

REPORTER CAPTURED IN LOTTERY

A PRETTY AND HUMOROUS STORY TOLD IN A CATCHY AND ROLLING WAY IN THE PLAY, "THE LOTTERY MAN" HERE SATURDAY.

Nothing could ingratiate a reporter more in the eyes of the managing editor than a "scoop." Since the first newspaper there has been every kind of "exclusive story" but in the comedy of "The Lottery Man," a new comedy by Rida Johnson Young, which the Shuberts will present at the Grand Opera House next Saturday, October 1, use is made of perhaps one of the most novel "beats" ever found in the columns of the press.

The central figure in "The Lottery Man" is Jack Wright, a newspaperer, played by William Rosell. He is a warm friend of Foxey Peyton, who owns the paper, and when he gets a Wall Street tip, Wright goes to his chief for money, promising as security, in the event of failure, his pledge to turn into the paper one of the biggest stories New York has ever known. As the tip fails, Wright is compelled to make good. This he does by offering himself as the prize in a lottery which is to be conducted by the newspaper. Naturally the coupons appeal mostly to women and the campaign among the thousands of contestants waxes warm. Shortly after Jack has offered himself as the human prize, he falls in love with Helene Heyer, which fact causes him to deeply regret his entry into such a foolish scheme.

An unexpected turn of affairs takes place when the lucky coupon is won by the old maid companion to Mrs. Peyton. The maiden lady being very much, as she thinks, in need of a husband, eagerly holds on to the lucky number, only giving it up under the most extraordinary circumstances.

This in main is the thread of the delightful story that Rida Johnson Young—author of "Brown of Harvard," by the way—has woven in "The Lottery Man," which after its long run at the Bijou Theatre, New York, comes here with a cast of the superior excellence. The principal players are: William Rosell, Vivian Ogden, Lucia Moore, Florence Robertson, May Donahue and others. Prices, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50.

* X-RAYS AND SMILES. *

Among the eminent defeated, down-and-out are distinguished men like Samuel G. Hughes, Little Don Smith, Rev. Selleck, Lon Gesner, Prof. Mulkey, and Col. Hofer. For later additions to the list see November returns. But it don't hurt a good man to be downed.

The next battles will be on the football field.

Mud-slinging in the primary campaign did not pay. It did not win out. It did the candidates who resorted to it more harm than good. This should be a lesson to be heeded in the election campaign.—Statesman. This has been repeated so often that we suspect the Statesman must feel guilty.

Professor Norman Wilde, P. H. D. A. B. and P. D. Q., etc., likens Bob Chaulers' love for his wife to a man's appetite for beefsteak. It it was steak Bob was looking for, he could have got a wife with 300 pounds of "round" for much less money than he paid for Cavalieri.

Roosevelt has gone out of the Statesman class and become a professional politician.

The Saratoga convention placed the Republican party of New York in Roosevelt's hands as far as naming candidates is concerned—but the election of his ticket is another proposition. That the party strife will be healed without some political blood-letting is not probable, and the regulars have long knives.

THE DIAMONDS LEAKED OUT OF THE HOTEL SAFE

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] San Francisco, Sept. 28.—How diamonds valued at more than $6,000 could have been stolen from the safe of the Hotel Dale without the knowledge of the hotel management and without damage to the safe, is the problem that the police are today trying to solve.

The jewelry is the property of Mrs. Albert G. Day, wife of the proprietor of the Hotel Jewel, Portland, Oregon, and a prominent sporting man of the Northwest.

To make the case more puzzling, the hotel management states that the jewels were never given into their keeping. Mrs. Day offers proof that they were.

Mrs. Day is said to be prominent in the society circles of Portland.

IDAHO FARMERS HOLD WHEAT FOR BETTER PRICES

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Moscow, Idaho, Sept. 28.—Within 10 minutes at the big farmers' meeting held here yesterday, over $20,000 was offered by farmers on wheat receipts to other farmers who wished to hold their wheat for better prices. Over 90,000 bushels are to be handled in this way.

The farmers' warehouse here today is offering 71 cents to its members for red wheat, which is estimated above the price offered by other buyers.

Because the crop this year is only 50 per cent of the usual yield, the farmers think that prices should be better. Since they have an abundance of money of their own, it is their intention to hold their wheat indefinitely.

THE MINT WILL BE HIDE BUT SALARIES WILL RUN

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, Sept. 28.—Workmen today are engaged in taking down the immense gold rollers of the New Orleans mint as the result of orders issued by Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh. The rollers are to be transferred to the Philadelphia mint to be used in the coinage of European gold sent to this country.

Some time ago the New Orleans mint coined some gold for the Mexican government but otherwise it has remained idle most of the last 18 months. The mint can not be abolished and the statutory force of employees must be maintained, but operations of the institution have indefinitely ceased.

TAFT GOT THE NEWS HOT FROM THE WIRE

Washington, Sept. 28.—The interest shown by President Taft and the cabinet in the fight in the Republican state convention at Saratoga, N. Y., is indicated by the "cutting in" of a United Press wire at the White House. The president and his advisers received the news of yesterday's sensational news direct from "the ringside" and were kept informed of today's developments "play."

All the good qualities of Ely's Cream Balm, solid, are found in Liquid Cream Balm, which is intended for use in atomizers. That it is a wonderful remedy for Nasal Catarrh is proved by an ever-increasing mass of testimony. It does not dry out nor rasp the tender air-passages. It allays the inflammation and goes straight to the root of the disease. Obstinate old cases have yielded in a few weeks. All druggists, 75c, including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

Catchy Music

"A Stubborn Cinderella" has a slight plot. It doesn't make much difference, though, as it is merely intended to blend together the songs and lines and the company. Some good work falls to Miss Lillian Goldsmith, a capable young lady, who knows how to take care of her part. She also sings sweetly and dances admirably. One of her songs, "Love Me Just Because" is the song hit of the show.

ANOTHER BARGAIN DAY

Friday, September 30, 1910

We find that so many people were away on their vacation in August, and were unable to take advantage of our Bargain day, August 31 that we have decided to give those who came in after that date another opportunity to secure The Journal at a reduced rate until September 30, 1910. This will be absolutely the last chance, however, so do not delay, as the time is short. The Journal has a full leased wire telegraph report of 15,000 words daily, and prints the Portland and Salem market reports in full for the benefit of the farmers.

$3 Saves a Big Dollar

All subscribers to The Daily Capital Journal by mail, at the stores or on routes, who pay all arrears to Sept. 30, 1910, can secure the Daily Capital Journal one year in advance for $3. If you are paid a little in advance of September 30, pay one year from the date you are paid to, and save the dollar.

$5 Saves a Big Dollar

All subscribers to the Daily Capital Journal by carrier who pay up all arrears to September 30, 1910, can secure the Daily Capital Journal one year in advance for $5.00. If you are paid a little in advance of September 30, 1910, pay for a year from the date you are paid to and save the dollar.

The Annual Bargain Day

Saves our subscribers Hundreds of Dollars. Start at once to take advantage of our BARGAIN DAY. Remit by mail or call at the JOURNAL OFFICE on or before Friday evening, September 30, to secure this reduction. Do not ask for this rate after September 30.
