OWNERS DEFY THE COUNCIL

THEY MOVED THE BUILDING DESPITE BEING REFUSED A PERMIT, AND NOW IT IS UP TO THE COUNCIL WHOSE MOVE IT IS NEXT.

"We're here because, we're here because we're here", etc. Chorus sung by T. G. Bligh, Meyer & Belle, et al. when asked how it happened that their wooden structure which formerly occupied a frontage on State street now happens to occupy a frontage on Liberty street in the same block, notwithstanding the refusal of the city council at the last session to grant permission for the petitioned transfer of sites of the structures.

The building has been moved and unless the city council brings suit to condemn and have the building removed and is successful in its suit, it bids fair to remain there until it rots or is torn down to give place to a more substantial structure upon the property of the Verant estate, at the corner of State and Liberty streets.

It was a grand coup upon the part of the owners of the building and the petitioners for permission for its removal to get the building around to its present site regardless and in spite of the council's refusal to permit the transfer of locations for the building and it now seems that it is up to the city council to prove that it was unlawful for the owners and occupants of the building to move it.

There will evidently be "moving pictures" at the next meeting of the city council.

SPEED-MADDENED CROWD.

rived. Bacon was taken to the hospital. He will die.

For half an hour no one had the courage to tell Mrs. Stone of the accident, and she laughed and chatted with friends in the grand stand, while the rescue party carried the body of her crushed and mangled husband from the gully to a hospital.

When the news finally reached her she collapsed, and is now under the care of a physician. She drove over the course yesterday with her husband.

Stone was only 21 years old. He drove the big car in the race merely for adventure. He is said to have to have received a salary of $250 weekly for his services as manager for the Columbia Company.

Never in the history of the race have there been so many minor injuries. Spectators stepping too near the flying cars were knocked down. Men were run over in the full sight of the grand stand, and the speed-maddened crowd cheered as the flying cars swept onward, paying no heed to the accidents.

One car was destroyed by fire, another turned a somersault, after striking a touring car, and scores of minor accidents attended the event.

Conditions at the course were almost chaotic. Ambulances hurried the injured from the scenes, and drove them to the hospitals.

In many cases the names of the injured and dying were not known to the hospital authorities who treated them.

The dead:
 Harold Stone, driver Columbia car.
 Ferdinand D'Zieva, spectator.
 Charles Miller, mechanician Chevrolet's car.

William Bacon, mechanician.
 Unidentified man, struck by car, thought to have been Pope-Hartford, driven by Fleming. Man hurled under car.; both legs severed; died later at Nassau hospital, Mineola. Accident occurred on Massapequa road.

Fatally injured:
 Harold Hall, mechanician, body crushed.
 Martin Levisohn, spectator, both legs and body crushed.
 Joseph Cook, spectator, skull fractured.

Thomas Miller, spectator, legs ground off.
 — Potlier, spectator, ribs broken.

August Gramuttin, chauffeur, spectator, internally hurt.
 William Peterson, spectator, face crushed in, skull fractured.

Injured:
 Louis Chevroet, driver, Marquette Buick, bruises.
 Mrs. Ferdinand D'Zieva, leg broken.
 Mrs. Potlier, spectator, internally hurt.

August Seebach, spectator, cut bruised.
 Edward H. Brown, spectator, hip dislocated.

Carnell Ree, spectator, broken leg.
 Five women in car struck by Chevrolet. Injuries unknown.
 Five passengers in D'Zieva auto, injuries unknown.

Thousands saw the 31 racers on-

DEMOCRATS ALL ANTI ASSEMBLY

GAVE HANDSOME COMPLIMENTARY VOTE TO MANY ANTI-ASSEMBLY REPUBLICANS—SOME GETTING THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION.

The principle embodied in the direct primary law and those advocated by the anti-assembly wing of the Republican party in Oregon was given a strong endorsement, not only by the majority of the Republican voters of the state at the recent primary nominating election, but by the Democratic party which cast an almost solid vote for the anti-assembly Republican nominees for the legislative and county offices the canvass of which vote was completed and the results announced by the canvassing board late yesterday.

Dr. W. S. Mott and Charles L. Dick, both of this city, were given the nomination for state senators on the Democratic ticket; but the most notable feature of the returns is that, of the five Democratic candidates for election to the legislature, A. C. Libbey, of Jefferson, the Republican anti-assembly nominee, received the highest complimentary vote; George W. Johnson, anti-assembly Republican nominee, is second; Henry Downing, Democrat, of the Waldo hills neighborhood, third; and Sherman Swank and A. G. Steelhammer, of Sublimity and Silverton, respectively, and both Republican anti-assembly nominees, are given the Democratic nomination with a highly complimentary vote.

M. L. Baldwin, of this city, was given the Democratic nomination for county clerk with 49 votes, but County Clerk Allen, the Republican nominee, ran him a close second with 31 votes and there is not much evidence of a contest there. Eugene Aufrance, the anti-assembly Republican nominee for county recorder, received 15 Democratic votes as against 23 for A. M. Dalrymple, the Democratic candidate. Like complimentary treatment at the hands of the Democratic brethren in the county, including Sheriff Minto, County Treasurer J. G. Moore and others.

The Democratic state, county and legislative ticket follows:

State Officers:

For governor—Meyers, 84; West, 583.

Smith, 34; Mulkey, 31.

"It Beats All."

This is quoted from a letter of M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo. "I recently used Foley's Honey and Tar for the first time. To say I am pleased does not half express my feelings. It beats all the remedies I ever used. I had contracted a bad cold and was nearly sick in bed, having a terrible headache and cough and was threatened with pneumonia. The first doses gave great relief and one bottle completely cured me. I shall always recommend Foley's Honey and Tar." Red Cross Pharmacy (H. Jerman) tered for the Vanderbilt cup start at daybreak today. Rain threatened to interfere with the race, but at 5:45 the drivers were sent away before a crowd of tremendous proportions. It was estimated that half a million spectators lined the course. Thousands of autos and scores of special trains carried many enthusiasts.

The reckless chances taken by the drivers drew an immense throng. It is estimated that 20,000 autos lined the course. In spite of the efforts of the Pinkertons and the deputies who patrolled the course, thousands gathered at the corners, where the greatest danger was and many saw the accidents that marred the races.

SOLID FOOTWEAR FOR CHILDREN

There is an increasing demand for better shoes. That is perfectly natural. The best is always the cheapest; but the highest priced are not always the best. Our cash plan gives you the benefit of longer wear for less money.

There is a big lot of durability in our Blue Ribbon Shoes for Boys and Girls. They look neat and dressy, too. All we ask is that you try a pair now, at a time of the year when they are given the most severe test. The children ask for Buster Brown shoes until they are grown up and can no longer get them. We have them in Box Calf and Gun Metal—excellent leathers for school wear—in lace or button; also in kid and patent leathers for those who prefer something lighter and dressier.
