BIG BRUTE ASSAULTS LITTLE GIRL

HATTIE, THE EIGHT-YEAR-OLD DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. CHRIST BRALL IS ASSAULTED AT NOON TODAY ON HER WAY HOME FROM SCHOOL.

Sheriff Minto and his staff of deputies, Chief of Police Gibson, and his officers, and Constable Ira Hamilton, are scouring the city, and adjacent country this afternoon for the fiend who attempted to violate the person of Hattie Brall, the little eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Brall, of this city, while she was returning home from school at noon today.

STOCKS TOOK A BIG TUMBLE

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.] New York, June 6.—Just before the close of the stock market today, stocks crumbled rapidly, and heavy offers of railroad stocks were made on "Ups" that President Taft would not accede to the request of Eastern railway presidents to stop federal injunction suits against the proposed raises in railroad freight rates.

A drive in St. Paul was unopposed, the stock dropping three points. Reading and Union Pacific followed later with five points loss. The entire list was half demolished by the rumors.

Imported PONGEE SILKS In Natural Colors

The modern art of adulterating is unknown to the Oriental people, therefore the imported China Pongee is the best wearing, softest, most durable fabric woven. It is made in the same crude way that our great grandmothers spun their wool, from the raw material to the finished fabric it is entirely woven by hand—a process these natives have used for over 1000 years. CITY NEWS.

Irrigation Notice— Irrigation bills are now due. If paid on or before June 10, they will be subject to the usual 10 per cent discount. No discount on irrigation bills after June 10. Salem Water Company. 6-6-5t

County Board to Convene— The Board of County Commissioners will convene again tomorrow, and at that time will probably render decisions upon a number of road and school district matters which it has under consideration. There is also considerable routine business to be transacted.

Notice to Officers— And members of Edgwick Woman's Relief Corps No. 1 are kindly requested to meet at their hall Tuesday, June 7, at 1 o'clock, sharp, for the purpose of attending the funeral of Sister Kate Hurd. By order of the president, Marie Thornton, president; Hattie Cameron, secretary.

Bought Butcher Business— John Hansen has recently bought out the Royalls butcher shop on Commercial street. Under the new management the old help will be retained, and the business of the shop will be continued practically the same as under the old. Mr. Hansen's intention is to make his new shop strictly modern in every particular.

Long All Right— C. H. Long, who sustained a broken shoulder blade last week in a runaway, is reported as much better today. Mr. Long at the time was engaged in moving the effects of the old mute school to the new site when going down a hill the brakes on the wagon failed to work, and the horses became frightened and ran away. Long leaped from the wagon and on striking the ground stumbled and broke his shoulder blade.

Change in Hill Cigar Store— A change just made in the management of the Hill cigar store was the buying of a half interest in the business by Harry Ralph. Mr. Ralph is now connected actively with the new management of the place.
