FOURTEEN BODIES ARE RECOVERED

FUNERAL OF VICTIMS OF COAL MINE HORROR WERE HELD THIS AFTERNOON—VENTILATING FANS BLAMED FOR EXPLOSION.

(UNITED PRESS LEASING WIRE.)
Starkville, Colo., Oct. 12.—Three bodies in addition to the 11 taken out yesterday and last night were located today by rescue gangs working in the Starkville mine.

The bodies were charred or mangled and only were identified by the system of brass checks given laborers by the Colorado Fuel and Iron company, owners of the mine.

A public burial will be held today of all the victims recovered. A coroner's inquest is set for this afternoon.

Rescuers are now opening the "K" series of entries in the mine, where 20 men are believed to be dead. New fans have been installed and the debris is being removed rapidly from the tunnels.

Charges are being made that the ventilating fans were carelessly watched and that one old fan frequently threw sparks which were sufficient to cause an explosion.

Deputy Commissioner of Labor Cross is today investigating these charges. His report on the recent disaster in the Primero mine denounced the operating company severely.

"GAY PAREE" CUT OFF.

The men are inexperienced, entering into the work in a half hearted way and their number is inadequate to carry out any systematic schedule.

Thousands of strikers and their sympathizers surrounded the Porta Maillet station at Neully avenue and hurled rocks through the windows of several trains left stranded there. Switch stands were pried from position and frogs and fish-plates torn up.

A detachment of troops left to guard the station remained discreetly in the background until reinforcements arrived. A few bricks were thrown and the situation was tense for a few moments but the soldiers cleared the depot grounds without having to unsheathe their bayonets.

Automatic switches have been tampered with and made useless. At Javel station a serious wreck is reported to have occurred when an engine plunged into a string of cars on a siding through an open switch on which the light had been reversed.

Reports of the wreck are meager. Another serious disturbance is said to have occurred near Grenelle station soon after the employees of the Western walked out. Fully 5,000 men employed on the Seine ferries and in the yards congregated there. Half a dozen of the engines with steam up stood in the yards deserted by their crews. Troops in sufficient numbers to control the rapidly swelling mobs had not yet arrived and a movement to run the engines into the Seine was started. Loyal employees, station police and such reinforcements as could be obtained fought pluckily and with the assistance of half a dozen men who refused to strike, placed the rolling stock in a position where it could be protected. The arrival of a half regiment of troops relieved a highly dangerous situation.

Employees of the Paris, Lyons and Mediterranean road, which operates nearly 10,000 kilometers of road and which has 82,000 general employees, received cards distributed by their leaders early today bearing the simple inscription "6 o'clock." The card was taken to indicate that they would quit at that hour. The road runs directly into the heart of Paris.

Operatives on the Metropolitan railway, which is the Paris underground, at a meeting today, favored a general strike. If they quit they will be followed by the Omnibus tramway employees, and the city will not only be cut off from the provinces but will be dependent solely on its street railways for transportation.

Workers on the Orleans road held a meeting today and decided to strike but withheld the date on which the walkout will take place.

Serious rioting with attendant bloodshed is expected to occur at any time.

The strikers are ignoring the orders of the government to join the reserves. If the government classed them as deserters and orders arrested to be made, bloody conflicts are predicted.

The National Confederation of Railway Unions met last night and ordered a vote to be taken on all lines in France on the question of a general strike.

The food supply in Paris is diminishing with the cutting off of all approach by train.

WALLACE IS HELD PENDING INSTRUCTIONS

(UNITED PRESS LEASING WIRE.)
Sacramento, Calif., Oct. 12.—Union Chief of Police Ahorn receives instructions from Chief Galloway, of Los Angeles, he will do no further investigating of the alleged connection of George Wallace with the Times dynamiting.

Wallace was arrested yesterday in the act of tearing up a letter from John Murray in Los Angeles, which, it is believed, referred to the dynamiting. Nothing tangible, however, was contained in the letter, which was in guarded words.

Wallace is being detained in close confinement. He spent a restless night and was heard to moan incoherently by the night sergeant something about dynamiting and "rich men that gave a poor man no chance."

"I will take no further steps in the matter until I hear from Galloway," said Chief Ahorn. "I arrested Wallace at his request and it is not my place to push the case until Galloway sends instructions."

FEDERAL JUDGE EDWARD WHITSON IS PARALYZED

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 12.—Judge Edward Whitson, of the United States court, was stricken with paralysis this morning, the collapse following almost immediately after he had sentenced C. D. Howells, a train robber, to life imprisonment. This sentence together with nervous strain connected with a long term of court in which several important cases have been tried, is given as the cause. His entire right side is completely paralyzed although his condition is much better than it was when he was discovered on the floor of his room at 7 o'clock this morning.

