

PROMINENT PIONEER PASSES ON

Mrs. MARY A. Bogue, who came to Oregon in 1869 as Mrs. John P. Durso, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Al Marvin, corner of Wilson and Baginaw streets, south Salem, November 19, at 8:45 p. m. Deceased was born in Orange county, New York, 1829. She came to Albany with her family of seven children by rail to San Francisco and then by steamer to Portland. She resided there for about 20 years and was united in marriage to Amos Bogue, a rancher at Oakville, across the river from Corvallis. Their remains were taken today for burial by the side of her later husband who died in 1892. Mrs. Bogue was all her life a devoted member of the Presbyterian church and a woman of the finest character in every respect, very devoted to her family and all the social duties of life. Five of her children are living. They are Mrs. Ida Marvin of Salem, with whom she has made her home for several years; Mrs. Lillie Washburn, of Portland, with whom she resided eight years; John P. Durso, of Edwinton; Clara Durso, of Albany; Harry Durso, of Washington. She leaves one brother living in Winthrop. Mrs. Bogue leaves many friends and acquaintances at Salem where she was very well known.

BATTLE OVER WATER BOARD IN COUNCIL

How about the school house? Is it warm, free from draughts, well lighted? The responsibility for ill-health and poor eyesight rests directly upon the voter in the district.

Both Speedy and Effective.

This indicates the action of Foley's Kidney Pills as S. Parsons, Battle Creek, Mich., illustrates: "I have been afflicted with a severe case of kidney and bladder trouble, for which I found no relief until I used Foley Kidney Pills. These cured me entirely of all my ailments. I was troubled with backaches and severe shooting pains in the sides with annoying urinary irregularities. The steady use of Foley Kidney Pills rid me entirely of my troubles. They have my highest recommendation. Red Cross Pharmacy."

capital water service, sell the bonds, buy the property, extend the system, make the water rates and have general control of this branch of the public service.

How Make Selection.

The four members will be chosen by ballot, and at first it was expected that some of the members of the council would be chosen for this board. The strongest state now made contains the names of E. P. McCornack, C. K. Spaulding, F. J. Deckerbach, and Frank Dorby. There are a dozen names being considered that were suggested by men prominent in the board of trade who have struggled with the whole problem. The city council rejected the proposition to have the members of the water board appointed by the mayor and then made elective according to the charter amendment that was petitioned for by the people's initiative.

For Non-Partisan Board.

The petition of the citizens that was turned down by the council on the technical ground that there was no one to watch for the correctness of the petition proposed that a non-partisan board be created, entirely independent of the mayor or city council, but removable by the mayor. The present system of creating a water board is not subject to the recall and is out of any control by the people and some of the aldermen are opposed to the present system of creating a water board. The initiative petition is still on file and may have to be voted on inside of 90 days from the time it was filed.

The old, old story, told times without number and repeated over and over again for the last 36 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health—There is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quick as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by all dealers.

EDITORIAL EXCHANGES.

Richard Story Sheridan, formerly of Roseburg, and now editor and proprietor of the Boise Capital News, rejoices over the election of a Democratic governor of Idaho, to which he mainly contributed.

B. E. Kennedy, of the Baker City Herald, thinks that town should not have two or three names. Too progressive, Brother.

The Baker Democrat has a sneaking idea that a Commercial Club should be publicity agent for the whole community.

The Klamath Republican is a great local paper.

The Oregon City Courier says get down to business right away in regulating the saloons. Can't do it too quick.

The Eugene Guard makes a plea for the dairy cow. She is rapidly disappearing in Oregon. Too much legislation.

The Optimist says new buildings still grow rapidly at Ontario. Why not?

Linn county is nearly wet. Search law lost by 4. Prohibition got only 29 majority! What's the matter with you Prohibs, Mr. Brownsville Times?

The new Dixy land—New York—Portland Journal. Is that where Lobster Bay is located?

M. Fitzmaurice is still editing the Condon Times. He is not a dead one by any means.

The fact that Oregon is still wet does not discourage the drys.—Newport News Reporter. The fact that the dog still has fleas does not discourage the dog. But it keeps him busy.

The Pendleton Live Wire rejoices at the swing of the pendulum toward the Social-Democrat party. It will swing that way more, Brother. If the people are not given a little more real public ownership. For instance when Salem bosses shut out initiative petitions they make more socialists than street talkers.

