THE NEW YEAR'S JOURNAL.

Better than read this look over the New Year's Journal, and study its contents.

There is the concise story of public improvements by the city government.

The showing of Salem payrolls will surprise even people living at the Capital City.

Then look at the record of new buildings the past year and plans made for 1911.

The panoramic view of Salem, made by a Portland artist, shows Salem as a civic beauty spot.

That drawing, by one of the best artists in Portland, is the keynote of future development for this city.

There are four pages devoted to the Hill system as the greatest Oregon Development factor.

A newspaper can work all the year around to boost a town and all the people in it and not receive as much notice for it as a good roast of one prominent citizen.

But it is the constructive work that counts for the community.

Pulling together on broad lines will make this a great inland city of homes and schools.

You can do your little part by sending one of these New Year's Journals to some friend.

ENGLAND WILL BE A REPUBLIC.

All signs point to the early dissolution of the monarchy of Great Britain.

The people cannot always support the parasites flourishing under the name of royalty.

Think of a second-class kinglet asking to have his salary increased to about four millions per annum.

Think of a heritage called a civil list to support tenth cousin to the royal family devouring millions.

Think of the iniquity that flourishes under special privileges connected with royalty and aristocracy.

Then think of the same thing growing up in this country under the guise of highly organized political officialism.

This country is aping and reproducing a militant parasite class that proposes to live off the people in the name of people's government.

But why blame them, when even the reformers and alleged friends of the people play the game of multiplying officials until the cows come home.

After awhile the cows will not come home, as there won't be anything for them to eat, and they won't give any milk.

SHOULD BE TAUGHT A LESSON IN MANNERS.

Oregon should have a state institution to teach public officials lessons in common politeness.

The State Board of Health has a secretary who has just published a valuable advertisement for Eugene.

It tells how typhoid fever menaces that city, and gives it some very undesirable publicity.

The people of Eugene put up their money to advertise the city as a charming place to live in, and it is.

It is one of the most desirable home cities in the West, and should not be given a black eye by any official.

Instead of going into the Oregonian with his bucket of tar for Eugene, he should have gone to Eugene.

He should have met the public authorities and should have consulted them as to what should be done to help their city.

But he had no more right to go into the Oregonian with his typhoid story than he would have had to hire a brass band and parade the streets and shout his statements on the street corners.

But Oregon has a number of officials who have just as little sense as would have been disclosed by the brass band act.

These performances of some of the officials cost this state a great deal of bad advertising, that it takes years to overcome.

NEWSPAPER COURTESIES.

What divine right has a newspaper to blacken the character of any man or woman in his world?

Yet they arrogate this iniquitous privilege to themselves at all times and in many ways.

A public official who makes a public record and has a public responsibility may come in for a roast.

But a private citizen has enough to contend with in the battle for existence to entitle him to be let alone.

Two Oregon newspapers had the indecency to write up a young business man of this city as a cigarette fiend on his wedding day.

The man written up is a gentleman of the highest standing, and has made more moral progress in the past five years than any man in Oregon.

But thoughtlessly, viciously, with malicious recklessness, he is depicted in a light that is, to say the least, uncomplimentary.

Thus would the noble minions of journalism elevate public morals under the proud panoply of the free press privilege.

Governor West was partly right in saying the shotgun was the only remedy in such cases, but did not say what it should be loaded with.

MANY OF THE OLD GUARD WILL DROP OUT OF SENATE

Table with 2 columns: SENATE SEATS IN NEXT CONGRESS, and list of senators with their terms.

Washington, January 2.—Nineteen hundred and eleven probably will remove from the United States senate 23 of its members—one-fourth of its total membership.

The Democratic trend of the November elections will naturally have a material bearing on the senatorial contests, but will not be so marked as in the house, where the Democratic forces change from a minority to a majority.

Two of the states—North Dakota and Virginia—will choose two senators each.

In North Dakota, the regular term of Senator McCumber (Republican) and the appointive term of Senator Purcell (Democrat) will expire on March 3.

In Virginia, the regular term of Senator Frazier (Democrat) will expire on March 3, 1913.

The next Virginia legislature will elect two senators, one for the term beginning March 4, 1911, and the other for the term beginning March 4, 1913.

Martin has been in the senate 15 years, Swanson served seven terms in congress and two terms as governor of Virginia before he was appointed to serve the unexpired term of the late Senator Daniel.

Friends of Senator Lodge find comfort in the news from Massachusetts and they gravely fear that he may follow Aldrich, Hale, Scott and Burrows, veteran leaders of the senate into retirement.

Rhode Island in its attempt to select a successor to Senator Aldrich, has started a fight so big that it bulges the narrow boundaries of the state.

In New Jersey it is a question whether James Smith or James E. Martine, Democrats, shall succeed Senator Kea, Republican.

Senator Bulkeley, Republican, of Connecticut, who is serving his first term in the senate, has a lively rival in his contest for reelection.

