Two Methods—One Result—The "Green Goods" man pretends to sell his victim what he wants, but gives him something else instead. The "Substitutor" uses his persuasive powers to induce his victim to accept what he does not call for. Each uses a different method, but the result is the same. No reputable merchant will offer you a substitute when you call for a standard advertised article. Patronize home advertisers.

crime. D. H. Harrell, of Portland, a brother of the condemned man, has been active in behalf of the murderer. In the case of Rosclair all but one of the petitioners have ceased their efforts, this one being the Rev. W. H. Sellock, of the First Methodist church, this city, who holds to the opinion that the man might be suffering from insane hallucinations. Even a daughter of Rosclair, who came out from the East, has refused to intercede in his behalf.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE AT ALBANY

H. E. BISHOP LOCKS HIMSELF IN HIS ROOM AND SLASHES HIMSELF WITH KNIFE—WAS FOUND LYING IN POOL OF BLOOD.

(Albany Herald.) H. E. Bishop tried to end his life this morning (Monday) by slashing his throat and nearly succeeded. At about 3 a. m. night watchmen Callin and Dougherty received a hurry up call to come to Kieffer's rooming house as there was a party there raising a considerable disturbance yelling and cursing and making a general nuisance of himself. They responded to the call and found that they were unable to get into the room of this man Bishop by the usual door. Mr. Kieffer then suggested another door of which he had the key and they went around to that door and opened it, finding that the bed had been pushed against it. They managed to get into the room finally by using main strength and found Bishop on the floor speechless from loss of blood. The bed was simply drenched with blood and the floor was in the same condition and if the officers had been 10 minutes later in all probability they would have been too late to save the man's life. He had badly hacked himself in a dozen different places and was in a frightful condition, as he had nearly severed one ear entirely, and, as he was left-handed, he had badly slashed his right arm. If he had cut it an inch further around he would have severed one of the main arteries and would have been dead before help could have reached him. When the officers by he in he was

ROOSEVELT STANDS BY INSURGENTS

SAYS ANY EFFORT TO DEFEAT LA FOLLETTE NOW WOULD BE IN BAD FAITH—THE PEOPLE HAVE SPOKEN AND SHOULD BE OBEYED.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 7.—Things began to move in Milwaukee almost the minute Col. Roosevelt stepped from his train here today.

When told that an effort may be made to defeat Senator LaFollette when the legislature convenes at Madison, although the senator scored an overwhelming victory in yesterday's primaries, Roosevelt declared:

"I don't for a moment believe this report. LaFollette won in the primaries after a fair and open contest. Any attempt to act at variance with the wishes of the voters of Wisconsin, expressed in the primaries, would be a direct and deliberate violation of all the tenets of good faith.

"When, in Oregon, Governor Chamberlain carried the primaries, only to encounter a proposal that the Republican legislature reject him, I announced publicly my belief that such action would be in bad faith. I must take the same position here."

The colonel's statement is taken here to be a complete endorsement of the radical insurgency on which LaFollette based his campaign.

Roosevelt was then shown a letter written by Emil Seldel, Milwaukee's Socialist mayor, refusing to serve as chairman of the committee appointed to welcome the distinguished visitor, because of his attitude toward Socialism. After reading the letter, Roosevelt said:

"When I started on this trip I said I would make no partisan speeches or discuss party politics concerning states or municipalities. I don't intend to break that rule. There are places where my views on Socialism can be found, set forth in such terms that they cannot be misunderstood or misinterpreted."

Roosevelt's reception here was cordial. During the morning he was the guest of the Milwaukee press club, after which he automobilized about the city, visiting the Boys and Girls trade school, Marquette University and the chamber of commerce. Luncheon was taken at the Marquette university and the chamber of commerce. Luncheon was taken at the press club, after which a reception was tendered Roosevelt in the club's rooms. He will dine at the press club tonight. Later he will address a meeting at the Auditorium and an overflow meeting at the Hippodrome.

Colonel Roosevelt declined to comment on the defeat of Senator Julius C. Burrows, of Michigan, who fell before Representative Townsend, insurgent, in yesterday's primaries lying on the floor practically naked and had cut himself in a dozen different places, all of which were bleeding freely.

When asked why he did it, he was at first unable to say anything, but when they were washing the blood off him the shock of the cold water probably brought him to and he spoke.

"The water is d— cold," was the first words he spoke. He was immediately asked why he did it and he answered "because I wanted to." That was all they could get out of him. Dr. Davis was called and pronounced his injuries serious but not necessarily fatal.
