

PITTSBURG IS FIGHTING PROFANITY

FIFTY THOUSAND PARADE! STREETS SINGING HYMNS IN A BIG DEMONSTRATION CONDEMNING THE INCREASING USE OF PROFANITY.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 17.—It is death to the knife on profanity and impure language in Pittsburg today. The fight against the free use of words tabooed in polite society began yesterday when 50,000 persons, headed by singing choirs instead of blaring brass bands, paraded through the streets as a demonstration against the growing use of profanity.

Although trouble was expected in the rougher districts, no demonstrations were made against the marchers.

Each division carried at its head an American flag and there was a studied effort to dispense with blare and gaudy trappings of ordinary parades.

The church choir at the head of each division, sang hymns as they passed through the streets. Each marcher wore a small badge formed of an American flag, but no other color was displayed.

At the close of the parade, Bishop Regis Canevin bestowed benediction and the sacrament to the 50,000 persons in the open air, congregated about St. Paul's cathedral.

ELLEN BEACH YAW HERE THURSDAY

On the first part of a young singer's life, Ellen Beach Yaw, the foremost living American coloratura soprano, who is soon to be heard in concert here, was asked recently what she considered the best period of a young singer's life.

Instantly the prima donna answered "those years in which she knows no one but Master Work, and in which not a soul knows her."

Continuing, Miss Yaw said: "Work, as we all know, is after all its own reward. There is no road to success in any line of endeavor except by work, and I know of no better sensation than the satisfaction that comes from restful toil."

Not all the triumphs of after years give a young aspirant so great a thrill as the master's first hearty, "well done!"

"She may receive the plaudits of the world's most discriminating audiences; she may receive a shower of critical bouquets, she may get engagements whose pecuniary advantages are overwhelming, but, after all, were not these things expected, if she has done her work properly?"

"The first studio accomplishment—the first day that she has done, almost perfectly, a simple song, will linger longer in memory than the favor of royalty. Why? Because it is from within, and the still small voice from within always moves us more profoundly than any tempest which may rage without."

"I know, because I have experienced both, and my sweetest memory is the first time in which I really pleased myself."

GOOD FOOTBALL PROMISED FOR NEXT SATURDAY

The football team at Willamette begins work in earnest today, preparatory to the game with the Oregon Agricultural College next Saturday. O. A. C. has a very strong team this year, having a fast, heavy line, and safe good backfield men. The game promises to be one of the hardest and most interesting ever played on the field; as the Willamette bunch though not so heavy, will undoubtedly show a little class.

Pacific University, which was expected to furnish a hard game for the locals, was defeated yesterday to the tune of 13 to 16 by Hill's Military Academy, whom Willamette easily defeated last Saturday by four touchdowns. Pacific will probably ginger up toward the last of the the season.

An Arizona Feary.

Apreros of "Arizona" which comes to the Grand tonight, a good story is being told. The other day Philadelphia awoke to find the town beset with the announcement: "One dollar and fifty cents to Arizona." Railway agents and booking offices all over the town were worried over this wonderfully low rate of transit, and it was only after a few thousand explanations by telephone and messenger that people began to understand that the posters referred to the theatre where the drama called "Arizona" was being played.

DEEDS, NOT WORDS. Salem People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home. It's not words, but deeds that prove true merit. The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills, for Salem kidney sufferers, have made their local reputation. Proof lies in the testimony of Salem people who have been cured to stay cured.

I. N. Ridgeway, 485 S. 22d street, Salem, Oregon, says: "For a long time I knew that my kidneys were disordered, as I suffered from pains in the small of my back, especially severe when I stooped or lifted. I did not rest well and arose in the morning so lame and sore that I could hardly get about. I became tired easily, felt languid and was often very nervous. I was also subjected to intense headaches and dizzy spells, during which my sight became blurred. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention and deciding to try them, I procured a box at Dr. Stone's Drug Store. They went at once to the seat of my trouble and in a short time entirely relieved me. Doan's Kidney Pills have my highest endorsement." (Statement given March 25, 1906.)

After Three Years. On Nov. 26, 1909 Mr. Ridgeway said: "The statement I gave for publication recommending Doan's Kidney Pills in 1906 was correct in every detail. This remedy benefited me greatly and I am glad to tell other kidney sufferers of my experiences."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
