HUNDREDS INJURED IN RIOTS

Parisian Mob Goes Wild When Liabeuf Is Guillotined for the Murder of a Policeman—Was Bloodthirsty "Apache."

SOLDIERS CHARGED MOB

Mob Was Beaten Back But Hundreds of Injured Were Left on the Pavements Many of Whom Will Die—Liabeuf, With His Head on the Block, Shouted: "I Protest Against My Execution," But His Protest Was "Cut Short" by the Falling of the Ax.

Paris, July 1.—The guillotine of the prison Sante today at sunrise claimed the head of Liabeuf, "one of the most bloodthirsty of the Parisian 'Apaches,'" according to the police, "a martyr," according to the Socialists.

"I protest against my execution," cried Liabeuf, as he rested his head upon the block. Like a famous monarch before him, Liabeuf's next words were cut short by the heavy hand of "la guillotine."

The protest of the condemned man was re-echoed in riots in which the life of President Fallieres was threatened, and in which one policeman was killed and many police soldiers and rioters were killed.

While Liabeuf was preparing to as-send the scaffold his friends and several revolutionists and socialists gathered in the streets about the prison.

The fall of the axe apparently madened the throng, and an attempt was made to storm the prison. Guards were trampled and beaten, prison guards were shot, and the gates of the prison yard were battered down when the troops that had been ordered into the city for such an emergency rode up.

The soldiers charged, and the mob was beaten back, leaving hundreds of injured on the pavements. Many of those injured will die.

The mob was quelled, but not beaten, and continued to throng the streets, jeering the soldiers and threatening to send other policemen to follow the one for whose murder Liabeuf was executed.

Additional troops were rushed to the scene, and surrounded the coffin in which Liabeuf's body was taken to the cemetery at Ivry. The display of strength frustrated a plan of the Socialists to carry the body of Liabeuf through the streets of Paris as "an object lesson in government by force."

At Ivry wreaths and flowers were placed on Liabeuf's grave. One of them bore the motto "To a police martyr." This was removed by the authorities.

In the afternoon anti-police demonstrations were renewed. The Socialists massed at the Arc de Triomphe and proceeded along the Champs Elysee in the direction of the home of President Fallieres. The leaders encouraged their followers to attack the president's palace, but prompt action by the police and soldiers broke up the marchers, and restored order.

The newspapers this afternoon blame Fallieres for the execution of Liabeuf and for the resultant riots.

The Queen Is Better.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION IN BOULDER

Four Dead, One Dying and Two Seriously Injured When the Dynamite Stored in Warehouse Explodes—Shot from a 22 Caused Explosion.

HART FIRED FATAL SHOT

His Wife and Baby Killed With Him—Three of the Party Blown Over a Story and a Half House—Mrs. Hart and Baby Horribly Burned and Miss Miffin, Hart's Sister-in-Law, Pitifully Lacerated and Will Die—Buildings Shaken and Windows Shattered Throughout the City.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Boulder, Mont., July 1.—Four persons are dead, one dying and two seriously injured today due to an explosion of dynamite stored in a warehouse, which let go last night when George Hart fired a 22-caliber revolver at the blank wall.

Although the bullet didn't penetrate the wall half an inch, the impact was sufficient to set off the explosive which was stored near the wall.

The explosion was terrific. Buildings were shaken, windows shattered and several women frightened into hysterics. The dead.

George Hart and wife, of Boulder. Babe Hart, their 2-year-old daughter.

David Kerby. The injured: Albert Taylor, serious. Miss Gladys Miffin, of Butte, serious.

William O. Robinson, serious. When Hart fired the shot his wife, baby, Miss Miffin, who was Mrs. Hart's sister, Kerby, Taylor and Robinson, were standing near by. An instant later the dynamite let go.

Hart, Kerby and Robinson were hurled bodily over a story and a half building. Mrs. Hart and her infant were horribly burned. They were killed instantly.

