Two Licenses—A marriage license was issued Saturday to Lyman H. Rogers, a real estate dealer of Seattle, Washington, aged 40 years, Miss Adeline C. Baker, of Sublimity, this county, aged 27, and the wedding is scheduled to take place at Sublimity November 15.

Fine Horse Dead—D. G. Murry, a local contractor and carpenter, and also a real estate dealer in Falls City, lost a very valuable horse last evening at 7:30, formerly named "Monto Christo." The cause of the death was an overfeed by a new man. The owner, Mr. Murry, grieves over the loss very much, as he valued the animal at about $700.

Wanted for Larceny—Sheriff Minto went to Portland Saturday, armed with a warrant for the arrest of George Soneman, who is held in custody by the officers of that city under the charge of larceny by bailee. The specific charge against Soneman is that he secured the hop checks of two young girls of near this city, named Bullard and Rankin, in trust to cash the checks for the girls, at a party near Independence, where they were all at work picking hops, last September, and he secured the cash, aggregating about $40 but absconded with the money. He will be brought to this city today.

Change of Management—The Oregon Coffee house, located at 134 North Liberty street, next door to the Liberty theater, has been sold to J. E. Goudy. Heretofore only light lunches have been served. In the future Mr. Goudy intends to serve, besides the light lunch at all hours, a regular 25-cent meal. Mr. Goudy's wife is in charge of the restaurant, and all meals will be strictly home-cooked, and first-class in every respect. Drop in and see how you like our meals. If we get you there once, we feel that we can keep you as a regular customer.

Mrs. Staiger Better—Mrs. Susan Staiger, widow of the late Jonathan Staiger; for many years proprietor of the Cottage hotel in this city and who died about four years ago, is lying ill at the Cottage hotel suffering from an attack of pneumonia. Her condition was reported to be much improved today and there are no present indications of a turn for the worse. She is 63 years of age and has been ill for about a week.

At Farrington's—The market man, East State street. You can get the fresh fish just out of the salt water. Call or phone Main 217.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gassner—Died, November 1, at St. Vincent's Hospital in Portland. Mrs. Elizabeth Gassner, age 42 years and 7 days.

Deceased was born in Plain, Shank county, Wisconsin, October 24, 1868. She was married to Geo. Gassner April 4, 1894. In 1894 she moved with her family to Oregon, where she settled on a farm near Kingston in Linn county.

She leaves a husband and two sons, Joseph and Michael, both of Kingston. She also leaves an aged father, four brothers and four sisters in Wisconsin besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Gassner was a devoted Catholic. Funeral services were held November 4, 10 o'clock a. m. at St. Boniface church in Sublimity, Oregon.

SHOCKING TREATMENT OF A POOR HORSE

The Salem Humane society has been investigating a case of shocking cruelty and neglect of a horse on Twelfth street. The animal is believed to belong to a contractor and has been lying in a pasture lot without food for about a week. Kind hearted people have been picking some straw around it, and last night Mrs. Slater telephoned the authorities and Constable Hamilton today looked up the case and a warrant has been sworn out against the owner. The society will prosecute the case and the animal will probably have to be killed by a veterinarian. It is so weakened that it cannot get up, but has strength enough to whinny piteously.

New Incorporations.

Articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state today as follows:

Eden Valley Power company, of Grants Pass, Oregon; capital stock $5,000; incorporators: O. S. Blanchard, Fred A. Williams and M. J. Anderson.

The Klum-Hook Manufacturing company, of Medford, Oregon; capital stock, $60,000; incorporators: Joseph C. Barnes, Wm. C. Murphy, and George L. Davlin.

BORN.

WALSH—At 260 Bellevue street, Salem, Saturday November 12, 1910, to Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Walsh, a daughter, 10 pounds.

Mr. Walsh has charged of The Journal's leased wire, and Mrs. Walsh, previous to her marriage, was on The Journal force, so The Journal pretty justly lays claim to the new baby, and is correspondingly proud. Our esteemed contemporary, "the rag up the street," although a morning paper, will have to get up earlier than it does to keep pace with The Journal.

MARRIED.

GIGER—HALL—On Saturday evening, November 12, 1910, at the minister's residence, in Salem, Or., Mr. Albert R. Giger, of Multnomah county, and Miss Maude I. Hall, of Salem, were united in marriage. Rev. F. S. Knight performing the ceremony.

The young people are living at present at the Kenilworth Hotel, on Church street, in this city. Mr. Giger is employed at the Salem Iron Works.

To have good-sized sheep they must be grown rapidly while young, and it is important to give them a good start.

A man can be run down in the street as well as in health.

IN DAYS GONE BY

The worst thing a boy had to dread was being dressed up, but TODAY IT IS DIFFERENT. A boy's pride is appealed to by the opportunity to wear clothes which have a style to them—"Mansish," such a father wears. Holland's Mann'sh Shoes for Boys Complete the dress of a manly boy to his own particular satisfaction. Godey's Welt Full Double Soles, with heavy uppers for wet weather, and light soles with patent coil and gun metal uppers for dress at per pair $2.50 and $3.00. We do not figure our boys' department as a profit-maker, but as a good advertisement.