Clerk W. H. O'Hare of the federal court has telegraphed headquarters at San Francisco and believes that another judge will be sent to take Judge Whitson's seat through the present season.

WITNESS COLLAPSES ON STAND

HENRY PALMER WHILE GIVING TESTIMONY IN COURT THIS MORNING, SUDDENLY COLLAPSED — BECOMES CONSCIOUS AND IS TAKEN TO HOSPITAL.

Considerable commotion was created in Judge Burnett's department of the circuit court at 11 o'clock this morning, during the trial of the case of Laura Palmer, against the Portland Railway, Light & Power company, when Henry Palmer, husband of the plaintiff, who was on the witness stand, collapsed in the chair and was carried out of the courtroom and to the Willamette Sanatorium, where he is still confined in bed and the proceedings in the case were completely disrupted and may have to be continued indefinitely. Mr. Palmer's condition was much improved this afternoon and the court continued the case over until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The case of Laura Palmer against the P. R. L. & P. Co., is an old one. It has run the gamut of the circuit and supreme courts once and is now in the first stage of the second-lap in the course of justice. During the summer of 1907 one of the street cars of the local street railway company collided with a buggy in East Salem and Mrs. Palmer was thrown out and received injuries as a result of which she sued the company for $10,000 damages. The case was tried in the circuit court and the plaintiff was non-suited; whereupon she took an appeal to the supreme court and that tribunal remanded the case back to the trial court for re-trial on error, and it is now upon second trial.

All of the witnesses in the case had been examined but Mr. Palmer, husband of the plaintiff, was recalled to the witness stand in rebuttal and when he was giving his testimony he faltered; his head sunk upon his breast, he recovered himself and then, with a few gasps, collapsed completely. Some of the jurymen, Judge Burnett and others within the bar of the court rushed to his assistance and he was finally carried from the courtroom and taken to the Willamette Sanatorium where Dr. Cartwright was called in to administer to his needs. At first it was thought that he was dead but he revived slightly before being carried from the courtroom and it is believed that he will recover. Dr. Cartwright diagnosed the case as an attack of epilepsy and the witness will be able to resume the stand in the morning.

M'CREIDIE IS EVIDENTLY A BIT WARM

EXPRESSES HIS OPINION LIKE A ROOSEVELT, AND SAYS HE WILL APPEAL FROM GRAHAM'S DECISION TO THE NATIONAL COMMISSION.

(UNITED PRESS LEASING WIRE.)
Portland, Or., Oct. 12.—When informed of President Thomas Graham's decision by which three games played between Portland and Oakland were forfeited to Oakland because Heiting played with the Bearers, Walter McCredie, captain of the Portland team roundly denounced the officials of the league, and declared that the case would be appealed to the national commission if necessary. He said:

"I am convinced that the whole thing is a frame up, and that the Pacific coast league is rotten all the way through. It will remain rotten, too, until certain officials are ousted."

"We will appeal President Graham's decision to the board of directors of the Pacific coast league. If that does not do any good we will appeal to the national commission."

"We intend to go through every baseball court in the land until we find just where we stand, and whether or not Judge Graham can rob us of three games to satisfy the peanut politicians of this league. I guess they know down there who I mean when I say 'peanut politicians.'"

"Judge Graham and the Oakland club have not only robbed us out of these three games, but they have played the pickpocket on two more occasions. I refer to the hold-up at Empire Van Haltren subjected us to, and Judge Graham decided against us on that protested game at Oakland earlier in the season. Van Haltren misrepresented matters from start to finish in the investigation afterwards. He knew that he was misrepresenting, and he had to do it because he owned property in Oakland and wanted to protect himself. Van Haltren can that date transgressed no baseball rules, yet they overlooked the cardinal principle in baseball—that an umpire's decision is final."

"They robbed us of Carson in the same way."

"We have some interesting news to give out in a few days, and President Graham and the rest of the bunch down there will have to hunt their holes."

CUPID HELD UP
JANUS ALL RIGHT

There are only a few things that can interrupt the proceedings of a court of law, and one of these things is "Dan Cupid," and this wily little elf exercised his right of authority over Justice of the Peace Webster's court this morning, when he stepped into the court room and stopped the motion of the machinery of the law long enough for Justice Webster to tie a hymeneal knot which bound James Thomas Minchin, of Seattle, a showman, aged 23, and Miss Julia Marie Balo, an actress, of 21, together for life. The wedding took place at about 10 o'clock this morning, and the happy young couple took their departure, and carried with them the blessings of the court and the well-wishes of the witnesses.

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS
Do Not Endanger Life When a Salem Citizen Shows You the Cure.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney diseases, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Salem testimony:
