES

Flew From Albany to New York Making Only Two Descents, and These Only for a Minute or Two Each.

NEARLY A MILE A MINUTE

He Broke the World's Record for Average Hourly Speed, Making It 54.45 Miles an Hour—He Received Check for $10,000 From the New York World—Curtiss Estimates He Reached a Height of $5000 Feet.

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.]
New York, May 30.—The beginning of aeroplane flights between Chicago and New York, with no more stops than would be necessary for an express car to change ends, is considered a probability here today. Aviators, enthused by the achievement of Glenn H. Curtiss, in flying 137 miles between Albany and New York yesterday, with only two descents, are claiming that, with the establishment of aerodromes and increased knowledge of aerial conditions, Curtiss' flight may be surpassed for greater distances, and eventually gigantic carrying airships will ply between cities of the United States.

Curtiss today was the recipient of many honors and congratulations bestowed by his admirers. More substantial in reward was the New York World's check for $10,000, the prize Curtiss won by his successful flight. The aviator gave the check to Mrs. Curtiss, who took it with a smile and said she would "make good use of it."

Among the records that Curtiss fractured was the world's average hourly speed record for the long distance flights. Curtiss maintained an average speed of 54.45 miles an hour throughout the journey. He estimated that he ascended to a height of 5000 feet at one time in the flight.

The daring Curtiss, during the sky voyage, received commendation both from aviators and laymen. That the aeronaut risked success in flying from a steep terrace at Spuyten Duyvil, after he had alighted a second time is generally believed. The aviator, to us his own words, started "as a bird would begin its flight," not taking the usual run along the ground.

Curtiss trusted to his planes to bear him after leaving the higher ground, until he could get his engine into action. In doing this he jeopardized his chance of success, but he saved considerable time, as the ground from which he ascended at Spuyten Duyvil was terraced and uneven, and he would have been compelled to trundle the machine to level ground.

Curtiss announced today that he would not fly again for some time. He said that he would return to Hammondport to stay several weeks and would then probably go abroad.

CEMETERY IS A MASS OF BLOOM

Soldiers' Graves Are Covered With Fragrant Blossoms in Remembrance of Their Services to Their Country.

THE PARADE AND PROGRAM

Company M, the Band, G. A. R. and All the Local Societies Take Part in the Parade—Street Cars Crowded All Morning With Flower-Laden Passengers—Silverton Also Holds Fine Celebration, and Has Beautiful Service and Program.

Memorial Day was observed this forenoon by the decoration of graves in the cemeteries by the members of the G. A. R., the W. R. C., the S. W. V. and the city's citizens and their wives, and this afternoon the event will be celebrated at Marion square with a program of song, music and addresses, in harmony with the spirit of the occasion.

The celebration of the day during the forenoon was of an informal character. There was not, as is usually the case, a parade, but the veterans and their wives and the city's citizens and their wives assembled generally throughout the city, and proceeded to the cemeteries to scatter flowers over the graves of the dead soldiers, and throughout the forenoon the street cars were loaded down with people and flowers. At the cemeteries the G. A. R., assisted by the members of the W. R. C., held the ritualistic services of the organization, and upon their conclusion they returned to the city and sat down to dinners prepared for them by the members of the W. R. C. and the Ladies of the G. A. R., the one at the post hall and the other at Hurst's hall.

Afternoon's Program.
The feature of the program this afternoon was a mammoth parade, which was participated in by the Salem Military Band, the G. A. R., W. R. C., Company M and the various fraternal and industrial organizations of the city. The procession formed at the Methodist church and wound its way up through State street, and then on Commercial to Court, and then counter-marched on Court to Commercial and on the latter street to Marion square.

The program at Marion square will open with an instrumental selection, and following it will come the invocation by Rev. Barr G. Lee. Next will come a selection by the choir, led by Wm. McElchrist, and then the reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg address. The audience will then listen to an other selection by the choir, when Dr. B. L. Steeves will be introduced and will make the address of the day.

PINCHOT TALKS TO THEODORE

Intimates That Roosevelt Will Have More Lemons Than Olives for Those Who Went Back on "His Policies."

ROOSEVELT WILL SPEAK

Pinchot Says Roosevelt Has Promised to Speak at the Conservation Meeting at St. Paul and That He is More Than Ever Interested in the Subject—Seemed to Be Familiar With Things Testified to by Clerk Kerby.

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.]
New York, May 30.—Frank concerning the social features of his visit with former President Roosevelt in Italy but silent on the subjects of their conversations on political matters, Gifford Pinchot, former chief forester, gave an interview today aboard the steamship Arabic. The nearest hint that Pinchot gave regarding Roosevelt's plans when he reaches America was when Pinchot referred to the olive trees of Italy.

"Were there no lemon trees?" he was asked.

