OREGON COLONY AT LOS ANGELES

Mrs. J. M. Kitchens, of Stayton, Oregon, left for San Diego, California, after a month very pleasantly spent in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose, of Brownville, Oregon, arrived in Los Angeles last Wednesday for a month's visit in the sunshine and among the roses of southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Morgan, of Albany, Oregon, left for San Diego, California, after four weeks of slight seeing in and around Los Angeles.

Mrs. J. W. Cusick, of Albany, Oregon, is spending the winter in Los Angeles. Mrs. Cusick is very nicely located at 333 N. Grand avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. Hodges, of Albany, Oregon, are spending their winter vacation in Los Angeles, and we are sure will come again.

A party of Oregon tourists and a few Los Angeles people enjoyed a beach trip a week ago Sunday, lasting all day. Santa Monica, Venice, Ocean Park, and Beverly were visited before returning to the city.

The day was perfect and greatly enjoyed by one and all. Those forming the party were Mrs. Dr. Kitchens, of Stayton; Mrs. J. W. Cusick, of Albany; Mrs. John Morgan, of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Spencer, of Los Angeles.

Dr. Myrtle Cramer, of Los Angeles, California, is visiting in Stayton, Oregon, her childhood home, and will spend some time in Portland and Salem before returning to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Sam Pressler, nee Alice Davie, a former Staytonite, is located in Los Angeles for the winter with her husband and father.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Cramer, former Stayton people, are nicely located at Palomar, California, a suburb of Los Angeles. They own a fine chicken ranch with one thousand chickens in their coops.

Mrs. A. B. Spencer, nee Tempert Duniven, a former Staytonite, is located in Los Angeles for the winter with her husband and father.

Mr. Melvin Cramer, a former Oregon boy, is home for a vacation after six years spent in San Francisco and Mexico. Mrs. L. S. Barnes, nee Grace Dinamoore, a former Stayton girl, was seen at one of the leading opera houses Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Barnes is the proud possessor of a handsome electric automobile and is very expert in handling her machine.

Mrs. Dr. Kitchens, of Stayton, Oregon; Mrs. Ellen Morgan, of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Spencer, of Los Angeles, entertained a number of former Oregonians at a pretty little luncheon last Monday—those present were: Mrs. B. P. Taylor, now of Pomona, California; Mrs. William Reid, nee Helen Taylor, of Los Angeles; Mrs. J. M. Kitchens, Mrs. Ellen Morgan, of Albany; Mrs. Abbie Hatch, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Sam Pressler, of Los Angeles; Miss Lela Taylor, of Pomona; and Mrs. A. B. Spencer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Potter are enroute to Southern California, they expect to spend a month in San Diego and Los Angeles. Mr. Potter is connected with the Stayton bank.

Mrs. Abbie Hatch, a former Stayton and Salem lady, is located in a beautiful home on W. 18th street, Los Angeles.

Mrs. S. Maskey, nee Susie Price, an Oregon girl, owns a lovely home out upon Griffith avenue, Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan, of Albany; Mrs. J. M. Kitchens, of Stayton, Ore.; and Mrs. A. B. Spencer formed a jolly party which went upon the "Tilton Trolley Trip" last week. Trip lasts all day and includes Pasadena, the Orange Groves Canston's ostrich farm, San Gabriel Mission, San Pedro, Los Angeles harbor, Long Beach and Mira Mar. One of the interesting sights upon the trip was the old San Gabriel Mission founded in 1771 by the Franciscan Fathers, the fourth oldest mission in the country—a rose bush over one hundred years old was shown the tourists. It looked like a huge grapevine. The town of San Gabriel itself is a strange old place, with queer roofs and low plastered houses. Very much like a Spanish or old Mexico town. Imagine the quaint low houses, the narrow streets and great high snow capped mountains behind the town in the distance, the wonderful groves of oranges below, the blue sky above; and then, all about, the huge palms, the pepper trees, the brilliant red geraniums, massed in huge glowing beds, the soft perfume of the orange blossoms and all this in January. Can anyone imagine a fairer picture for any land?

Celebrated 83d Birthday.
Captain D. C. Howard celebrated his 83d birthday Saturday, January 28, at the home of his son, S. E. Howard. There were present to do him honor, his daughter, Mrs. Carrie Driver and little daughter, Katherine, of Albany; Mr. George Howard, a son, of Wenatchee, Wash.; Mrs. Lottie Bell and Mrs. Edyth Rogers, of Portland, grand daughters; also Howard Jefferson and Edna Ellen Bell, James and Ellen Rogers, great grand children.

An elaborate birthday dinner was provided by Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Howard, and in the evening the neighbors gathered to pay their respects. They were Mr. and Mrs. Shrunn, Mr. and Mrs. Bird, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. College, Mr. J. L. Robinson, Mrs. Helen and Miss Genevieve Helm.

A portion of the evening was spent in singing old-time songs. Mr. Robinson rendered some stirring music on his dulcimer, of which he is a past master. Mr. S. E. Howard manipulated the piano, and Mrs. Howard served birthday cake and fruit.

A very pleasant feature of the evening was the captain's reminiscences of war times, and his rendering, with much feeling and vim, an old-time war poem, "Banty Tim."

Captain Howard served through the Civil War in the First Ohio artillery. His father, Wm. Howard, of Virginia, fought in the war of 1812-14. From him the captain inherited a good old type of patriotism, and, although a prisoner in his chair since November, 1908, and suffering greatly, keeps well posted on all that is transpiring, and is every ready with a story or a joke, proving himself a good soldier, by his patience and courage, suffering silently and waiting with a smile for the call of the "Great Commander."

He is loved and honored by a large circle of friends. He has been a resident of Oregon since 1875; has been the father of eight children, six of whom are living; has 38 living grand children and 32 great grand children.

Let us know the old soldiers while we may, for we can see, through the time, all too soon, when the last, having proven themselves, in peace as well as in war, in sickness as well as in health, the highest type of our American manhood, will have passed over to their great reward.

ARE TRYING TO PLACE THE BLAME

OFFICIALS OF THE POWDER TRUST ARRAIGNED FOR CAUSING THE EXPLOSION IN NEW YORK—WILL TRY TO SEND THEM TO PRISON.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Jersey City, N. J., Feb. 4.—While divers were at work today searching sunken lighters, Katherine W. and Whistler for the bodies of those who perished when dynamite wrecked the pier of the Central Railroad of New Jersey here, eight officials of that road, of the powder trust and James Healing, the owner of the Katherine W., were arraigned as responsible for the disaster. With them appeared a big array of counsel, which indicated that the jurisdiction of Hudson county in counseling would be attacked. In opening for the county, the prosecutor said he was prepared to prove that the explosive which caused the fatal wreck had been for six days in the city without a permit, and that he intended that a strong attempt would be made to send to jail those officials of the Dupont Powder company, the trust, and of the railroad who were responsible.

The officials of the Dupont Powder company today declared they believed 10,000 pounds of stick gun powder, which was on the deck of the Katherine W., caused the explosion, and not the dynamite which was in a frozen state.
