HOFER REPLIES TO M'MAHAN

Denies Categorical Grave Charges Against His Character.

SAYS STATEMENTS FALSE

Judges of Supreme Court Declare They Were Never Grafted---Other Accusations Considered and Explained.

Under the above headlines the Oregonian this morning prints the following letter from Col. Hofer:

Salem, Or., Sept. 22.--(To the Editor.)--On Sunday, September 18, on page five, the Oregonian published a letter from L. H. McMahan, dignified in the headlines by being called "Specific charges made against the Salem editor and politician." "Declares that Hofer is plainly a grafter and invites the candidate to bring suit for criminal libel." You also reprint my letter of July 25, in which I said that "I think it is the duty of any citizen if he has a personal experience with a grafter to give the cold, hard facts without referring the public to other people." I still stand by that position taken in my letter of July 25, and call your attention to the fact that McMahan states no facts of his own personal knowledge. His letter is made up of references instead of alleging the specific charges. He refers to other people who claim to have had dealings with the Capital Journal over a period of more than 20 years. During all that time I was editor of the paper and my brother, A. F. Hofer, was business manager. The nearest that McMahan comes to charging me with being a grafter, from his own personal knowledge, is where he says in the next to the last paragraph that a client of his was compelled to pay $25 to the Capital Journal, that being paid to my brother as business manager. I am willing to assume all responsibility, even for anything wrong that my brother did, but my brother is not running for governor.

Statements False and Malicious.

I have spoken from five to 10 times a day to audiences in this city during the past week in closing my campaign, and at each meeting I have invited people to ask me questions as to my public and private character. I have met with from two to five thousand people daily, and at none of these meetings has my private or public character been called in question. I wish now to brand as false and malicious the entire publication made in the Oregonian over the signature of McMahan, and want especially to call your attention to the following paragraph of the McMahan letter:

"First, then, I reiterate the statement that Mr. Hofer has in this community the reputation of being a grafter. If Mr. Hofer will sue me for making these statements I will establish the truth thereof by calling as witnesses all members of the supreme court, the circuit judges of this district, all of the state, county and city officials, the clergymen and business men of Salem."

Accusations Not Sustained.

No one has sustained the accusations made in the above statement that I am a grafter by a single one of the gentlemen above referred to. I have lived in Salem over twenty years, I have fought many hard political battles there, and yet not a single citizen comes forward with the statement to sustain your charge. I sent a representative to the judges of the supreme court, and each one separately said he was prepared to give me a certificate of character of the very highest order, and I pursued the matter no further. Each of the justices said he had never talked with McMahan about me, that McMahan had never talked with anyone of them concerning me, and all decided they had never been "grafted" one dollar or one penny by the Capital Journal and that my character was only of the highest.

Replying to Specific Charges. McMahan charges that about 20 years ago in the city election I extracted $50 from someone when Claud Gatch and Napoleon Davis were running for mayor. I do not remember the circumstances, but if any money was paid, it was part of the slush fund in the political campaign as campaigns were conducted in those days. If I can judge by their utterances, the two gentlemen referred to are both my friends and supporters in my campaign for governor. If George S. Downing was ever asked for $90 in the shape of a graft by me he can say so under his own signature. We have been warm friends and are to this day, and he can choose between me and the assailant of my character as to which of us is an honest man.

The Chamberlain Incident.

Your informant charges that Governor Chamberlain's friends bought the support of the Capital Journal for $500 when he ran for governor against Furnish. In that campaign I decided to support Governor Chamberlain personally and in my newspaper I so informed Governor Chamberlain before the campaign was opened. D. J. Fry and Fred Stensloff were members of Governor Chamberlain's campaign committee. After telling Governor Chamberlain that I and my brother would vote for him and that my newspaper would editorially support him, the campaign committee then wanted a page in my newspaper every day in the advocacy for Governor Chamberlain's election. He used thousands of extra papers, as he had a perfect right to do. Prominent Republicans contribute articles and helped fill the page every day to aid Governor Chamberlain. I think the bills against that committee, which are a matter of public record on the books of the Capital Journal and are open to any court, amounted to $500 and perhaps more. There was no corrupt practice act in that day. The whole matter was an open transaction. Any citizen can call upon Governor Chamberlain or Judge Gatch and ask them about this matter. You, or any other man, can ask them as to their experience with me and with McMahan, and I invite you to print the statement of Judge Gatch or Governor Chamberlain as to my character or McMahan's as to who is an honest man.

The Cornelius Charge.