Ohio has a mixed situation. Edward W. Hanley, of Dayton, who has become an active figure in politics in the last few years and holds office in natural gas and other companies.

San Bernardino, Calif., Jan. 3.—Prospectors today are preparing to make an attempt to find an unknown ledge of rich quartz, presumably discovered by "Mojave Bill," a negro, whose real name is Joseph Smith.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a very valuable medicine for throat and lung troubles, quickly relieves and cures painful breathing and a dangerous sounding cough which indicate congested lungs.

"Just Say" HORLICK'S Malted Milk

More healthful than Tea or Coffee. Agrees with the weakest digestion. Delicious, invigorating and nutritious.

A quick lunch prepared in a minute. Take no substitute. Ask for HORLICK'S. Others are imitations.

Among West Virginia Democrats for the honor of succeeding Senator Scott, Republican, C. W. Watson, a millionaire coal operator and J. T. McGraw, long a Democratic leader.

Tennessee with its bitter political temper will struggle with the claims of a varied assortment of candidates.

Among Montana Democrats, T. J. Walsh, an attorney of Helena, is a strong force in the senatorial contest.

The Georgia legislature, when it meets in July, will choose a successor to Senator J. M. Perrell, appointed to serve temporarily in the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Clay.

Senators already elected to the next congress are Carroll S. Page, now a Republican member of the senate from Vermont, and John Sharp Williams, (Dem. Miss.) who was long a congressman and Democratic leader in the house.

Senators who will be re-elected without opposition are: Clark (Rep., Wyo.); Culberson (Dem., Tex.); DuPont (Rep., Del.); LaFollette (Rep., Wis.); McCumber (Rep., N. D.); Nixon (Rep., Nev.); Oliver (Rep., Pa.); Rayner (Dem., Md.); and Sam Sutherland (Rep., Utah).

New men who will be elected to the senate without opposition are: John K. Kern (Dem., Ind.); Gilbert H. Hitchcock (Dem., Neb.); James A. Wood (Dem., Mo.); A. J. Gronna (Rep., N. D.).

Of 30 senators whose terms expire March 3, 1911, only one has been re-elected and only nine others are certain of reelection.

The terms of 30 senators will expire March 3, 1913, and of 30 other senators, March 3, 1915.

You can go into a dry goods store any day and find a garter on the floor.

CLUB RETURNS FROM ITS TRIP TO THE SOUTH

HAD RATHER POOR HOUSES, DUE TO LACK OF ADVERTISING, BUT WERE PAID MANY HIGH COMPLIMENTS.

The Willamette Glee Club returned Sunday evening from their southern trip. They reported that the audiences were not as large as they had expected, owing to lack of advertising.

The club was away just one week, and a large amount of good advertising for the old school was done.

University today. Students are still drifting in from their several homes, each telling about the enjoyable time he had while on his vacation.

Among Montana Democrats, T. J. Walsh, an attorney of Helena, is a strong force in the senatorial contest.

CHINESE WANT TO OVERTHROW MANCHU DYNASTY

San Francisco, Jan. 2.—A nationwide campaign to raise funds with which to accomplish the overthrow of the old Manchu dynasty in China was started today by San Francisco members of the Young China society.

Six hundred members of the organization in San Francisco and as many more in other California cities have pledged themselves to give as freely as their finances will permit.

When it comes to the morality of our ancestors, none of us can boast much; the records do not show that Adam and Eve were married.

KIDNEYS WILL ACT FINE AND BACKACHE GOES

The real treachery and danger in kidney trouble is because the first symptoms are always seen in other parts of the body before anything wrong is noticed with the kidneys themselves.

The moment you suspect any kidney, bladder or urinary disorder, or feel a dull, constant backache or the urine is thick, cloudy or offensive or full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a scalding sensation, begin taking Pape's Diuretic as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine at any price, made anywhere else in the world, which is so harmless or will effect so thorough and prompt a cure.

Pape's Diuretic acts directly upon the kidneys, bladder and urinary system; cleanses, heals and regulates these organs, ducts and glands and completes the cure within a few days.

Pains in the back, sides or loins, rheumatic twinges, debilitating headache, nervousness, dizziness, bilious stomach, prostatic trouble, sleeplessness, inflamed or puffy eyelids, weakness, worn-out feeling and many other symptoms caused by clogged, inactive kidneys promptly vanish.

Your physician, pharmacist, banker or any mercantile agency will vouch for the responsibility of Pape, Thompson & Pape, of Cincinnati, who prepare Pape's Diuretic—50-cent treatment—sold by every druggist in the world.

A Reliable Cough Medicine. Is a valuable family friend. Foley's Honey and Tar fulfills this condition exactly.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure.

Booth-Kelley have reduced the wages of employes, but lumber stays at the same old price.

For Men Ayer's Hair Vigor is for men, too. It is a splendid hair-dressing. It is refreshing, cooling; and it keeps the scalp clean and healthy. It never changes the color of the hair, not in the least.
