EYRE DECLINES TO RUN FOR MAYOR SAYS PEOPLE HAVE NAMED CHOICE

AGAINST HIS CONVICTIONS TO SIGN SALOON LICENSES WHICH HE WOULD HAVE TO DO

Mr. Eyre is an enthusiastic supporter of the Direct Primary Law, and after two good, substantial business men made the campaign for the nomination, he does not feel that he is called upon to butt into the game---This leaves the election practically without any contest.

George W. Eyre, the independent candidate for mayor on petition of about 130 voters has filed his declination to be a candidate for mayor at the coming city election, December 5, thus leaving a clear field for Louis Lachmund, present alderman from the Second ward.

Supports Primary Law.

Mr. Eyre is an enthusiastic supporter of the Direct Primary law and after two good business men had made a campaign for the nomination and it was decided by the people in an emphatic manner, he does not like to be placed in a position of butting into the game by afterwards coming in on a petition as an independent. In an interview with a reporter he gives the following reasons for declining to make the race:

Gives His Reasons.

"I have decided to withdraw my name from the contest for the office of mayor at the coming city election. I wish to thank the many friends who voluntarily went on the petition asking me to run. I could not with my convictions on the subject, bring myself to sign a saloon license, as I would be required to if I were elected mayor.

"I would be chairman of the water board and that is a task that would require too much time for me to give the city. I am opposed to spending money to get a political office and I prefer to donate to the Old People's Home whatever I might have to spend in making a fight for the office of mayor."

Files His Declination.

Mr. Eyre has filed his official declination with the city recorder and his name will not appear on the ballot although many of his friends still insist that they will write his name on the ballot on election day. The result of his withdrawal will be a light vote polled and no money spent on the election, and with practically no contests against the primary nominees for aldermen or any other office.

Wants Ballinger's Job.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Representative Englebright, of the first California district, who was defeated for re-election by Judge Raker, wants Secretary Ballinger's job in the cabinet, according to a well-defined rumor here today.

Englebright is reported to have written to several senators and congressmen concerning the matter, giving his opinion that Ballinger soon will resign.

When told of the Californian's prediction, Ballinger made his usual denial regarding his possible resignation.

YOUNGEST STATE HAS A GREAT POPULATION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The state of Oklahoma has 1,657,155 population, according to figures given out at the census bureau today. This is an increase of 242,978 or 17 per cent since 1907, when the census to give it the standing of a state was taken. The new figures entitle Oklahoma to another congressional representative.

NAVY KIDLETS OUTKICKED WEST POINT CUFFLETS

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 26.—The Annapolis football team triumphed over its old rival, West Point, in the annual army and navy game on Franklin Field this afternoon, by a score of 3 to 0.

Michael Cudahy Dying.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Michael Cudahy, the millionaire packer, is dying here today. Physicians attending him say it is doubtful if he can live until nightfall. Cudahy underwent an operation for appendicitis Tuesday. He appeared to rally, but later contracted pneumonia, and since has been sinking steadily.

SOCIALIST ATTACKS WILHELM

Ridicules Kaiser's Speech Glorifying His Ancestors and Upholding the Divine Right of Kings to Rule the World.

WANTS HIM TO KEEP STILL

Ledebour Says the Chancellor Made Pledges in the Name of the Emperor Which the Latter Ruthlessly Violated.

WANTS HIM TO KEEP STILL

Berlin, Nov. 26.—The "divine rights" ideas of Kaiser Wilhelm were bitterly attacked in the Reichstag today by Herr Ledebour, a Socialist member. The Kaiser's recent speech glorifying his ancestors and upholding the claim of divine rights irritated the people, Ledebour said, and held the German nation up to ridicule before the eyes of the world. Not only did the Socialist leader deny the Kaiser's speech, but he accused the emperor of bad faith, saying that promises solemnly given in the name of the throne had been forgotten, and left unfulfilled. He suggested that the German people would like to have Wilhelm carry out these promises, and then keep silent in the future. The speech created a profound sensation.

