SENATOR BOWERMAN TELLS OF SELECTION OF ASYLUM SITE

INCIDENTALLY HE SAYS SOME UNCOMPLIMENTARY THINGS ABOUT DR. STEINER AND PAYS HIS RESPECTS TO THE NEW BOARD.

Alleging that it was his desire to pass the selection of the eastern Oregon asylum site over to the new state board but that by the provisions of the law creating it, he was compelled to act when he did; asserting that he located the site at Pendleton only after he had availed himself of the investigations and opinions by experts as to all the sites concerned and that his selection was based on the report of those experts; and giving his reasons for the appointment of Dr. Plamondon as superintendent of the branch asylum the fact that he did not agree with the extravagant policy pursued by Dr. Steiner, superintendent of the state hospital for insane here and did not desire to have him supervise the construction of the building and frame its policy, Senator Jay Bowerman yesterday afternoon took the floor when a resolution was returned from the committee of resolutions recommending the appointment of a committee to investigate the site and spoke in a defense of the action of himself and the old board in selecting the site. He spoke for about an hour and it was pronounced one of the best addresses ever delivered in the senate hall and after its delivery he received many congratulations from his friends. Word had gone out that the resolution would be returned from the committee in the afternoon and that it would come up for debate and the senate hall was crowded to its utmost with interested spectators. The house adjourned for an hour to listen to the proceedings.

Acted in Good Faith.
Senator Nottingham who acted in conjunction with Senator Bowerman in the selection was the first to speak when the resolution came up for consideration. He stated that the old board had carefully investigated all the available sites before the selection of the present one. He maintained that we were none of us free from mistakes and that if a mistake had been made in the selection of the site that the board had acted in the best of faith. He resented the action of the new board in bringing the matter before the legislature in the way it had and maintained that it should have consulted the old board and asked for an appropriation to purchase additional land if the site did not contain a place for a building purpose.

Senator Joseph stated that in view of the insinuation that had been made with regard to the action of the board in the selection of the site that those making the selection should desire an investigation and that he hoped that it would show that there was no mistake but that the site was alright.

Bowerman Compelled to Act.
Senator Bowerman prefaced his speech with the remark that while a member of the legislature for five years that this was the first time he had ever found it necessary to explain his action with regard to public matters. He then proceeded to show that while he desired to pass the selection of the site up to the new board that under the provisions of the law creating the institutions that it was necessary for the board to act, and that because of the illness of the governor, the duty fell upon his shoulders. He then showed that State Treasurer Steel, as member of the board, because of the death in the family declined to accompany him and assist him in selecting the site, and that so did also Dr. Steiner.

Land Examined by Engineer.
Before starting out on his hunt for a site, he said, he secured the services of a first class engineer—G. G. McCarthy, and sent a real estate man with him to secure options on the different sites; He then quoted the report of Engineer McCarthy which showed the Carpenter-Oliver tract to consist of 314 acres, 130 acres of which was bottom land, 25 acres of which was in alfalfa, 20 in pasture, 25 in garden stuff and 10 acres in orchard and the remainder in timber and brush. The balance of the land was wheat land and lays high and is rolling. The report showed that a supply of good water could be obtained from the city of Pendleton and that the water right attached to the land would irrigate 120 acres. The land, says the report, has an excellent drainage and has on it four wells and two good springs. After quoting this report, he asserted that State Treasurer Kay admitted that it was the finest tract that he saw on his recent expedition.

Pendleton Best Location.
In considering the different localities for a site, he stated, in order to secure the best location, he secured all possible data as to each. He stated that he had Mr. Cochran go to the government weather bureau and secure data from it and that it showed Baker has an average of nine months when there is snow or traces of snow; Union seven and Pendleton five and that the climatic conditions in general were in favor of Pendleton. He then proceeded to show that Pendleton afforded the cheaper transportation for patients when eastern Oregon was considered as a whole and also the cheapest freight rates for supplies.

Coming back again to the site he maintained that Professor Scudder, a soil expert of the Oregon Agricultural College, had pronounced it good, and that Dr. Steiner had stated that Pendleton was the best location of the three considered, and that in view of these things he selected the site and that it was worth every dollar paid for it.