The Oregonian allows this McMahan, to whom no public man with whom he has ever had any dealings in this state will give a certificate of character, to charge that I tried to bribe Marshal Cornelius of this city. I will close my campaign at Salem with five public meetings on Friday and Mr. Cornelius can appear at those meetings and state whether this is true or not. I have always been his friend and supporter when he was city marshal and I supported him in every act in his official capacity. If he had done anything dishonorable, I never heard of it. I had no occasion to bribe him because he and Mayor Waters and I were intimate friends and I would not have had to give him $60 a month to do anything in his official capacity. Under his administration we closed the saloons in the city of Salem on Sunday, and did other things to make it a cleaner city.

I will not answer McMahan on the charge that I swore falsely as to the circulation of my newspaper.

He was running a newspaper at that time and was defeated in a contest for the county printing. The man he refers to as a witness is dead. The matter was threshed out in the county court in a trial 20 years ago and was decided against McMahan. Nothing further need be said. That McMahan's attack on me is malicious is proven by the fact that it was not published until the Sunday before the primary election. He has had many years to go before the people with his charges. He waited until I was recommended for the office of Internal Revenue Collector. He waited until five days before the primary. He had three months to get into the voter's pamphlet where I have a page as the anti-assembly candidate for governor, and state at the end of it that I challenge any one to review my public and private career. If he had facts to substantiate serious charges against my character he had a right under the Corrupt Practice Act to go into that pamphlet and warn the voters of this state against me, which he did not exercise. This attack in the closing days of the primary campaign is malicious under the laws of this state and I will give him or any other man the fullest opportunity to appear in the courts and allow my character to be sifted to the minutest detail. Perhaps I may have made mistakes in over 20 years of active journalism and political work, but that I have earned the reputation which he has sought to give me I deny.

I wish to state further that McMahan showed his letter making the charges against me to prominent citizens of Salem, bankers, lawyers and printers, who are my friends and several warned me a month in advance that it would be published. They told me what would be charged therein. McMahan's reasons for doing this are apparent and you can draw your own conclusions.

AN OLD-TIME PRESCRIPTION

In a modern product. From time immemorial sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost every one knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair and making it grow. In older times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready to use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. Such a preparation is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, which is sold by all leading druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or which is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price. MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION OF BUTTE PASSES RESOLUTIONS ENDORSING SAN FRANCISCO AS THE PREFERABLE PLACE FOR HOLDING BIG FAIR.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Butte, Mont., Sept. 23.--When San Francisco's representatives seek federal aid for the proposed Panama exposition in 1915, the citizens of Butte will use all their influence with the congressional representatives of Montana to secure the desired assistance for the California city.

At the regular meeting of the Merchants' association last night it was decided that San Francisco was the most fitting place to hold the big show.

Resolutions to this effect were passed and will be sent to Senators Dixon and Carter and Representative Pray, along with a request for them to do everything possible to put forward San Francisco's claim.

G. W. JOHNSON, Salem, Marion County, Oregon. Republican Direct Primary Candidate for Representative.

G. W. JOHNSON.

I came to Marion county with my parents in 1847, and have resided in this immediate vicinity nearly the entire time. For twenty-eight years I have conducted a clothing store in Salem under the name of G. W. Johnson & Co. I have always been a Republican, and have never before asked the party for any favor. This year there is an issue before us. It is either the Assembly or the Direct Primary method. I am opposed to the Assembly, and if you are interested as I am in promoting the welfare of our party you will vote for these candidates, who, as myself, favor the direct primary without evasion or subterfuge.

If I am nominated and elected I will during my term of office faithfully represent the interests of my constituents to the best of my ability, and will support the direct primary law and Statement No. 1, and will oppose the assembly method of nominations. G. W. JOHNSON. (Paid Advertisement.)

TOM KAY

Tom Kay, anti-assembly Republican candidate for State Treasurer, has been a member of the Oregon Legislature for the past eight years, and has an excellent record.

He was the author of the Flat Salary bill, which saves the state over $25,000 a year. Also, an active supporter of the Corporation Tax law, which brings in over $150,000 annually, and of the Inheritance Tax law which brings to the state $60,000 annually.

On account of his persistent opposition to clerkship extravaganzas and unnecessary appropriations, he was known as

"The Watch-Dog of the Treasury."

And was frequently referred to as such by various papers in the state. The Baker City Herald has the following to say: "The most prominent watch-dog in the house at this session of the Legislature is Hon. T. B. Kay, of Marion. He not only objects to measures carrying appropriations that are not of real business, but he backs up his position with a tenacity of purpose. While he has failed in some instances in gaining his point, he has succeeded in saving the taxpayers many thousands of dollars."
