ALASKANS CLIMBED MCKINLEY

Party Arrives in Fairbanks After Making the Second Ascent of Mt. McKinley, the Highest Peak on the American Continent.

FOLLOWED LLOYD'S TRAIL

Took Many Photographs in Order to Furnish Proof of Their Claims—Flag Planted by Lloyd Still Floats, and Prospectors in Vicinity of Mountain and the Agent at Kuskokwim Says It Can Be Seen Plainly on any Clear Day—Nothing Is Said About Dr. Cook

HUNTING LOST ENGINEER

North Yakima, Wash., June 9.—A sheriff's posse left here this morning to search for George Wilson, former United States geodetic survey engineer, who started out May 30 with three other men for work in the mountains somewhere between here and Ellensburg. A similar searching party also left Ellensburg this morning.

Weakening from a hard day's work Wilson left the men and turned back intending to make camp. That was the last seen of him.

camped at Kantishna, in the foothills of the peak.

They retraced their steps up Mt. McKinley, at the request of Lloyd, to take more photographs and furnish more proofs of their claims. They found the American flag left by Lloyd six weeks before was still waving in the winds that sweep over the twin crags of the summit.

Prospectors in the McKinley neighborhood say the flag is plainly visible on clear days. The Northern Commercial Company's agent at Kuskokwim writes that the flag can be seen on that side as well.

SOME MYSTERY HERE

Yakima, Cal., June 9.—While Char. McNaughton, who was struck by a train near here last night, and who told a story of an attempted hold-up lay near death today, J. P. Neal, a painter, told Sheriff Taylor that McNaughton had attempted to hold him up.

Neal, said that he was walking along the track, near his home, when McNaughton sprang from hiding and grappled with him. The painter said he fought to free himself of McNaughton, and called for help. When Mrs. Neal responded to the cries, McNaughton ran away. Neal was unable to say how McNaughton received his injuries.

CARROLL MAY WIN IN IOWA

SILOUX FALLS, S. D., JUNE 9.—LATEST RETURNS TODAY INDICATE THAT

Egan went before the people to secure vindication of himself on charges that he retained the money of a client he represented at law. He was disbarred by the supreme court and took his fight before the people.

Leavenworth, Kan., June 9.—Murdered and robbed and her home then set afire to conceal the crime, the body of Mrs. Katherine Schulz, 65, was found here today, her clothing saturated with oil.

Mrs. Schulz lived alone and it is believed a large amount of money was taken. The flames were extinguished before the woman's clothing caught fire and the murder revealed. No clue has been found to the perpetrator of the deed.

DIAZ HAD OPPONENT ARRESTED

MEXICAN WAY OF RUNNING POLITICS IS SOMEWHAT ARRIBTARY, BUT IS "EFFECTIVE"—PRESIDENT WILL SEND MADERO ON A "MISSION."

ADVISED RECEIVED HERE TODAY FROM MEXICO

San Antonio, Tex., June 9.—Advices received here today from Mexico state that Francisco J. Madero, opponent of Diaz in the coming elections, was arrested "formally" yesterday by order of a leading government official.

The arrest of Madero has been rumored for several days. It was also reported that Pancho, Madero's legal advisor, was thrown into prison on the charge that he aided in the escape of a man who spoke in favor of Madero and attacked the Diaz administration.

The arrest of Madero is understood by Mexicans here to mean that another opponent of President Diaz has been removed and will be sent on a "mission."

This is a favorite method of the president's for removing his opponents, according to the Mexicans. They declare that Diaz adopted the same tactics in removing General Reyes from the political field.

LOTS OF CONTEMPT FOR THE COURT

HELENA, MONT., JUNE 9.—IT IS PROBABLE THAT

Mayor Edwards and the seven aldermen who have been opposing a reinstatement of a police captain and several policemen, whom they deposed, will now allow the men to rejoin the department.

Yesterday Mayor Edwards paid fines aggregating $2900, assessed against him and seven aldermen for contempt of court.

The contempt proceedings were brought against the officials when they refused to reinstate the policemen whom they had discharged.

