FULL LEASED WIRE TELEGRAPH REPORT

St. Nicholas for March has fine illustrated article on George Washington's narrow escape with his life ten times from Indians, spies and dangers of war on land and sea. To have gone through it all and then marry a widow, proves that he was a brave man after all.

A St. Louis syndicate asks us to put on a contest to send 14 young ladies to Europe. We would like to go to Europe ourselves and see the remainder of the people over there who have not yet been able to get away and come to this country. As for the 14 young ladies, we would like to be excused, and refer that kind of a game to ex-Mayor George F. Rodgers.

About half the mail a newspaper gets these days is copy sent out with requests for publication free in our columns. It is all franked and is mostly devoted to making appeals for extension of this department and that, and more appropriations for this and that commission and so forth. This governing business is growing so fast that there will be on only two classes left after a little while—those on the payrolls and those too poor to pay any taxes. The worst forms of special privilege aristocracy are being built up in the name of government, hastening socialism, paternalism, anarchy and revolution. But the people seem to want it, and give public office to those who stand for it.

The State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, established by the last legislature, through the efforts of Dr. Pierce, formerly of this city, has now 50 patients, mostly men. There is a farmer employed who will cultivate about 30 acres in garden truck. He will be able to get but little work out of the patients, as most of them are very weak. This institution is an experiment on the part of the state, and the problem is how to keep the cities and counties from committing all kinds of people who belong to Oregon and those who are weak and come to Oregon to a state institution to be maintained by the general taxpayer. But the taxpayer is easy game.

THE PRINCIPLE OF THE GILL BILL.

It is a mistake to assume that the people of the various counties are going to vote bond issues for good roads, and not know where the roads are to be built. The Gill bill provided that the petitions for a bond election should state where the money should be expended, and that roads be built to the principal market places. That has been struck out of the compromise measure, and the idea seems to prevail in the new that the people are not to know where the roads are to be built. The opponents of the Gill bill say: If we tell the people where the money is to be spent they will not vote the bonds. They say: Make it a lottery, hide the real purpose from them, and they will vote bonds blindly if we treat them like children.

We are very much afraid that the people will vote very few bonds for the state highway commission to spend on that plan. It cannot be beaten into the heads of the Portland crowd that the people are not stuck on the commission plan. Neither can they be got to realize that the people are not clamoring for an opportunity to vote bond issues for any purpose. But as pretty much all the wisdom in the state about good roads resides in Portland, the people will have to stand for it.

EVEN THE PEOPLE CAN DO WRONG.

The people's measures that were adopted to abolish fishwheels and fish traps on the Columbia were all swept away by the powerful interests on that river. The cannery men and the commercial interests on the lower and upper Columbia had very little respect for laws enacted by the people to abolish monopolies. These laws were repealed and amended and there has never been any great uproar among the political demagogues about the sacredness of the laws of the people. When the interests are big enough the demagogue sidesteps and goes away back and sits down, but the interests on the Rogue river are a different matter.

The law to prohibit catching salmon on the Rogue river and its tributaries in any way but with a hook and line was enacted by the people, and it must be obeyed to the letter. The canneries and cold storage plants and hatcheries built and owned and maintained by one man who is now dead can be attacked, and the property rendered worthless. Two years from now the sports men of Roseburg can initiate a bill to close the Umpqua and all its tributaries to commercial fishing. The Portland Rod and Gun club can initiate a bill to close the Willamette and the Clackamas, and all their tributaries. The theory that the people can do no wrong is on a par with the old theory of divine rights of kings—they could do no wrong once. The plain truth is that the rights of the citizen to hook and line fishing, or angling, should be protected by law. But the rights of industries and the commercial side of the fishing industry also have rights that cannot be destroyed. If this legislature does not see fit to allow commercial fisheries on all the salmon streams of the state, it will lay the foundation for a suit in the federal courts. The lower Rogue river properties cannot be destroyed without a contest in the courts lasting for years, and going to the supreme court of the United States. The supreme court of the United States will not uphold the doctrine that a bill with a misleading title can be placed before the people and voted on to destroy commercial industries without compensation.

If it did such a thing, then no man's property would be secure from confiscation and destruction. Where do our boasted bulwarks of the constitution for the protection of property as against sports amount to, anyway

PROGRESSIVE GRANTS PASS.

