

READY FOR THE GAME WITH O. A. C.

WILLAMETTE HAS A STRONG LIGHT TEAM, THE O. A. C. A STRONG HEAVY ONE, SO IT IS SKILL AGAINST STRENGTH.

The Willamette football team does not go into the game at 3 o'clock this afternoon with any marked degree of confidence of winning the game. With a team averaging about 164 pounds to the man, and a backfield averaging only 153, the fellows feel that they are woefully light to enter into a contest requiring weight and brawn with the heavy team representing the Oregon Agricultural College. The O. A. C. team averages between 170 and 180 pounds to the man, probably nearer 180 than 170. They have a very competent coach, and they are fast, strong men.

The only way Willamette has any show is by trick-plays and forward passes, of which the team has a collection. The line of Willamette is not strong and in all probability Keck, the great fullback from Corvallis, will find a hole. In kicking the local team is also very deficient, while Keck is one of the best punters in the Northwest.

Coach Sweetland said: "The team representing Willamette can at this time defeat any team of its size in the Northwest, but a fast, heavy man is a great deal better in a football game than a fast light man. I want every man on the university team to go in for business, and O. A. C. will not be able to score many touchdowns."

SEARCHING FOR THE MISSING BALLOONISTS

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 22.—Unless some word is received from the balloons Azuria, America II and Dusseldorf II, which left St. Louis in the International balloon race last Monday afternoon, before tomorrow, systematic searching covering every mile of the wooded fastnesses of the provinces of Canada will be begun. Runners left early today for the wilderness bordering Hudson Bay, and American revenue cutters on the Great Lakes were ordered to be in readiness to start a search tomorrow of the waters of Georgian Bay and Lakes Huron and Ontario.

Lieutenant-Governor Gibson, of the province of Ontario today notified the aero club officials of his willingness to assist in the search. Indian scouts and Hudson Bay runners will form the largest part of the searchers.

The Aero Club officials are inclined to credit Captain Von Ahernon with the best record of the race. Landing at Coo-Coocache Wednesday, he covered with his balloon Germania 1185 miles in a direct line from St. Louis. While the Helvetia is believed to have drifted more than 1500 miles during its flight, it landed at Villa Marie, which is but 1100 miles in a straight line.

All hope that the three missing balloons may still be in the air has been abandoned, and their continued silence makes it almost certain that they landed miles from the nearest railroad station. It is believed that they landed north of Lake Tomiskang, and may even have made a better record than that of the Germanis.

THE MYSTERY OF ALDRICH HURTS STILL UNSOLVED

New York, Oct. 22.—In spite of the usual "it is officially denied" statements that Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, of Rhode Island, was struck by a vehicle night before last, scores of persons interested in ascertaining the cause of the senator's mysterious injuries, today were unable to locate the taxicab or trolley car that is alleged to have struck him.

The manner in which Aldrich received numerous contusions and abrasions still remains unknown. None witnessed the reported accident, nor could anyone be found who had seen the senator assaulted.

Senator Aldrich was reported as resting more comfortable today but would not see anyone except his son Winthrop.

"Father is a little touchy about his good looks, that's all," was the reason given by the son for his father's refusal to be interviewed.

LANGFORD JUMPS MIDDLEWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 22.—The middleweight championship of the world, made ownerless through the death of Stanley Ketchel, was openly usurped by Sam Langford here today, Manager Joe Woodman, acting for the Boston "tar baby," issued a sweeping challenge to all aspiring middleweights to come and take away the title.

Woodman and Langford visited the offices of a local newspaper and to demonstrate that Langford can make the middleweight limit, he stepped on the scales, tipping the beam at 166 pounds. He declared it would be easy to take off the eight excess pounds as he had not trained for several months.

Woodman said his man would meet either Paakey McFarland, Klaus or Hugo Kelly, at any time or place and under any conditions they imposed, and would bet any sum up to $10,000 that he could beat them. He preferred to fight Paakey first, believing that the Illinois thunderbolt had the best right to dispute Langford's claim to the championship.