"What measures did the chancellor take to keep the pledges that he made to the Reichstag," Ledebour demanded. "The promises were given solemnly in the name of the emperor, and they were ruthlessly violated by the emperor at Koenigsberg and other places. Must the German people believe that the promises made from the throne are not intended to be kept? If this is the case, then the time has come when legislation may be enacted preventing the ruling monarch from making public utterances reflecting upon the people. The nation expects the emperor to maintain the pledges of 1909, and to assume the attitude of public reserve hereafter."

"Recent speeches glorifying the emperor's ancestors and upholding the claim of divine right were in the worst possible taste, and have irritated the people. It has tended to hold the German nation up to the ridicule of the world."

FIVE WERE SLASHED BY AN INDIAN

ALBERT TOBIN SLASHES FIVE INDIANS WITH KNIFE, AND INFLECTS LIGHTER WOUNDS ON FIVE OTHERS.

San Bernardino, Cal., Nov. 26.—Five Indians are being treated today at the county hospital for serious knife and bullet wounds, and Albert Tobin, another Indian, who is alleged to have inflicted the wounds is in custody at Victorville.

According to the wounded Indians,

FORTY PERISH IN A MORNING FIRE MANY LEAP FROM WINDOWS TO DEATH

Jailed Without Charge.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 26.—M. D. Miller, missing witness, long sought by the council committee investigating the alleged grafting syndicate in the police department, was freed today by Judge Ronald, of the superior court, after Miller had been produced in court on a writ of habeas corpus. City Attorney Pierce made an effort to have the writ vacated. Miller has been in jail 42 days with no charge against him. When released from the court today he returned to the police station to get his belongings.

Tobin entered a cabin near Victorville, where they were celebrating, drew a knife and revolver and attacked them savagely.

Indians known as Nellie May Mack, Harold Jem, Manuel Sapoly Cathe Boniface were savagely slashed with the knife, and Lou Wright was shot through the arm. Five others, less seriously injured, were treated at Victorville.

Tobin fled, pursued by a posse under Deputy Sheriff Dolch. He was captured early today in the Bald hills.

Cathe Boniface, who was cut about the face and head, is a sister of Mary Nita Boniface, the Plute girl, for love of whom the renegade Billy Boy a year ago committed two murders and evaded two posess in the Colorado desert before he committed suicide.

RUNAWAY WAR SHIPS IN HARBOR

BRAZILIAN GOVERNMENT CRITICIZED BY INDIGNANT PEOPLE FOR GRANTING IMMUNITY TO THE MUTINOUS SAILORS.

Rio Janeiro, Nov. 26.—Brazil's runaway ships reappeared in Rio Janeiro harbor today, and negotiations for their surrender to the government by the mutinous sailors on board was resumed. An emissary of the government, sent to arrange for the surrender, was courteously received on board of the mutineers' flagship, which flew a red banner from its mainmast.

Indignant expressions which followed the announcement that the senate and chamber of deputies had extended the olive branch to the rebellious sailors and had guaranteed them immunity from punishment, if they would surrender their ships, were met today by the explanation of high officials who said the government distrusted its army, and had no other way out of the difficulty.

It is believed here that the success of the Portuguese rebellion was directly responsible for the outbreak here. The battleship Santa Paulo was in Lisbon harbor at the time of the Portuguese uprising, and the ease with which the Portuguese revolutionists overthrew their supposed oppressors, it is believed, turned the sailors' heads. Arriving at Rio Janeiro, they learned that the soldiers thought the sailors were poorly treated, and the mutiny was the result.

SOME TERRIBLY BURNED AMONG THE LAST TO JUMP--- DEATH LIST SURE TO GROW

Eight of the Eighteen Known Dead Were Girls, and It is Believed That Many Bodies of Girls Will Be Found in the Charred Ruins---All Escape was Cut Off and in Leaping Six Missed the Nets and Were Killed---Many Badly Burned Before Leaping---Firemen Did Heroic Work.

