Washington, Feb. 3 .- Bitter attack on former President Roosevelt and make a specialty of pure lard. V on the steel trusts was made in the C. Rush, successor to Edwards a the house yesterday by Congressman Long. 1815 East State street Stanley, of Kentucky, during the debate on the agricultural appropriation bill. Stanley argued that the trusts restrain trade.

"I insist that this lawless, defiant and pernacious monopoly be investigated immediately and the guilty, no matter how powerful or how high, be brought to justice," he shouted.

Referring to the trust's obtaining of Roosevelts presidential sanction for its absorption of the Tennessee Coaland Iron Company on the pretense of preventing a panic, he said: "Never since the Prince of Darkness appeared to the Nazarine was there such a vista of evil and far reaching dominion unveiled to the vision of God or man. The Saylor said, 'Get thee behind me, Satan,' but the hero of San Juan said, 'Ili get in 'ront of you, omnipresent devil.