WILL R. KING Judge of Supreme Court.

CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION, SIX YEAR TERM, WHOSE PLACE IS SOUGHT BY GEO. H. BURNETT, ASSEMBLY NOMINEE.

Four judges of the Oregon Supreme Court, two of them Republicans and two of them Democrats and all of them candidates for re-election, believe the Supreme Bench of the State should be removed from partisan influence. These four are Justices Will R. King, Frank A. Moore, Woodson T. Slater and Thomas A. McBride. While Justices McBride and Moore are nominees of the Republicans and the Democrats and Justices King and Slater are the nominees of the Democrats, all four of them are nominees of the Non-Partisan Judiciary, which seeks to take the Supreme Court out of politics and has selected these four incumbents, because they are already non-partisan, as the four best suited to establish the precedent that the Supreme Court judges of Oregon shall have no party debts to pay and no political influences to fight against.

Justice Will R. King, whose cut appears above, has been on the Supreme Bench nearly four years. Some of the knottiest opinions rendered by the Supreme Court during that time have been written by him. His celebrated opinion, for example, in the irrigation case of Hough vs. Porter is regarded as authority in irrigation law and is used as a textbook in big Eastern Law Schools. It took Judge King three months to write this one opinion, and for one unfamiliar with that subject much more time would have been required, yet the total number of opinions turned out by him is equal to the number credited to any Oregon judge for many years.

Judge King's place is sought by George H. Burnett, nominee of the Republican assembly and consequently a believer in political methods as a means of choosing the men who are to have the last say administering the law. Judges King, Slater, Moore and McBride not only have the work before the Supreme Court well in hand and the organization of the Supreme Court well perfected but believe in these principles:

"The Supreme Court is the last place that should be used for the purpose of party rewards."

"Political influences only impair the dignity, purity and independence of the court."

"Jury lists are chosen without regard to party, there is no more reason for inquiring into the politics of a judge than into a juror's."

The argument for a non-political judiciary is an appeal to patriotism. There is no good reason why good judges should be put off the bench on account of politics and other judges put on the bench in their stead on account of politics. If you believe in non-partisanship in the Supreme Court you are respectfully invited to vote for these four present judges. (Paid advertisement.)

JOHN BAYNE

CANDIDATE FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE

To the Voters of the Third Judicial District, Consisting of the Counties of Linn, Marion, Polk, Tillamook and Yamhill.

As a candidate for so important an office as that of circuit judge, I feel that you are entitled to know something of my qualifications for this office, and as I am unable to reach each voter in person, I write you this open letter and publish the above cut.

I was nominated as a Democrat at the recent primary election. I am 46 years old, and received my general education in the public schools of Iowa and Pleasant Plain academy in that state. I came to Oregon in April, 1891, and located in Salem, where I took up the study of law and graduated from the law department of Willamette university and was admitted to the bar in June, 1892. I have been actively engaged in the practice of law in Salem for over 17 years. During all this time

I believe that I have enjoyed the reputation of being upright and painstaking in my practice. I am a close and practical student of men and things, and naturally of a judicial turn of mind, and with a strong sense of justice. With these qualifications and my knowledge and practical application of the law for 17 years, I feel that I may ask your suffrage for the office of circuit judge at the election November 2.

BOYS HAD A BIG RALLY LAST NIGHT

PARADED THE STREETS NEARLY 300 STRONG AND WOUND UP EVENING WITH BONFIRE AND BOOSTER MEETING.

Last night a splendid demonstration of college spirit was shown when about 250 of Willamette students marched in parade through the streets, giving their yells on each corner. It was shown to a greater extent when they returned to the athletic field, finding a blazing bonfire flooding the field with light, and, having seated themselves in the grand stand, applauded the several brief speeches which were delivered in the glow of the firelight with a great show of enthusiasm.

The speeches were of a nature to encourage the football men in today's game, and there was no doubt in the minds of those football men present that they would be cheered on and supported by those students present at the rally.
