THE NEW REPUBLIC RECOGNIZED BY ENTIRE DIPLOMATIC CORPS

STORY OF KING'S ESCAPE OPPOSITION ABOUT ENDED THE KING IS AT GIBRALTAR

The "City Guard" Which Held Out Longest of All of the King's Supporters, Yesterday Joined Their Fortunes With the Republic--Assurances Have Been Received From President Braga From Leading Officials of Most of the Provinces Pledging Loyalty to the Republic.

Lisbon, Oct. 7.—The republic of Portugal was virtually recognized today by the foreign diplomatic corps stationed here. The various ministers, headed by Sir Francis Villiers of Great Britain, called upon the provisional foreign minister, Dr. Machado, tendered their respect and received assurances of the new administration that treaties and the rights of foreigners in Portugal would be protected.

It was announced that the deposed king, Manuel, the queen mother, Amelie, Dowager Queen Maria Pia, and Manuel's uncle, the Duke of Oporto, would be exiled, but that their personal property rights would be respected. This is an unexpected concession by the Republicans.

The United Press today obtained the first connected account of the movements of the royal family from the beginning of the revolution. King Manuel at first wanted to stay in Lisbon and fight, but his advisers forced him to flee. When the Necessidades palace began to crumble under the shells of the Republican-manned warships and forts, Manuel left the building by means of a secret exit and went to Mafra, north of Lisbon. Queen Amelie and Dowager Queen Maria Pia, then at Cintra, joined Manuel at Mafra. The Duke of Oporto remained in hiding until Thursday, when he boarded the royal yacht Amelie and sailed to Ericeira, near Mafra. Manuel and the others, guarded by the students of the Mafra military school, went to Ericeira. On the way the young king wept constantly and threatened repeatedly to return. He was dissuaded from his purpose by his mother and the party boarded the royal yacht.

The little craft sailed at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon and reached Gibraltar at 11 o'clock last night. Today they were the guests of the Fighting in Spain.

Barcelona, via Cerbere, Oct. 7.—Constant clashes between the civil guard and the revolutionists have been occurring during the last 48 hours. The injured number more than a score. Conditions here are similar to those reported elsewhere. The fact that the civil guard has been called out confirms the seriousness of the situation.

Opposition Is Ceasing.
Lisbon, Oct. 7.—Danger of an uprising in the provinces for the purpose of restoring Manuel to the throne has reached a minimum, according to a statement issued today by the provisional cabinet.

President Braga said that messages have been received from leading officials in the provinces giving assurances of loyalty and support to the republic.

The cabinet at the same time issued a denial that the royalists were mobilizing to attack Lisbon. Notwithstanding this the entire Republican force of the army and navy is held in readiness for an emergency.

The "city guard," which held out for two days against the Nationalists, today joined their fortunes with those of the republic. Business conditions have become nearly normal and banks and stores have reopened.

Want Race in Indiana.
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 7.—An offer of $10,000 was telegraphed to William K. Vanderbilt by the Motor Speedway officials here today in an effort to have the Grand Prix race, which has been called off in New York, held in Indianapolis. The sum named is to be given in addition to the regular prizes.

CHASE ALL MANNER OF SHADOWS

Stimulated by Immense Reward All California Has Gone Into the Detective Business, and Is Suspecting Everybody

DETECTIVES LOOKING WISE

Albert Homan, arrested yesterday at Yuma, says he was asked by two men to join in dynamiting plan, a very improbable story—Another mysterious gasoline launch, the "Kate," is now in the limelight with the "Peerless."

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 7.—Out of the mass of clues that might lead to the solution of the Times dynamiting the police have selected three leads which appear to them to be the most promising.

For the last 48 hours detectives have kept close watch at the home of a man whom they say frequently has been under surveillance for eastern authorities. His actions since the explosion, they say, have warranted the guard placed about his home, which is in the southeastern section of the city.

Last night shortly before midnight two men were seen to enter the building through a rear door. When they reappeared half an hour later they were followed by two of the officers who were watching the house. The police refuse to make public the source of their suspicions against the man.

The second lead which they regard as promising is the statement of Albert Hoffman, who was arrested yesterday in Yuma after, it is alleged, he had declared he could explain the dynamiting of the Times plant.

Hoffman stated that he had been asked by two men to join them in the dynamiting plan. The proposition was made, he said, in a Los Angeles saloon.