The Medford Mail-Tribune has an article on how to stop drinking. What about every man closing the saloon under his own nose?

The Portland Spectator will please tell us how it would run the Republican party future?

WANTS HER LETTER PUBLISHED

For Benefit of Women who Suffer from Female Ills

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system. I read so much of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other suffering women I felt sure it would help me, and I must say it did help me wonderfully. My pains all left me, I grew stronger, and within three months I was a perfectly well woman."

"I want this letter made public to show the benefit women may derive from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. JOHN G. MOLDAN, 2115 Second St., North, Minneapolis, Minn.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials like the above prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made exclusively from roots and herbs.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you want special advice write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. She will treat your letter as strictly confidential. For 20 years she has been helping sick women in this way, free of charge. Don't hesitate—write at once.

Albany papers complain at not getting any advertising patronage. There's a reason.

Fence advertising and handbills thrown in the rain do not bring returns like newspaper ads.—Exchange.

Lion Foudles a Child.

In Pittsburg a savage lion fondled the hand that a child thrust into his cage. Danger to a child is sometimes great when least regarded. Often it comes through colds, croup and whooping cough. They slay thousands that Dr. King's New Discovery could have saved. "A few doses cured our baby," writes Mrs. George B. Davis, of Flat Rock, N. C. "We always give it to him when he takes cold. It is a wonderful medicine for babies." Best for coughs, colds, grippe, asthma, hemorrhages, weak lungs. 50c, $1.00 Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by J. C. Perry.

MRS WIGGS TH BE HERE TONIGHT

ONE OF THOSE HUMAN INTEREST PLAYS THAT GRIP YOU AND TOUCH THE FOUNTAIN OF HUMOR THAT SPRINGS NEAR THE SOURCE OF TEARS.

The original "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" is not quite as sunny a soul as she was before Anne Hegan Rice discovered her to the world in her stories and since Anne Crawford Flexner dramatized her. Fame has made uneasy the head that once lay down so easily in the "Cabbage Patch" of the Louisville suburb, and insistent visitors eager for a bit of first hand philosophy of lentimes receive a first-class scolding. Indeed, the impetuous prototype of Mrs. Wiggs, not long since doused an excellent society lady with water, and was summoned to police court, where she was honorably discharged.

"I won't trouble notoriety if notoriety don't trouble me. They put me in books and in stage plays until they're sick of it, but you all have got to steer clear of me in person," remarked the "Mrs. Wiggs" of Louisville, to a reporter recently. Meanwhile the sale of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" and "Lovesy Mary" has gone into the hundreds of thousands, and in their dramatized form the characters of the book are still more effective and entertaining. New York never took more kindly to anyone than to Mrs. Wiggs, and for one hundred and fifty performances, the Savoy Theater was crowded by folk seeking a surcease from boredom. Right in line with the excellence of books and play is the cast portraying the numerous exacting roles. All the cabbage folk will be there. At Grand Opera House, Monday, November 21. Prices, 50c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.50.

Standing by the Family Name

A maker has his own reasons for putting his name on a piano. It is a creditable piece of work. He is proud of it; he is willing to assume the responsibility for its future.

Makers who send out pianos without their factory imprint have their own reasons also. Stenciling on the name board any name that strikes a retailer's fancy their own personality does not appear in the attraction at all; when they invite trouble. The dealers who sell these fatherless "stencil" instruments—sell them, recommend them, do everything but become accountable for them. How can they. Their interest in a piano that bears one name this year, and another the next, must be more or less transient. The purchaser cares nothing about that. He does care, though, about the instrument wearing well. Not for one year or for ten, but long after the dealer may have, and doubtless has, gone out of business. That is why, all sound piano reasoning leads to buying from the manufacturer, or direct from representatives. Here is the

It makers work with a half-century's experience at their command. Flawless materials are chosen. Specialized craftsmen toll over every detail. The whole is refretted, polished, brought to rare perfection. When the instrument goes out into the world to meet artistic standard, the makers not only sign it with their own name but (such is the personal "paternal" nature of their feeling) follow its career with as keen interest as a father keeping track of a particularly promising child.

The name "Baldwin" on your piano is sterling assurance of continued satisfaction. To the big mass of buildings comprising the Baldwin home you may look for the redeeming of this pledge. Skillful control of factory economics brings price within the lowest figure consistent with high quality.
