Tex Rickard, the prize fight promoter, says he is disgusted with prize fighting. The ungentlemanly conduct of people outside the profession is what makes him sore. He should console himself with the thought that he is not alone, but the larger part of the United States people are much more thoroughly disgusted than the delicate minded Tex.

GAVE HIM LICENSE TO MARRY

STATESMAN EDITOR FACES HIS BRIDE-TO-BE, WHO CALMLY ASKS HIM ALL ABOUT HIMSELF BEFORE ISSUING THE LICENSE.

Imagine yourself strolling into the county clerk's office with your betrothed's sister to secure a marriage license, and imagine yourself greeted by your betrothed from behind the license counter, and she advancing in all maidenly innocence to wait upon you.

Imagine yourself saying to her that you want a marriage license, and then imagine her turning to the license book to comply with your wants, and proceeding in a business-like manner to issue the license.

Imagine yourself looking down into the eyes of the woman you love, and she asking you as demurely and innocently as though you were a complete stranger for your name, and your awkward and hesitating reply.

Imagine her going down the line of questions, and asking you for your age, your birth place, the birth place of your parents—things she ought to know after several years of ardent courtship—and imagine her formally asking that tantalizing and embarrassing question as to your color—and adding, "is it red or white."

Imagine yourself feeling the blood creep to your cheeks until your face burns as though on fire and its color is anything but white, and your girl and her sister and the clerks and officials laughing at your discomfort and embarrassment.

Imagine yourself through with the ordeal, and your betrothed taking an inventory of herself, her age, her birth place and all the other questions, and writing down the answers in the license book, and then turning to you and having you subscribe an oath to your statement—and all of it just as unconcernedly as though it meant some other person's wedding, and not hers.

Imagine all this, and it will convey to you a faint picture of a confused and embarrassed newspaper man—Donald Henry Upjohn, city editor of the Statesman, when he applied for a marriage license for the uniting of himself and Miss Lois Byrd, clerk in the office of the county clerk in the bonds of matrimony.

Mr. Upjohn sought out the clerk's office at the close of the day's business. Accompanying him was Miss Grace Byrd, and as the two advanced to the counter where cupid reigns, Miss Lois Byrd greeted them, and calmly proceeded to issue the license to her fiance. The officials say that this is the first time in Marion county that a bride has ever issued a marriage license for her own wedding, and Miss Byrd probably has the distinction of being the first in the state who ever issued such a license to the man whom she was to wed.

Wedding This Evening.
The wedding will occur this evening and will be one of the social events of the season. It will be held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Byrd. After the wedding the couple will leave for Newport, where they will spend their honeymoon. Rev. Knight will officiate.

SUBSCRIBERS.

TO LOOK INTO COAST DEFENCES

WASHINGTON, June 22.—After pigeon-holing Representative McLachlan's resolution demanding that the war department be called upon to show its preparedness for war, the house committee on military affairs today decided unanimously to report in favor of the resolution.
McLachlan's resolution and his speech, made at the time of its introduction, declaring that the Japanese could capture and hold the Pacific states, has resulted in thousands of letters being sent to the military authorities demanding that the war department make a statement on the matter.

Extra deputies will be appointed and order will be maintained if possible. Sheriff Ferrell says he will protect the fight, as it is legally licensed.
"There is an impression abroad that Reno is a frontier town, and that everything goes," said Ferrell. "But those who come here July 4 will find that laws are strictly enforced."

HIS WIFE HELD HIM ON FIRST

BALL PLAYER RUBE WADDELL WHIPS HIS WIFE, AND SHE STANDS HIM UP WITH A GUN WHILE WAITING FOR THE POLICE.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 22.—George Edward (Rube) Waddell, eccentric ex-pitcher of the St. Louis Americans, failed to put them over the plate and has been benched by the police. Rube was arrested for attempting to spin his bride on her head and for blackening her eye.

Mrs. Rube, who was Madge McGuire and signed with George Edward last March after he had released his former wife through the divorce courts, objected to her husband's style of play. Rube alleged that under the rules he had a right to do anything that struck his fancy. A wrangle resulted and when the police arrived to make a decision on the troublesome point Mrs. Rube was holding her husband frozen to his base through the latent threat of a six shooter.

"Rube is crazy," said his wife after the police had taken her husband to a cell, where he spent the night. "He has driven me crazy, too." Rube was forcibly separated from the St. Louis American's payroll a few days ago.

SULLIVAN CUT HIS PARTNERS THROAT

DYING MAN PICKED UP BY TRAIN CREW, TELLS OF HIS PARTNER'S FIENDISH ATTACK ON HIM.

Chehalis, Wash., June 22.—John Sullivan, accused of the murder of his pal, Alvin W. Black by Black as he was dying, has not been captured today.

Black's throat was cut yesterday while he slept by the Great Northern railroad tracks near Winlock. He and Sullivan were traveling to Winlock to seek work.

Rapidly bleeding to death, his windpipe cut and unable to talk, Black dragged himself to this railroad track and signalled a passing work train. He was picked up by the crew and carried back to Winlock, where he died. As he lay dying in the caboose he told what he knew, with the help of paper and pencil and nods and gestures. He wrote that he met Sullivan at Vancouver, Wash. That they had had no quarrel, and that he knew of no motive for Sullivan's attack. Black had only 80 cents. Black carried a suit case, bearing the name of A. F. Roberts. He gave the name of his father as Peter Black, of Wolverine, Mich.

SOME CHANGES IN 48 YEARS

Forty-eight years ago, says the Blue Mountain Eagle, the first tent was pitched on the site of the present town of Canyon City. Little did those first miners think that their camp was pitched on ground that would contribute to the world's supply of gold the enormous sum of fifteen million dollars. Little did they think then that in the coming half century cities would dot the landscape of Eastern Oregon. Who of that hardy lot had the prophetic vision that could look forward to the time when the horseless carriage would run up and down the streets of the city they then and there founded. Who of that pioneer party, forty eight years ago, could imagine that the time would ever come when it would be necessary for the protection of the life and safety of the citizens of Canyon City for the city council to pass an ordinance regulating the speed of automobiles through the streets of the town that was to be. Yes, time changes. And all things keep pace with the change. Forty eight years from now the city council of the town of Canyon City may be called upon to regulate the speed of flying machines over the town and make it a misdemeanor for one to fly over the town at an elevation less than one mile. Who knows?—Cannon Times.

Tafts to Go to Beverly.
Beverly, Mass., June 22.—Mrs. William H. Taft will arrive here in a private car tomorrow and proceed to the Beverly summer white house. The president will not leave Washington for several days. The summer home has been put in excellent condition in expectation of the arrival of the presidential family.

Doan's Kidney Pills make lasting cures.

Salem people testify.

Here's one case of it: N. S. Williams, foot of Gaines Ave., Salem, Ore., says: "A number of years ago the doctors told me that my kidneys were badly disordered. I came out West thinking that the change of climate would help me, but this was not the case and although I tried many remedies, I became no better. I suffered intensely from a burning sensation in the small of my back as if live coals were placed directly over my kidneys. The kidney secretions were irregular in passage and unnatural. After taking the contents of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, I did not have the least pain in my back and my kidneys were restored to a normal condition." (Statement given January 30, 1906.)

Confirmed Proof.
On November 20, 1909, Mr. Williams said: "The statement I gave for publication in 1906 in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills was correct. This remedy cured me of kidney and bladder trouble and I have recommended it on many occasions."