Steiner Extravagant.
Turning to the matter of the selection of Dr. Plamondon as superintendent of the branch asylum, he maintained that he did so because he did not agree with Dr. Steiner's ideas of conducting an asylum and that he did not want him to have the supervision of the construction of the eastern Oregon asylum and the framing of its policy. He then reviewed the advice Dr. Steiner had given him in the selection of a site and pronounced it impracticable and proceeded with an attack upon his policy at the state hospital for insane located in this city.

Had to Curb Expenditures.
"While acting-governor of this state," he said, "I found it necessary to a certain extent to curb his activity in the expenditure of money and endeavored to impress upon his mind the fact that the law of the state regarding appropriations was just the same as any other law. Now, in examining these reports you will find, Mr. President, the upkeep of an automobile during the last half of the year amounted to about $400 and about $1000 during the last 18 months. You will find that we appropriated $7,500 to build and furnish two physicians' cottages and you will find that they have spent about $12,000. I have had copied from the secretary of state's office some of the vouchers for the furnishing of that institution which I wish to call to your attention. Voucher No. 66201 contains among other things, one F. O. leather couch, $38; L. Walnut bed, $50; one walnut somnol, $11; one mahogany davenport covered in tapestry, $110; one walnut dresser, $65; one walnut chair, $60; one mahogany music cabinet, $17.50; mahogany library table, $32; library table, $40 dining table, $60; sideboard, $60; serving table, $17.50; six dining chairs, $36; one Wilton rug, $43.20; 2 b. b. rugs, $63; 17 yards Wilton carpet, $40.13; 27 yards Wilton border, $61.50.

More Rugs.
"Fancy net curtain, living room, $51.75; muslin curtains, maid's room, $3; curtains for rose room, $20; Madras curtains for yellow room, $12.50; Madras curtains for blue room, $12.50; 4 pairs hangings for living room, $38.50; velvet rug, $28; Brussels rug, $30; lace curtain for living room and den, $65; shades for house, $125; walnut dresser, $30. Voucher No. 67226 contains among other items the following: One Wilton rug, $155; one refrigerator, $54; and on top of this is Voucher No. 66211 for $266.36 for up-keep and repairs to auto and Voucher No. 59665 to Wilson & Maurer for $1,865 for the purchase of an auto. Voucher No. 66013 for $66.55 for up-keep and repairs for auto; Voucher No. 65278 Buren & Hamilton mahogany davenport for $85; one rocker, $27; one library table, $21.50; one rocker, $22; one No. 314 buffet, $41; one No. 667 serving table, $21; one No. 233 1/2 dining table, $56; six No. 381 1/2 dining chairs, $39; one Hoosier special, $25; one No. 254 Wilton rug, $56; one No. 266 Wilton rug, $55; one No. 3908 Wilton rug, $55; one lot of Brennan shades, $25; 25 yards carpet, $46.50; five pairs of curtains, $52.50; 4 pairs of down pillows, $28. Voucher No. 65280 for wiring $385.50; and so on items that should under the act that we passed, be paid for furnished and turned over to the state for $7,500 and there is a deficiency of more than $4,000 which has bought articles a man of wealth would put in his own home. In other words the plain letter and intent of the statute was violated throughout; the people's money was put to other purposes and at this session you must either appropriate more money or the state will have to go without certain needed improvements.

Not Used to Champagne.
"We appropriated $100,000 to build a receiving ward and they have hardly scratched the ground. The building we expected to spend $100,000 for will cost $500,000. For these reasons I have differed as to the way and the method in which our money is spent. The people of the state of Oregon, or at least we, of the bunch grass country are not accustomed to these champagne glasses, imported Vermont marble, etc. We want a plain brick structure that will be useful and care for our unfortunate wards and want it right away. I wish to say that as an offset for the high class civil engineer, the new board took a plumber, a man who was formerly employed in Salem as a plumber, Mr. Murphy and he is not a civil engineer. I understand that he is now assistant engineer at the asylum, filling the boilers out there or something of the kind. He is the man whom you read about in the papers who is making objections as to the selection of this tract.

