FEW DOSES END BACKACHE AND KIDNEY MISERY

In all the world there is no man or woman who can afford to neglect the slightest kidney disorder for one single day. Kidney diseases are the most dangerous, because the first signs are seen in other parts of the body before anything wrong is noticed with the kidneys themselves.

Some of the symptoms, though, cannot be mistaken: for instance, a constant aching or misery in the back, sides or loins, or headaches and dizzy spells, nervous twitchings, disturbed sleep, inflamed or puffy eyelids, heart palpitations, rheumatic pains, weakness, bilious stomach or a feeling of languor and fatigue. Sick, unhealthy kidneys also cause thick, cloudy, offensive urine or it is full of sediment, irregular of passage and often uncontrollable or attended by a sensation of scalding.

The time to cure kidney trouble is before it settles into Diabetes, Dropsy, Gravel, or Bright's Disease. The moment you suspect the slightest kidney, bladder or urinary disorder, begin taking Pape's Diuretic as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine, at any price, made anywhere in the world, which will effect so prompt a cure. In just a few days you feel and know that the kidneys, bladder and urinary organs are healthy, clean and normal and all danger passed.

Your physician, pharmacist, banker or any mercantile agency will vouch for the responsibility of Pape, Thompson & Pape, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who prepare Pape's Diuretic—50 cent treatment—sold by every druggist in the world.

ANOTHER DYNAMITER ARRESTED

Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 21.—Morris Fitzgerald, who has been under surveillance since he fell from a train at Hanford, October 2, was brought here today by two detectives of the Los Angeles police force and taken to the county jail.

When Fitzgerald was taken to the Kings county hospital at Hanford, papers found in his pockets caused the authorities to notify the San Francisco police that he might have some knowledge of the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building. No charge was filed against Fitzgerald. He will be detained and questioned pending other investigations the officers are making.

Mrs. Belle Lavin, who was arrested in San Francisco, will not be arraigned on the charge of murder, according to the detectives, who brought her to Los Angeles. It was believed that she would be arraigned yesterday and the decision of the authorities has caused the belief that they have gained from her certain information they have been seeking.

MISS YAW'S CONCERT WAS GREAT

"LARK ELLEN" NIGHTINGALE ELLEN, ALL THE SONGBIRDS IN A FLOCK WOULD CONVEY ONLY A FAINT IDEA OF THE MUSIC OF HER VOICE.

Whoever gave the title "Lark Ellen" to Miss Yaw, in the vernacular of the Frontier, "was onto his job." The advance notices heralding her coming told much of Miss Yaw; of her repertoire, her travels, her appearances, her Americanism, and of the ovations she had received; but they told little of her voice. Those who heard her last night can easily understand why so little was said in her press notices on that subject. Can words describe a sunbeam? Can an idea of the fragrance of the rose be conveyed by type. Can you describe the sweetness of honey, the song of a bird, the music of mountain brooks, the whispering music of the breeze kissed trees? If you can, you can describe the melody, the intoxicating sweetness, the divine harmony that as if from a fountain in the Yaw throat, flows a clear limpid stream from the Yaw lips—and they are pretty lips, too.

You can get no idea of the wonderful range of her voice, nor of its marvelous clearness and purity of tone, except by hearing it, and that, Salemites will not perhaps, have another opportunity of doing. The writer never before so perfectly understood the inadequacy of words to express thought. There never was that was perfect, and that was that of the boy who said: "Soda water tasted like your foot was asleep." But the boy isn't available for another suggestion, so it will just have to "go as she lays," as the Nevada social functionaries express it.

It is not necessary to mention what Miss Yaw sang, for it would make no difference what it was. The audience, a fairly good one, sat for a moment silent after the first song, and then broke into a tumult of applause, as soon as it could get its breath, such as the Grand Opera house seldom hears. From that time on it was encore all the time and Miss Yaw certainly has an abundance of patience as well as voice, for she responded with a good nature only less sweet than her voice.

There is nothing to tell, but if you ever get the chance, hear Miss Yaw and then tell about it—if you can.

Miss Newman, the pianist is an artist and her accompaniments beautifully played, added much to the pleasure of the evening.

A chapter could also be written about Mr. Jay Plowe, the flutist, who blew music's sweet notes out of that wonderful little tube, as bright as an evanescent and abundant as the small boy supplies soap bubbles, and like them, vanishing with all their beauty as soon as made—leaving only the memory of what was.

Keep Warm This Winter—We don't claim to have the best of everything, but we do know that it will pay you to see us, and get our prices before buying. J. A. Patterson, 285 North Commercial.

Notaries Appointed—The list of notarial commissions issued in and for Oregon today was: E. O. Potter, Eugene; F. L. Pound, Aumsville; Y. N. Myers, J. J. Fitzgerald, Portland; John S. Hodgkin, La Grande.

Bowerman Is Home—Acting Governor Jay Bowerman and candidate for election to that office upon the Republican ticket, who has been out upon a campaign of the state in the interest of his candidacy, has returned and resumed the duties of the executive office, and will remain upon duty several days.

Visited by Miss Yaw—While in our beautiful city as Miss Yaw expressed it, she stopped with Mr. A. A. Underhill, who was a next door neighbor to the Yaw family in New York state. Mr. Underhill and family were very much delighted to have such a distinguished guest as Miss Yaw. It was better than a letter from home, and while in the Underhill home Miss Yaw, girl-like, was out in the yard picking flowers and giving her bird-like warbles that knows no tiring.