"For some people there will be a few lemon trees," Pinchot replied. "I was delighted," continued Pinchot, "when Colonel Roosevelt accepted my invitation to address the conservation congress to be held at St. Paul. He showed the great interest he has always shown in conservation."

There was a peculiar twinkle in Pinchot's eyes as he emphasized the word "great."

Although Pinchot refused to discuss politics or tell the result of his secret conference with Roosevelt, there is every reason to believe that Roosevelt has allied himself against the opponents of the Roosevelt-Pinchot conservation policy.

"The cables said you and Roosevelt wandered for a long time in the forest and talked secretly."

"There was not any forest," replied Pinchot, "and I cannot tell you what we talked of."

Pinchot will deliver his first speech at St. Paul June 7, two weeks before the return of Roosevelt to America. In it he is expected to outline Roosevelt's proposition. Pinchot seized an official copy of the testimony of Frederick M. Kerby, dismissed stenographer in the interior department who revealed the points of the proposition of the Lawler memorandum. He showed considerable knowledge of the things that Kerby had testified to, although he had heard few of the details of Kerby's testimony before the committee and the other testimony of the story of the Lawler memorandum brought out.

Root Did Not Meet Him.
London, May 30.—Although Senator Ellhu Root of New York, is in London and is stopping at the Hyde Park hotel only a short distance from Dorchester house, where former President Roosevelt is a guest, the two men have not met.

The fact that Root has not called on Roosevelt has caused some surprise as it is known that they were close political and personal friends in the United States. Americans who have been keeping close watch on the two men since their arrival are deeply interested in the fact that there have been no "exchange of courtesies" and it is believed Root is particularly anxious to steer clear of any political breakers.

Roosevelt today lunched as a guest of the Royal Geographical society at the Hotel Metropole. There he met Lord Kitchener and Lord Curzon. Early in the afternoon he went shopping with his family.

Later he attended a reception at the Hotel Ritz given by Sir George Reid.

At Corvallis they got the night watch to ring the fire bell as a signal to the citizens that the comet was in sight.

THE COMET UNUSUALLY BRILLIANT

Portland, Ore., May 30.—Unusually brilliant, Halley's comet, which laymen believed had disappeared was seen by thousands here last night. The tail of the celestial wanderer stretched half way across the sky, a great wide band of white.

PORTLAND IS BEATEN BY SALEM

Salem 4, West Portland 2.

That was the score at the end of the game played yesterday afternoon in the city between the local city team and that of West Portland, and it was not only a fast game, but it was full to the brim with sensational plays made by the players of both teams.

The great feature of the game, and one which made the crowd mad with excitement, was in the first half of the eighth, when Portland was at the bat and all the bases were full, and when Holbach, Portland's strongest batter came up to take the bat. During the game he had made some phenomenal hits, and it was expected that there would be a repetition, and, with the score standing 4 to 2, it looked as though it might yet be anybody's game. He fouled twice and had two strikes counted on him, and the Portland people were confident that Johnson would not get another counted on him but he caught Holbach napping with one of his skillful curves, and he was counted out, and, as there were already two men out, the day was saved.

Johnson pitched a splendid game for Salem. There was a large crowd present, and it looked like a home game. Johnson pitched a pretty and clever play was made.

How Does the 20% Look Now

That Our Competitors are Giving the People? Who is Doing the Business? The Chicago Store

Because we give the prices that they cannot match, even with their 20 per cent off. It only takes the people a little while to get next to the scheme of adding the price on and then taking it off. Our motto is Rock Bottom Prices that defy competition.

Millinery Bargains
The greatest Assortment And Lowest Prices That was ever Offered In Salem Ladies' Trimmed Hats $1.50 $1.95 $2.50 and up

Ladies' Tailored Suits
At Prices That You Cannot Match in Salem 1910 Newest Styles and Materials Prices $2.50, $3.50, $1.50, $7.50, $8.50, $10.50 up

How does our competitors' 20 per cent look when you compare them with

THESE PRICES
9c Bleached Muslins, yard	5c
12 1-2c Silkalines, best goods, yard	8 1-2c
85c Fancy Dress Goods, yard	39c
75c Wool Dress Goods, yard	23c
15c Chambrays, all colors, yard	8 1-2c
7 1-2c Persian Challies, yard	4c

It is easy to add 20 per cent on over the selling price and then take it off. How does such a scheme look when you compare it with our prices?

85c Chamoise Gloves now	39c
Girls' $2.25 Patent Leather Shoes now	$1.29
85c Barefoot Sandals, now, pair	48c
$1.00 Ladies Corsets, directoire styles with hose supporters attached	49c
Ladies, $2.00 extra fine Lingerie Shirtwaists	98c

The Greater Chicago Store Salem Oregon

TAMA JIM'S RECIPE FOR HIGH PRICES.

—Berryman in Washington Star.