OREGON GLEE AND MANDOLIN CLUBS COMING

SCINTILLATING WITH HUMOR, ABOUNDING IN NEW AND CLEVER SONGS AND FULL OF FUN SAYS ONE WHO SAW THEM.

(Eugene Register). Those who left the Eugene theatre last night, after witnessing the initiative concert of the Oregon Glee and Mandolin clubs, were unanimous in the best ever presented by a similar organization of the institution.

Prof. I. M. Glen, who has so ably directed the University glee clubs for so many years, and the management are to be congratulated on turning out such a creditable organization.

Salem, Dec. 12. Opening with "Oh! Oregon," the club responded to two encores with "Nix on the Glowworm, Lena," and "Amo." The latter being a charming love song and well rendered.

The second was a number by the Mandolin club—"Eperanza"—Palacios. In response to an encore, they played, "Every Little Movement Has a Meaning of its Own." Like the glee club the work of the mandolin club reflects careful training and hard work.

Great interest has been manifested in the appearance of William Lai, the Chinese boy singing in the tenor section of the club, and no one was disappointed, for Mr. Lai's work as a soloist is deserving of unqualified praise. His songs were enthusiastically received.

The program would have been incomplete without a solo by Prof. I. M. Glen, whose beautiful baritone voice has won for him a wide reputation in musical circles. Professor Glen always receives a cordial and well deserved reception, whenever he appears. His rendition of Chamblin's "Complete Bacchique," was especially well rendered.

The entire club took part in this presenting as specialties—Geisler and Curtis, who as the Pretzler Twins, with popular songs in German, convulsed the audience. Kenneth Frazier sang the "Foreador Song" from Carmen, in a pleasing manner. A "real" German band was also introduced, and its novel imitative hand masters of the "Fatherland" were highly amusing.

The club leaves next week to make a tour of the valley, and later of eastern Oregon. They will, no doubt, receive an enthusiastic welcome wherever they appear.

State Reform School Supplies. Sealed proposals are hereby invited for furnishing the Oregon State Reform School with supplies for the six months ending June 30, 1911.
