GOULD KID
MARRIES A REAL LORD

BRIDE IS AND GROOM IS BUT
AS HE MARRIES TWO GOULDS,
GOULD AND GOLD, IT EVENS
THINGS SOMEWHAT.

New York, Feb. 7.—The old story of American wealth and a foreign title meeting at the altar was re-staged today in the marriage of Miss Helen Vivien Gould, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Jay Gould, and Lord Decies, of England. In St. Bartholomew's church, before an audience that represented American and English aristocracy, this 18-year-old girl and her fiancé of 44 years were wedded this afternoon.

As is usually the case in international alliances of such prominence, today's wedding again demonstrated the morbid curiosity of the public and thousands of persons crowded about old St. Bartholomew's to get a glimpse of the bride and the notables in attendance. The services of several hundred policemen were required to keep the streets clear for the endless string of automobiles that deposited their richly gowned and faultlessly groomed guests at the church doors. Similar scenes were enacted at the Gould home, 867 Fifth avenue, where a reception was had immediately following the ceremony. The wedding ceremony was performed by Bishop Greer, assisted by Dr. Parks.

Ten thousand dollars worth of flowers had turned the interior of the church into a veritable bower, the scent of enchantment being enhanced by a special musical program, under the direction of Organist Hyde. In addition to the regular choir of St. Bartholomew's there was the boys' choir from the Cathedral of St. John the Divine which were present. The soloist for the occasion was Ricardo Martin, of the Maro Politician Opera company.

The floral decorations were almost entirely white. The wedding presents were beautiful and costly, their value being estimated at $100,000. The most expensive was the gift of George J. Gould, the bride's father,—a coronet of a baroness, tipped with nine pear-shaped diamonds, which Lady Decies will wear at the coronation of King George V.

In sumptuousness, the waiting rivalled that of the bride's older sister, Marjorie, who at the same altar was married to Anthony J. Drexel less than 10 months ago. Miss Gould's attendants were her sister, little Miss Edith Gould, as maid of honor, her still smaller sister, Miss Gloria Gould and Miss Diana Dalziel as flower girls, while the bridesmaids were Miss Hope Hamilton, the bride's cousin; Miss Hannah Randolph, of Philadelphia, Miss Allison Pierce, Miss Louise Cronwell, of Washington, Miss Emeline Holmes and Miss Anna Graham. Lord Alastair Graham, a cousin of Lord Decies, was best man. The ushers were the Earl Percy, Lord Camoys, Robert Grey of London; Phoenix Ingraham, Moncreuf Robinson, Robert E. Russell, Anthony J. Drexel Jr., and Francis W. Crowninshield.

The bride was given away by her father. The wedding gown was of heavy white duchess satin, in semi-empire style, heavily embroidered with silver roses. The train was eight yards long. The veil was of real lace. Lady Decies plans to wear her bridal gown at the coronation of King George and at her presentation to the English court in June.

The bridesmaids' gowns were of white chiffon over white satin, trimmed with festoons of sea green satin ribbon. The gowns were in the high-waisted empire style. The hats were of white chiffon trimmed with green. The bride's dress was made in Paris as was the rest of her trousseau, on which was spent, according to a reliable report, the snug little sum of $50,000.

Honest Advice to Consumptives

Somewhere there exists a vast amount of sleeping and the possibility of curing Consumption. . . . We state none but facts, and are sincere in what we assert. . . . If ourselves afflicted with Tuberculosis, we should do precisely what we ask others to do—take Eckman's Alternative promptly and faithfully. . . . The reason we should do this, and warrant we have for asking all Consumptives to take it, is that we have the reports of many cures, one of which follows:

1619 Susquehanna Ave., Phila., Pa.
Gentlemen: For two years I was afflicted with hemorrhages of the lungs, the number totaled nearly one hundred. My family physician advised another climate, as to remain would probably be fatal; however, I remained, and in February of 1902, I was taken with a severe attack of pneumonia. When I recovered sufficiently to walk about the house I was left with a frightful hacking cough, which no medicine I had taken could alleviate. I was again advised to go to another part of the country. It was at this time, March, 1902, that I learned of Eckman's Alternative. In a short time my cough was pronounced "well" or "cured." Since that time I have had two slight attacks of pneumonia and have resorted to no other medicine to effect a cure.

I am at present in excellent health and feel that as long as I can obtain Eckman's Alternative, I have no fear of Consumption. I cannot speak too highly for the good it has done.

Those who like to follow the elaborate weddings among New York's millionaires estimate the total cost of Miss Vivien's transformation into Lady Decies at close to $75,000 to say nothing of the "dot" of several millions that she will take her titled husband. Mrs. Jay Gould is nothing if not lavish in her social affairs, and her planning of today's wedding, from first to last, was in utter disregard of cost. The preliminary entertainments, the decorations of the church and house, the gifts to the waiting party and the other odds and ends brought the total expenditures up to the proportions of a good sized fortune.

No immediate plans for the honeymoon were announced. It is probable that the couple will go to the Gould properties at Jekyll Island, Georgia, returning to New York and sailing on the Carmania on February 18. They will make the Mediterranean trip and stay some time in Egypt before going to Sefton Park.

The great disparity in the ages of Lord and Lady Decies added a note of interest to the wedding. Lord Decies, whose full name is John Graham Hope De La Poer Beresford, Baron Decies, of County Waterford, Ireland, first met Miss Gould while he was exhibiting horses at the New York show several years ago. She was then in short dresses, but it was seen at the outset that he was greatly interested in the child, as she then was.

Lord Decies, who is only two years younger than his father-in-law, has seen much service as a soldier, having been in the Boer campaign. Being an engaging conversationalist, it was suggested that his stories of his travels and fighting, have won the heart of Miss Vivien, for Lord Decies was a frequent guest of the Goulds at their Georgian court and town residence. Lord Decies, however, denied the impeachment that he had played Othello to Miss Gould's Desdemona.

Lord Decies himself thought it nothing unusual that a man of 44 should wish to marry a girl of 18. "Why, I am not old," he said to the New York interviewers. "In England a man of 44, especially if he has lived actively in the open air as I have done, is considered right in his prime. Difference in ages such as between Miss Gould and me are very common in England."

In addition to being a soldier, Lord Decies is one of the most prominent sportsmen in England. He owns a small racing stable and is known as a cricketer and football player, a player, a hunter and boxer. The country seats over which Lady Decies will be mistress are Kilcorney, Ireland; Sefton park at Slaugh England, and Beresford Lodge, Kent.

THE WHOLE ARGUMENT AGAINST TATT'S PROPOSED RECIPROCITY
WITH CANADA IS THAT GOODES WOULD BE MADE CHEAPER.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Protesting against reciprocity with Canada on the grounds that the farmer would gain nothing and lose all, the National Grange today, voiced its objection to President Taft's tariff policy. The message was read in the senate by Senator Gallinger.

Protests also were filed by Senators McCumber, of North Carolina, and Nelson, of Minn., the former reading a telegram from the American society of equity of Indianapolis. Nelson spoke for the citizens of Elbow Lake, Minn.

F. M. Hugo, of Watertown, N. Y., representing the Remington and Perlin Paper company, and others representing the American Paper and Pulp association appeared before the house ways and means committee today in opposition to the treaty. The paper men declared the new agreement with Canada would destroy their business because Canada manufactures can produce print paper for less money than they, by reason of the enormous supply of cheap Canadian pulp wood.