Miss Miffin was knocked down and her body pitifully lacerated. No hopes for her survival are held out.

The warehouse, which was owned by the Graves Mercantile Co. was partially wrecked. It took fire immediately. Prompt work on the part of the fire department saved most of the structure, however.

A number of persons in the town were injured by falling brick-a-brac, which was jarred from shelves by the blast.

THE OREGON ELECTRIC GETS MAIL

SENATOR BOURNE RESPONDS TO THE DEMAND OF SALEM BUSINESS ORGANIZATIONS, AND THE MAILS START JULY 11.

Salem people will be intensely interested in the following telegram from Senator Bourne to Secretary Hofer, of the Salem Board of Trade: "Postoffice department issued order June 28, effective July 11, authorizing installation of mail service over the Oregon Electric between Portland and Salem."

"Signed JONATHAN BOURNE, JR." Senator Bourne has been working hard on this matter, and the senior senator from Oregon is entitled to great credit for accomplishing this result, that will give this city much better mail service than ever before.

This mail service will probably now be made direct with the Salem, Falls City & Western, and will add immensely to the business advantages which this city already derives from those railroads.

The Salem Board of Trade and Business Men's League have been pressing for this mail service, and will be gratified to know that their labors are crowned with success, and for which all the community will feel grateful to them.

Chicago, July 1.—The finest ball park in the world. That is the verdict expected by Charlie Cominsky this afternoon when the new American league grounds on the South Side are thrown open.

The White Sox will be at home to the St. Louis Browns, and thousands of Chicago fans, including several regiments of militia, will witness the game, and inspect the new home of the White Sox.

Cominsky has arranged for a parade for this afternoon in which 5000 state militia and various civic organizations will act as escort for Vice-President Sherman, Mayor Busse and the players of both teams. The "Old Roman" himself will be in one of the automobiles in line.

The new park is located at 35th street and Wentworth avenue. The seating capacity of the stands is 35,000; there are 12,000 seats in the grand stand and 6400 box seats. Provisions for seating 16,000 fans in the bleachers has been made.

The grounds are 600x600 feet in dimensions, the largest in either the American or National leagues. The diamond and field are built on a six-inch gravel base, six inches of clay, marble dust and limestone, all thoroughly drained.

The dressing rooms for the players are equipped with shower baths, tub baths, vapor and hot rooms and rubbing tables.

Work was begun on the new grounds February 15 of this year. It was originally planned to open them July 4.

Walsh will pitch for the Sox today and Catcher Billy Sullivan will again be in the game.

THE FIGHT TO BEGIN PROMPTLY

There Will Be No Preliminary Bouts, and It Is Expected the Gong Will Sound Promptly at 1:30 and Start the Championship Fight.

JEFF WENT FISHING TODAY

Both Contestants Quit Heavy Work and Will Take It Easy Until the Hour of Battle Arrives—Work on the Arena Is Being Rushed, and It Will Be Completed Tomorrow—Jeff Will Sleep Late Monday and Take a Light Meal—Johnson Says He Is at Just the Weight He Sought.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Reno, Nev., July 1.—It is probable that the gong that will start the big fight July 4 will sound at 1:30 p. m. almost to the minute. Jeffries already has outlined his program for the day of the fight and one of the principal features of it will be his arrival at the arena a few minutes before the time for the fight to start. Jeff does not believe in the time worn trick of making his opponent nervous by compelling him to wait after he has gone to the ring-side. If good advice prevails Johnson also will appear on time and the big mill will be put on without preliminaries as near to the hour set as the promoters can bring it about.

Jeffries tumbled out of bed early today and started fishing. He left at 4 o'clock with a Reno friend, announcing that they might be back by noon. He seemed happy over the prospect of landing some big bass, and the fight was the last thing he thought about. He intends to enjoy himself to the utmost today, as tomorrow the drying out process begins.

Jeff dreads this and so does his camp mates. Life will be as miserable as a dog's.