The case was carried to the supreme court, where the judgment of the lower court was affirmed.

John Kenneth Turner, magazine writer, who has recently published a number of articles about conditions in Mexico, and Gutierrez De Lara, a leader of the Mexican liberal party, will appear before the committee. They declare that they have documentary evidence to submit that will show Wall street interests have

STRIKERS MAY AGREE TO SETTLE

REPORTED THAT BOTH SIDES ARE SEEKING A CONFERENCE AND THAT SOME OF THE STRIKING MACHINISTS HAVE RETURNED TO WORK

LOS ANGELES, CALIF., JUNE 9.—

Forty striking employees of the Mills machine works returned to work today following a conference with the owners and manager of the establishment.

It was reported that a compromise was reached.

The strike leaders today are making every effort to arrange a general conference with owners.

It was predicted that this would be secured before the end of the week.

George Gunroy, organizer of the international moulders union, and one of the leaders of the strike, believes a conference will provide means for a quick settlement of the existing difficulties.

"I believe mutual concessions would be made," Gunroy said. "The metal workers are striking, but they are not unreasonable. I believe if their employers thoroughly understood what is wanted, an amicable and speedy settlement would follow. The danger of the strike spreading to other lines should make the conference unquestionably advisable."

CUT HIS THROAT WITH BOTTLE

Cherbourg, June 9.—Digo Cabera, son of General Cabera, of Guatemala, is recovering today from several wounds in his throat, which he inflicted in an attempt to kill himself.

The young man is a sufferer from tuberculosis, and is en route to the French Riviera, in care of a physician and a nurse.

In the presence of his attendants he slashed his throat several times before the bottle could be taken from him. The injuries will not prove fatal.

IT WILL NOT HURT HER VOICE

Paris, June 9.—Marie Rappold, American soprano, today possesses the decoration of the Roumanian order of merit, and is officially a singer of the Roumanian court. The king of Roumania telegraphed the news to Miss Rappold last night.

DESTROYS HUNDREDS OF TITLES

Federal Court of Appeals Holds That Indians in Indian Territory Could Only Sell Lands Under Certain Restrictions—Not Complied With.

TITLES TO 20,000 TRACTS OF LAND SOLD

By Indians to White People Are Clouded by This Decision—Much Coal Land as Well as Farming Land, Is Put in Jeopardy by This Decision, and Unless Overruled by Supreme Court, May Revert to Indians.

ST. PAUL, MINN., JUNE 9.—TITLES

to thousands of acres of farming and mineral lands in the old Indian territory, worth millions of dollars, will be forfeited and restored to the Indians, if a decision by the federal court of appeal today is not reversed by the supreme court. The decision was handed down in the case of the United States Government against James P. Allen, which was decided in favor of Allen in the federal district court in Oklahoma.

The federal court of appeal reversed the judgment of the district court. The Allen case was a test case, and over 200 similar suits are pending. Plans are being made to carry an appeal to the supreme court.

The government alleged in its suits against the land owners that the Indians were unauthorized to sell or lease property in Indian territory, except under certain restrictions and these restrictions had not been observed in the sales in question.

Titles to 20,000 parcels of land, which were sold to the white people, are clouded under the government's claim.

WISCONSIN INDORSES PRESIDENT

REGULARS OF WISCONSIN LAUD THE ACHIEVEMENTS OF THE PRESIDENT, AND MAKE NO MENTION OF LA FOLLETTE.

MILWAUKEE, WIS., JUNE 9.—

Applauding his fidelity to his pledges, the platform adopted by the "Taft" Republicans of Wisconsin lauds the achievements of the president.

Taft, the platform declares, was faithful to his pledges "against opposition that tried his patience and forbearance to the utmost," and says that he "labored unceasingly to secure wholesome constructive legislation, to introduce economies in the administration of the government and to conserve our natural resources."

"We approve the new tariff law as a real progressive measure," the platform continues. "We especially approve and commend the provisions for maximum and minimum schedules and the provision for future scientific revision." The platform endorses the national platform of 1908. There is no mention of La Follette or the insurgents in the document.