Death List Now Forty.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 26.—At 3 o'clock this afternoon the police estimated the dead in the Newark Paper Box Factory fire at 20. Forty persons were injured, according to this estimate, many of whom are dying. Estimates made by others place the number of dead at 40. The police have made a careful count of the employees missing through information furnished by the officers of the companies in the burned building. This count shows 50 persons missing.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 26.—While firemen fought each other to be first to aid the victims, 18 persons perished today in a fire that destroyed the Newark Paper Box Company's factory. Many of the 150 employees of the concern could not be located up to noon, and it is believed that when the smoking ruins are cleared away other charred bodies will be uncovered.

While the fire was its height three priests, Fathers Kernan, Dillon and Brennan, of St. Patrick's cathedral, which is near the scene of the fire, disregarding the warnings and pleadings of the crowd, forced their way into the blazing building to give consolation and absolution to the dying. They were dragged out later by the firemen, exhausted and overcome and nearly dead from the heat and smoke.

The fire, the cause of which has not yet been ascertained, broke out apparently in all parts of the building at once. The flames gained ground so rapidly that in a few minutes the whole structure was a mass of flames. Escape by the fire escapes was cut off and the windows were filled within two minutes after the blaze was discovered with hysterical girls and men.

The firemen rushed to the scene, but when they arrived the fire had gained such headway that they could do little to save those in the building. Ladders were pushed against the blazing walls, only to become ignited, break and fall before the firemen could reach the upper windows.

GOVERNOR-ELECT WEST GOES TO CALIFORNIA

Governor-elect West and family will leave for Southern California about December 1st, to remain for a month. The governor is at Baker City today celebrating with the Democrats and the rest of the people. His office is overwhelmed with applications for jobs, and he is swamped with congratulations. He finds if he does any work on his inaugural message he must take to the woods, and get out of the country. That will be too far for any of the faithful to take a run down to see him, and he will have time to deliberate.

Most of the employees in the building were girls, and at least ten of the 18 known dead are girls. It is believed that many girls whose bodies have not been recovered, perished in the fire.

A score of persons are missing, and it is believed their bodies lie in the ruins of the box factory. No fireman was severely hurt, though a number of them had narrow escapes. A few bodies have been recovered from the ruins, blackened and charred beyond the possibility of identification. Most of the dead are girls and women.

The building occupied by the box factory was very old.

The police and firemen say that the fire escapes were old and of an obsolete pattern. The stairway inside was winding, and the structure was built of highly inflammable material. Twenty minutes after the fire broke out the whole building was in ruins.

The conflagration started on the top floor, according to the police. The upper floor was occupied by the Wolf Company, underwear manufacturers. The remainder of the building was occupied by the paper box factory.

Firemen believe that many of the bodies of those killed were incinerated.

The building was located in the heart of the manufacturing and shopping district.

OREGON MAY HAVE GUNBOAT

NAVAL OFFICER SUGGESTS THE TURNING OVER OF EITHER THE BOSTON OR CONCORD TO THE OREGON NAVAL RESERVES.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 26.—The sale of the gunboat Concord and the cruiser Boston has been postponed with a view of assigning one of the vessels to Portland as training ship for the Oregon Naval Reserve, according to a letter from the navy department that was received today by Commander John McNulty of the Reserve.

The vessels are at Bremerton navy yard and arrangements had been made to dispose of them at auction in the near future but Captain George S. Shepherd, of the reserve, wired a request to the navy department that instead of selling the craft, one of them be retained and turned over to the newly organized reserves in Oregon.

Efforts will be made to secure the Boston which was built at a cost of $2,000,000 and can be put in first class condition at an approximate cost of $17,500.

The Concord is smaller than the Boston and an expenditure of $14,000 would put her in excellent condition.

There are 263 enlisted men in the reserve at present.

Los Angeles Journalist is managing to get along at present without any high explosive features.
