FULL LEASED WIRE TELEGRAPH REPORT

The people of Salem are to be congratulated on having voted to meet the demands of the growing district for an enlarged High School.

There should be more dairy legislation. Butter is now so high only the richest people can afford a first-class article.

Of course, if there are errors in the inventories made by the three engineers who were appointed to arbitrate the value of the plant of the Salem Water Co., they should be eliminated.

Arrests by the Salem police decrease as a result of working hoboes and drunks who use the city jail. The decrease in arrests is probably also due to the greater strictness of dealing with drunks.

Oh, yes, you can single out the industries at one place like Oregon City, and pass a law to hamper them. It is so bright and progressive.

THE LADY FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

The bill by Gill for $10,000 to provide for a ladies' auxiliary to the Farmers' Institutes, has been misrepresented in these columns.

It was discussed here as a bill to appropriate $100,000 for agricultural extension work.

It only asks for $10,000, and that will be used to send out a lady lecturer to Farmers' Institutes.

N. B.—In a few years this appropriation will grow to $100,000 a year.

A MEDICAL FREEDOM BILL.

The bill to provide a board of registered nurses was the subject of a medical freedom debate.

Mr. Clyde saw several niggers in the woodpile. It was a monopolistic measure, that struck a blow at medical freedom.

Drs. Belknap and Cottell defended the bill. Thompson championed the regulations provided.

Mr. Johnson, of Marion, said the bill was aimed to deprive certain persons of the right to minister to the sick.

Mr. Abbott showed that this bill did not prevent any member of the family or friend from nursing, if they did not do it for pay.

Mr. Brownhill showed that the bill was class legislation, as it shut out chiropractics and osteopaths.

Dr. Smith defended the bill, as under it, the nurses must have some medical education.

Mr. Huntington said those who did not want to take the medical course required by this law did not have to.

Mr. Clyde said this bill shut out all nurses who do not belong to this particular school.

Mr. Clyde said this bill shut out all nurses who do not belong to this particular school.

This legislation may be in the interest of a class, but it passed and will be the law unless vetoed by the governor.

THE STATE FORESTRY BILL.

The friends of the above bill present the following in favor of their measure:

Oregon has one-fifth of the standing timber of the United States.

Oregon has 400 billion feet, worth 500 million dollars on the stump.

If manufactured, this 400 billion feet will bring in five billion dollars of outside money.

Oregon's forests already distribute more wealth in the state than apples, fish, wool and wheat combined.

Lumbermen are spending each year to protect their timber in Oregon about $130,000, the federal government spends for patrol $150,000.

Pennsylvania spends $180,000, New York $118,000, Maine $64,000, Idaho $30,000 and Washington $23,000 to protect their forests, as against $250 by Oregon.

Washington expects to quadruple its appropriation this year.

Of the revenue received from our lumber 80 per cent goes for labor and supplies.

The state is taking no steps to apprehend violators of fire laws or look after patrol in sections occupied by settlers and miners.

Last year about one and three-quarter billion feet of timber was killed by fire, representing a value of not less than two million dollars, in stumpage alone, and over twenty millions in wages to citizens, had the timber been saved for manufacture.

The revenue thus lost in a few weeks would have amounted to over $30 a piece for every man, woman and child in the state.

Of the approximately one and three-quarter billion feet killed, over a billion was private timber, outside the national forests.

Last year six human lives were lost through forest fires, hundreds of settlers' homes burned to the ground, and a large amount of live stock destroyed.

All summer our magnificent scenery is obliterated by a cloud of smoke, which keeps tourists away from our state at a time when they would get the best impression of it.

As a result of reports of fire and lack of adequate laws, settlers and investors seek other fields, which retards our development.

It is time the state took active steps to prevent a serious condition, and one affecting every industry.

This can be done by passing house bill 50, now before the legislature.

This bill contains absolutely nothing theoretical or experimental. It is drawn to benefit all industries. Most of it is re-enactment of present law.

(The above bill appropriates $50,000 a year for two years to support the State Bureau of Forestry, a bill which The Capital Journal opposes.)—Ed. J.

ORANGE JUICE INEBRIATE CURE; MAKES BAR ODOR 'DISGUSTING.'

Doctor Tells Vegetarian Society Cooked Food is Source of 95 Per Cent of All Human Ills—Unfried Vlands Ideal.

Knights of the flowing bowl attention! If you wish to stop dallying with the cup that cheers, eat oranges.

The advice was given by Dr. George J. Drews to the Chicago Vegetarian Society in an address on "Cooked Food vs. Unfried Food."

Orange juice is the best antidote for an alcoholic appetite," he said. "When any one feels a desire to drink anything intoxicating, all he has to do is to buy a couple of oranges. After eating them, the desire will soon pass away.

"About 95 per cent of all diseases are caused by eating cooked food. That is because food coming in contact with fire makes it unnatural. It gives it a sweet taste which causes an abnormal appetite. In consequence the system becomes overworked and the blood deteriorates."

THE SENATE BACKS UP ON THE BILL

EIGHT HOUR BILL RECALLED FROM HOUSE AND SENT BACK TO COMMITTEE—WILL UNDOUBTEDLY BE AMENDED AND POSSIBLY KILLED.

When Senator Nottingham yesterday afternoon moved to reconsider the eight-hour law passed several days ago that body backed up—backed up far enough to recall the bill from the house and to send it back to the committee which first recommended its passage.

Senator Nottingham in making his motion stated that he had learned the bill would affect a number of industries in the state that he did not desire to see it affect. Senator Joseph stated that the iron works of Portland, and other industries were opposed to the bill, and that the Willamette Paper & Pulp company had threatened to move its plant, if the bill became a law.

Many Bills Passed. Senator Nottingham's bill preventing the adulteration of linsseed oil went through without a vote against it and so did that of Senator Dimick which makes it the duty of the secretary of state to audit the bills of all boards and commissions.

Senator Carson's bill authorizing county courts to employ county and city prisoners in the construction of roads went through in an amended form. The original bill placed the prisoners in the control of the county court but as amended they remain in control of the sheriff.

The bill of Senator Dimick pertaining to the custody of state funds had easy sailing and so did a bill of Senator Malarkey relating to the commencement of actions in the courts.

Two of Senator Wood's bills were passed—the one providing that no warrants should issue for claims for which no appropriations were made and the other preventing the creation of deficiencies. This latter bill providing for the exercising of the right of eminent domain for rights of way by irrigation companies was favorably considered.
