Although "Pinafore" and 'Pirates of Penzance" have both enjoyed wonderful success, yet nothing in comparison with that of "The Mikado", which ran for several sensons and caused it to be played all over the civilized world. Its attraction is as potent today as ever, for at the present time it is being revived in New York City, at the Casino Theatre, with an all-star cast, numbering among the players, Fritzl Scheff, Andrew Mack, Jefferson de Angelis, Christie Macdonald and Arthur Cunningham, where it has run for nine weeks to enormous crowds, and the universal verdict is that the modern musical comedies are not to be compared with it. The brilliancy of the dialogue and the swing of its music, renders it a delight to the auditor. Who has not listened entranced to the rhythmic songs "Tit Willow", "Here's a Howdy Do"

Have You Ever Said: "I don't see how all the Magazines live?"—

Undoubtedly you have. Probably you have often stood before some news stand and wondered what magazines to buy. There are a lot of magazines. Most of them are mighty good and most of them live because they are good.

But there's one magazine that not only lives but GROWS. There are fifteen or more good reasons for this in every issue. These reasons are its "unbeatable" features - the special articles obtained at enormous cost - the best fiction in the world - and its powerful, sincere editorial purpose.

The September number for example: Every feature is a big one. It is actually stuffed with big, vital news-information that you ought to have, articles that explain things, stories that every member of your family will read with intense delight. Here are some of the extra good things:

Splendid Fiction. Stories-fine ones-by Arthur Stringer Alice Brown, Mary Heaton Vorse, George Fitch and John Fleming Wilson.

"The Tooth Tinkers"—An account by Roy L. McCardell of "Painless Parkers" and their swindles

"The Czar of Footwear"-Startling facts-all brand newabout the Shoe Machinery Trust, by Judson C. Welliver.

"In Reno Riotous"—A great story of the Johnson-Jeffries fight, by Harris Merton Lyon, filled with personality, crowded with local color, and illustrated just right. The magazine that not only lives but grows is the magazine that is giving to the country "Peary's Own Story," a $50,000 feature; it is the magazine that is publishing the first English translation in America of M. Rostand's world famous drama "Chantecler." It is "the Best Magazine in America" and it is called
