

X-RAYS AND SMILES.

If that explosion at Los Angeles had knocked a few letters out of Zeehandelaar's name, they never would be missed.

It is claimed that one of the biggest forest fires that raged last summer was caused by a federal employe engaged in "conserving our forests" who threw a cigarette stub into a mass of dry ferns, destroying $2,000,000 worth of timber.

The natty little launch being completed for the engineers' corps, for use on the upper Willamette, will be named the Salem. This ought to insure her "going some."

If the proverb, "Cleanliness is next to Godliness" applies to civic cleanliness, then there is little "Godliness" in Salem's churches, for their lawns and parkings are almost all dirty and disgraceful.

Corbella Pinkham will captain the girls' football team at the U. of O. The game is conducive to good health and the horse editor suggests that in honor of the captain's name, the team adopt the motto, "Yours for health."

Every man in California who is not a dynamiter is looking for one. That $150,000 reward has made everybody in the state suspicious of everybody else.

STATE NEWS.

Morrow county, it is said, will give the Republican ticket a big majority. A man taken in and treated at the Eugene hospital showed his gratitude Wednesday by skipping with $650 belonging to the institution.

Pendleton is indignant over the proposition made by Portlanders to have a "round up" at the next horse show, Pendleton claiming the round up belongs to her alone—copyrighted at that.

The town of Linnton, six miles north of Portland, was incorporated Wednesday.

Medford's postal receipts show an increase of 53 per cent in the past 12 months.

Mrs. Salome Matthews was found dead in her bed at Medford Tuesday morning.

The Grants Pass Fair opened Wednesday with a good attendance. Mrs. Janet Bulck, a pioneer of Douglas county, died at her home in Roseburg Wednesday. She was 83 years old.

The Pacific & Eastern is soon to begin surveying its interurban road connecting the cities of Rogue River valley.

The $8,000 hot house for the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis is about completed.

Several persons have been wounded and one killed in hunting accidents near Medford this season.

Clackamas county is preparing to make a vigorous fight against Multnomah swiping a portion of her territory.

An Albany company has secured 2,600 acres near Lebanon, which it will set to orchard.

The Teachers' institute at The Dalles Wednesday afternoon was attended by 170 teachers from Wasco, Sherman and Hood River counties.

A fire in the Baker City restricted district did $4,000 worth of damage Sunday night.

Nathaniel D. Bala was accidentally killed by Clark W. Loughery at Astoria Sunday while the latter was cleaning his gun, it being accidentally discharged.

The S. P. will lay 90-pound steel rails in place of those now in use between Portland and Roseburg within the next eight months.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has become famous for its cures of coughs, colds, croup and influenza. Try it when in need. It contains no harmful substance and always gives prompt relief. Sold by all dealers.

No More Rent

$200 will secure a good six-room house in a fine location in North Salem, with a large lot. The balance can be paid like rent. Price of place is only $1500.

$150 will handle a large 8-room house on Market street. The rest can be paid $10 or $12 per month. Price of this house and lot only $1,350. Why enrich your landlord when you can thus secure a place of your own on such easy payments? Even if you only want to stay in Salem a year or two, you then have something to sell, instead of having a worthless bunch of rent receipts. We know the game; come in and let us show you how easy it is to get a start. We have helped others to get their own homes and can help you, if you have not got all of the first payment, maybe we can help you out on that, too. Let's talk it over.
