MUTINY IN BRAZIL IS SETTLED

GOVERNMENT EXTENDS AMNESTY TO MUTINOUS SAILORS IN CONSIDERATION OF THEIR UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Private dispatches from Rio Janeiro, received by London merchants with interests in Brazil, advise that the chamber of deputies today followed the example of the Brazilian senate and extended amnesty to the mutinous sailors on board the Brazilian warships in the harbor at Rio Janeiro.

IN return for the battleships in their possession, the sailors are to be permitted to go free from punishment despite the fact that they killed three of their officers and turned the guns of the warships upon the city of Rio Janeiro, inflicting slight damage to property.

ONE MAN WHO MADE DIVERSIFIED FARMING PAY

Portland, Ore., Nov. 25. (Special)—A. C. Melsen, of Junction City, is one who has made diversified farming pay. Coming to Oregon in 1902 from Wisconsin, seeking a mild climate and a fruit country, Mr. Melsen purchased 30 acres of land near Junction City.

Besides making the fruit growing business a success, the owner of this model place is keeping 200 hens and six fine Jersey dairy cows.

MANY MATCH JOHNSON AND SAM LANGFORD

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 25.—Fight fans here are accepting the offer of Hugh McIntosh, the Australian promoter, to match Sam Langford and Jack Johnson in London next June in good faith, and many believe the match really will be brought about.

AFRAID TO HAVE ARMIES TOGETHER

TOKIO, Nov. 25.—Japanese and Chinese officials here are engaged today in an endeavor to straighten out a tangle that has resulted from the selection of the same district in Manchuria for the autumn maneuvers of the Japanese and Chinese troops in the Northern Chinese province.

As it would be dangerous to have two large bodies of Chinese and Japanese troops operating simultaneously in the same region, the Chinese government has temporarily abandoned its plans.

IN connection with the maneuvers, the Japanese commander reports the capture of a Chinese spy in the railroad yards at Mukden. Nothing incriminating was found on his person, however, and at the request of the Chinese authorities he was allowed his freedom.
