MARION COUNTY RETURNS

ALL PRECINCTS NOT HEARD FROM BUT THERE WILL BE NO CHANGE IN RESULTS ALREADY ANNOUNCED.

With returns practically complete from 25 precincts out of a total of 42 in the county, the indications are that Oswald West will carry the county for the governorship with a plurality of between 800 and 1000 votes; the home rule measure will carry by a majority of between 300 and 500, the proposed initiative laws for state-wide prohibition and the search law will lose out by a proportionate majority in this county, and the indications are that all of the initiative measures, with the possible exception of that providing for the closing of the Rogue river to fishing, except with hook and line, will not carry.

Chief interest seems to center locally upon the result of the contest between County Clerk R. D. Allen, for re-election, and M. L. Baldwin, Democrat, for the same office, and the returns, which are coming in slowly, indicate that the vote will be very close, and the result is, at present, very much in doubt. Mr. Allen, judging from the returns which he has been able to receive at his office and the county Republican headquarters, believes that he will come into Salem with a plurality of 400 over Baldwin, but the latter is carrying practically all the city wards with large pluralities over Allen, and the final result is very much in doubt. Sublimity precinct, which is strongly Democratic, but in which Mr. Allen formerly taught school, and is well known, gave Baldwin a plurality of 46 votes, and ward No. 2 of this city, with 41 votes to count, gives Baldwin a plurality of 76 votes, and this will probably be increased to 80.

While the returns from the outside precincts are coming in to the office of the county clerk very fast now, and are nearly complete, the tally sheets are sealed up, and the exact result will not be known until the vote is canvassed by the county canvassing board, which will begin its work this afternoon, and is composed of County Clerk Allen and Justice of the Peace Webster, of this city, and Overton, of Woodburn.

For justices of the supreme court Judges Moore, McBride, Burnett and Bean are strongly in the lead in this county. For circuit judge of this district there is no question that Percy R. Kelly, of Albany, will be elected, while the result between Judge Galloway and I. H. VanWinkle is still in doubt. For state senator, there is no question of the election of John A. Carson and Hal D. Patton, both Republicans, in this county, and the representative delegation to the legislature from this county will be composed of Carl Abrams, George W. Johnson, A. C. Libby, L. T. Reynolds and A. G. Steelhammer, all Republicans. Eugene Aufrance, for county recorder, claims to have a lead of over 400 votes in the county at the present time over his Democratic opponent, A. M. Dalrymple, and believes that he will be elected by at least that majority.

Such of the results as were obtainable today were: Ward No. 1, Salem (complete)—Hawley 162, Smith 63, Bowerman 123, West 106, Bean 148, McBride 166, Slater 89, Burnett 169, King 95, Moore 170, Bayne 76, Galloway 114, Kelly 118, Van Winkle 140, Carson 129, Patton 126, McMahan 58, Dick 59, Mott 47, Allen 84, Baldwin 135.

THE SENATE IS BARELY REPUBLICAN

ELECTION SHOWS THAT THE NEXT SENATE WILL BE VERY CLOSE WITH NOT OVER ONE OR TWO MAJORITIES.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—The Democrats have a plurality of 59 in the next house, according to late figures. They have elected 224 members, while the Republicans have elected 166, and there is a probability of the election of a Social Democrat from Wisconsin. The Republican representation in the next house will be seven or eight seats less than that of the Democrats in the present congress.

The Republicans held the senate, but by a narrow margin. The day cleared up doubts in two states. It is conceded that the successor of Beveridge in Indiana will be a Democrat, and that Iowa has elected a Republican legislature, which will choose a successor to the late Senator Dolliver. This is a gain of one for the Democrats. Besides that the Democrats have gained senators in the states of Maine, Massachusetts, Maryland, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Ohio and West Virginia.

The result is still in doubt in Montana and Nevada.

The present senate consisted, before the deaths of Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, and McHenry, of Louisiana, of 59 Republicans and 32 Democrats. There are 32 new senators to be elected the coming year, to fill the places of 25 Republicans and seven Democrats. For these places, 15 Republicans and 15 Democrats are indicated as probable of election, with the two states mentioned in doubt. This will give the Republicans 48 votes, or one more than a majority of the total membership of 92. Chances favor the Republican candidate for the senate in Montana, Thomas H. Carter. The returns from Nevada are reported to be still far from complete.

Later figures, it is believed, will reduce rather than increase the Democratic lead in the house, if they make any changes. There is a close race in the seventh Missouri district, in which Holman Hall, Republican nominee, is reported to have won by 25 votes, and it will take official count to decide. Late returns today give an Iowa seat, previously conceded to a Democrat, to a Republican, G. N. Haugen, of the Fourth Iowa district, is the successful candidate.

PROHIBITION DEFEATED BY AT LEAST 10,000

State wide prohibition has apparently been defeated by a majority that may range from 10,000 up. The striking feature of returns so far indicate that the prohibitionists have lost at least 13 of their "dry" counties so far as the state-wide prohibition vote is concerned, while they have not gained one "wet" county.

From all indications it appears that the home rule bill will carry. In all probability, Lane county, which rolled up a majority of 770 for the prohibitionists two years ago, has gone "wet" on the state vote, but turned a majority of more than 700 against the home rule bill. Umatilla county, which gave the "drys" 694 majority and Union county, which favored the "drys" by 690, both went into the opposite column. The "dry" majority in Douglas county appears to have been cut by half and Josephine county switched from 362 "dry" to a similar majority for the "wets."

BIG STRIKE NOW CERTAINTY

general strike order is believed to be a certainty. All efforts at a peaceable settlement by the unions, except a submission to the arbitrary demands of the express companies, have failed. It is almost certain that the verdict will be unanimous if brought to a general vote as planned.

Every team of every kind will be affected if the strike order is made. Delivery wagons, garbage wagons, trucks of all kinds and even hearses and dead wagons will be idle. Citizens' committees and representatives of commercial bodies are trying hard to at least delay matters, if a settlement is impossible, but their efforts are expected to be of no avail after tonight.

WYOMING'S GOVERNOR IS A DEMOCRAT

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 10.—Returns from outlying districts received today indicate that Carey, the Democratic candidate, has been elected governor by a small plurality, but that the rest of the Republican ticket was successful. The hopes of the Democrats that they would control the next legislature are fading with the receipt of each batch of returns. Those at hand today show there will be 45 Republicans against 36 Democrats with two

SOCIALIST WILL WORK FOR WORKING CLASS

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 10.—Victor L. Berger, Socialist congressman-elect from the fifth Wisconsin district, the first man of his party ever sent to congress, gave out the following statement today:
"I shall not follow the example of unionists that have been in congress. They have allied themselves with capital and therefore have lost their identity and individuality. I represent the Democratic-Socialists and will stand aloof from such entanglements. By this I do not mean that I will fight all government. I shall consider measures from the viewpoint of a workman and shall vote according to the way that class is affected."

All doubt as to Berger's election was removed today when complete returns from Waukesha, a doubtful county, increased his plurality. Cochems, his Republican opponent, announced he will not contest the election.

DEMOCRATS HAVE SWEEP COLORADO

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Denver, Colo., Nov. 11.—Fairly complete returns today show that the entire Democratic ticket was swept into office Tuesday, with the exception of a supreme judge, a school commissioner and one university regent. Colorado, on the face of the present returns, will have two and possibly three Democratic congressmen.