Cost of Inmates Increase.
"There is another reason why I do not wish this building to be constructed under the direction and advice and along the lines that have been followed out here and that is the fact that the average cost of keeping the inmates in this institution has increased since it was placed under its present management, as the records in the secretary of state's office will show. The amount which we are paying now over what we paid under former administrations amounts to almost $7,000 a month. For these reasons and the things I saw while acting-governor of this state, I found that the taxpayers of this state were entitled to different advice from that of Dr. Steiner and I say this not as a reflection upon the moral fiber of Dr. Steiner but because I disagree with him."

Senators Bean and Chose were appointed as a committee to make investigations.

HOUSE STARTS WITH SCRAP.

No. 167, Mahoney, relating to recording conditional sales of private property.

In the Senate.

Should the house pass a bill passed this morning by the senate and which provides that deeds and mortgages not recorded shall be void as to subsequent purchaser in good faith, it will be no longer necessary for a purchaser of land to await five days to ascertain whether his deed is of any value but he may learn the fact at the time of the transaction by an inspection of the record.

Under the existing law, purchasers of land have five days in which to record a deed. Frauds may be and have been committed under the provisions because it was possible for the vendor to execute a deed on one day to one purchaser and another on the next day to another purchaser. The first purchaser would have five days in which to record his deed and so would the second but the time of the first would elapse before the latter and when upon the recording of the deed by the first, the second person's deed would be void. Under the present system no purchaser can rely upon the record when he goes to record the deed until after the five days as until they have gone by there may still be another deed in existence which may come in for record and take precedence over his.

Under the bill passed this morning, a purchaser must record his deed at once and under that system a prospective purchaser, by an inspection of the records can tell at a glance as to whether the title to the land is clear.

Adoption Law Passed.

Another bill passed by the senate this morning was one pertaining to the procedure to be pursued in the adoption of children. The present law on the subject provides that a person petitioning to adopt a child must institute the proceedings in the county where the parents of the child reside or in the county in which the petitioner resides. Under the bill passed this morning the proceedings may be instituted in either of these counties or in a county where an institution is located and in which the child may be confined. The bill is intended to benefit the latter as now those seeking to adopt children from these institutions are unable to institute the proceedings in the county where the institution is located, unless it is also the residence of the parent or petitioner.

A bill changing the name of the Oregon Reform School to that of the Oregon Training School was also passed.

Patton's Bill Substituted.

The judiciary committee brought in a report relative to a bill introduced by Senator Patton abolishing capital punishment and recommending that another bill be substituted. Senator Patton's bill provided for the abolition of capital punishment and the substitution of life imprisonment in cases of murder in the first degree. The bill substituted makes the same change as to convicts in the state penitentiary where they attack any of the officers with a deadly weapon. The present law now makes that a capital offense. The bill was read the first time this morning.

The committee recommended that a bill relative to appeals from the lower courts to the supreme court pass.

Bills Introduced.

In the event a bill dealing with the sale of liquor to intoxicated persons passes both houses, it will have the effect of giving to the parents or wife of such person the right to institute suit against the saloon man for damages committed by such intoxicated person. Senator Albee is the author of the bill and it provides in brief that any person who shall sell intoxicants to an intoxicated person, shall be liable in damages upon an action being commenced against him by the parents or wife of such intoxicated person.

A bill was also introduced, the provisions of which require that any itinerant vendor of drugs must pay to the secretary of state a license fee of $100 a month in order to be allowed to transact business.

A communication was received from Senator Chamberlain advising the senate that during his term of governor he hired Wm. P. Lord, Sr., to assist the attorney general in the recovery of swamp lands from the Warner Valley Stock company, and asking it to make a reasonable appropriation for the payment of his services.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is not a common, every-day cough mixture. It is a meritorious remedy for all the troublesome and dangerous complications resulting from cold in the head, throat, chest or lungs. Sold by all druggists.

La Grande thinks the enumeration a bad joke.

There is said to be a valuable copper mine on the Illinois river in Curry county.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a very valuable medicine for throat and lung troubles, quickly relieves and cures painful breathing and a dangerously sounding cough which indicate congested lungs. Sold by all dealers.