The gasoline schooner Kate and its wanderings are of unusual interest to the officers, who have learned that the little craft was taken from San Pedro to San Francisco early in September. A mysterious vessel was sighted off the Venice pier late on the night of September 29 by employees of the Windward hotel. It had disappeared before morning, but returned on the night of September 30.

The hotel employees attached no significance to the craft's visit until the Kate was drawn into the discussion of the disaster. They believe it carried a gasoline engine.

MAY SETTLE LOS ANGELES METAL STRIKE

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 7.—The end of the metal workers' strike, which began in this city June 1, is in sight. Mediators, it was learned today, have succeeded in gaining the consent of the foundrymen's association, composed of the metal workers' employers, a branch of the Manufacturers' and Merchants' Association, to meet the general strike committee and representatives of the metal trades council, with a view of settling differences, and calling off the strike.

Heretofore the foundrymen's association has absolutely refused to negotiate. The first conference between the foundrymen, the strike committee and the metal trades council will be held Monday.

FORMAL RATIFICATION OF REPUBLICAN TICKET

Saturday Night at the Grand Opera House Will See Most Enthusiastic Sendoff for the Whole State, County and Judicial Ticket.

The formal ratification of the Republican state ticket will take place at the Grand Opera house Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, when Governor Bowerman and all the state candidates will be present and make their bow to a Salem audience.

The Salem Military band will play on the streets and Mrs. Hinges has been engaged to sing the "Star Spangled Banner," and Hon. Dan Malair key will make one of his impassioned speeches for the cause of the whole Republican ticket. All the state candidates will be there except Hon. Willis Dunlavy, who has been flat on his back since August 25, but is recovering nicely and will soon be on his feet.

Hon. Grant Dimick and Hon. Albert Abraham have been invited and the meeting will be held under the auspices of the Taft-Sherman Republican club of this city of which Mr. Charles McNary is president. The people of Salem will turn out and give the whole ticket a fine sendoff. Republicans of Polk county have taken up the matter and will come over with an excursion train from Polk City to swell the crowd. Other towns will send delegations.

KING MAY BE NAMED FOR LONG AND SHORT TERMS AND KAY BY BOTH PARTIES

Democrats Can Now Name No Opponent to McKay---They Wrote in the Names of King and Slater for Supreme Court But Got Writer's Cramp on Moore and McBride---They Also Got a Bad Spell on in Trying to Write Rinehart, and Called Him All Kinds of Names Besides.

Did the Democrats "throw the Republicans down" in their alleged joint agreement or understanding that they would "swap" votes on the state judiciary ticket at the primary nominating election, or did the Republicans "fall to come through" with their part of the agreement in the writing of the names of Justices Slater and King upon the judiciary ticket?

On the other hand, did Justice King receive the nomination of both the six and four-year terms of office as Judge on the supreme bench on the Democratic ticket and, in that event, does Justice McBride get shut out of the running on the Democratic or non-partisan ticket for the 4-year term for which he is a candidate? Also if T. B. Kay, Republican, receives the nomination of both the Republicans and Democrats for the office of state treasurer, where do the Democrats come in for an opposing candidate at the general election in November?

These and many other perplexing questions naturally arise from the comparison of the returns of the recent primary nominating election, as they are being received in the office of the secretary of state from the several counties, and there are many problems that will probably never be satisfactorily answered to all concerned. The returns from all of the counties in the state have been received with the exception of Harney county and the secretary of state has received telegraphic information that the county clerk's abstract of votes from Harney were mailed October 5, and may arrive by any mail, but there is a probability of mistake in the returns from Umatilla county on the state judiciary ticket as to the vote of Justice King, and until certification of these latter returns are received the official result cannot be announced until tomorrow.

In the struggle of the State Bar association for the nomination of a non-partisan judiciary ticket against the regular or assembly judiciary ticket it was tacitly agreed, or at least understood that the Republicans were to scratch the names of Judge Burnett and Wallace Mc-

Camant from their ticket and write in the names of Justices King and Slater, for the six and four-year terms, respectively, and that the Democrats were to write in the names of Justices Moore, McBride, King and Slater. There seems to have been a slip somewhere, however, on the part of the Democrats for, while they wrote in the names of King and Slater very carefully and devotedly they forgot to mention Justices Moore and McBride every time, with the result that, if the returns from Umatilla county are correct, which gives King 282 votes for the six-year term and 51 votes for the four-year term, Judge King has been given the Democratic, or