The metropolis of Josephine county is coming to the front as one of the most beautiful and progressive cities in Oregon. It is said by all who have seen it that Sixth street is one of the most beautiful streets found in any city on the Pacific coast. It is three-fourths of a mile long, eighty feet wide between property lines, has sixteen-foot walks, and is paved with bituthic. Most beautiful of all are its cluster lights—a modern iron post with a cluster of Tungsten incandescents every hundred feet. These lights are not only absolutely in line on each side of the street, but the cluster lights themselves are on a perfect grade. Grants Pass is getting two new railroads—an electric from the Welch corporation to Ashland, and an electric to the caves. These Josephine county caves are almost as great a natural wonder as Crater Lake, and are annually attracting more people. Although a much smaller city than Salem, it has this city put in the shade for having the most beautiful street in the state. First-class paving, cluster lights and mountain water are the watchword of modern city building.

TO BRIDGE THE NORTH SANTIAM

Last year a petition was filed by citizens of Scto and vicinity, with the Linn County Court, asking that a wagon bridge be constructed across the North Santiam, just below the location of the S. P. R. R. bridge a short distance North of Shelburn. No action was taken by the court at that time but now there is something doing. The courts of both counties have agreed to meet to discuss the matter, at Shelburn, on the date above specified. It is expected that the courts will arrive at about 9 a. m., and will immediately proceed to the site of the proposed bridge, examine location, estimate distances, etc. It is supposed that by the time they return to Shelburn, all will be hungry and the good citizens of Shelburn will undertake to fill the vacuum which will, probably exist in the stomachs of the court and others who attend. It is desirable that all, or as many as can attend who are interested, should be present. The decision of the two courts may depend upon the amount of interest the people manifest; so it is policy for everybody who is interested to be there.—The Santiam News.

LEGISLATURE SNAPSOTS.
Magone, of Clackamas has not introduced a bill at this session. Neither has he resorted to the expedient of getting some other sucker to introduce his bills. Mr. Magone may not know it, but he is not liable to become a victim of the recall at the hands of his constituents.

Clyde has made about the best record at this session. He is the Multnomah member who got 1300 individual votes—that is 1300 voters thought enough of Clyde to angle him out and vote for him alone out of about 50 gentlemen who offered their names on the ballot as would-be lawmakers. The question is what are the politicians going to do with Clyde, when it is recalled that every newspaper but the Portland News fought his election. Clyde represents the revolution.

Of course, Johnson, of Marion, is Scandinavian by name. He is a descendant of John Johnson. The state labor commissioner is Ole Pee Hoff. His middle name is not a name—just an initial and does not stand for anything. Mr. Amme is of French Norman descent. The Normans conquered England. They were Scandinavians and in another 1000 years will have England fully civilized.

LIONS WILL LIE DOWN LIKE LAMBS TOGETHER

New York, Feb. 13.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and William Barnes, Jr. will be fellow guests tonight at the Lincoln dinner of the New York Republican club. Party leaders are predicting that the presence of the heads of the warring factions at the Saratoga convention at a "harmony" dinner means that the hatchet will be buried. Secretary of the Navy Meyer will be one of the speakers, as official administration representative.

STRUCK A MATCH BUT DID NOT FIND LEAK

Los Angeles, Calif., Feb. 13.—Because he was ignorant of the dangers of unharmed gas, G. Simikara is recovering from first degree burns at a hospital today. Simikara smelled gas escaping. He traced it to the cellar of his pool room. The odor grew stronger as he approached the sewer vent. It was dark and he struck a match—the end.

New York, Feb. 13.—Official declaration that cerebro-spinal meningitis is now classed with such past terrors as smallpox and diphtheria, was made here today by the Rockefeller institution of medical research. Is He Jailed for Debt?

Gulfport, Miss., Feb. 13.—Rather than pay a poll tax, Sumner W. Rose, Socialist alderman of Biloxi, Miss., is in jail here today facing a six-months' sentence. Rose has appealed to the United States court from the decision of the lower court's decision sentencing him to a jail term. He is backed by Socialists throughout the country, who are raising the question of whether the authorities have power to send him to jail for debt.

GRAVE PUBLIC ALARM IS FELT IN BERLIN OVER KAISER WILHELM'S ILLNESS AND FATAL TERMINATION IS FEARED.

Berlin, Feb. 13.—The gravest public alarm for the health and physical life of Emperor William is felt here today. The uneasiness of the people has been increased by a mass of contradictory statements as to the Kaiser's illness, and today no one outside court circles really knows how serious his indisposition is. The ruler's immediate engagements were cancelled today, and this has accentuated the fear of the populace that a fatal termination of his illness is not an impossibility.

THINKS HE HAS FOUND THE REAL TRUTH REASON

Editor Journal: I find in the Journal of yesterday (Friday) evening this:

"It is a pity that Salem is too poor to afford a uniform system of pavement, like Eugene, Albany, Corvallis and other cities in the state. Sure enough! It is a pity it is true, and true that it is a pity. Perhaps the explanation may be found in the fact that these enterprising cities went dry, while Salem went wet! What now becomes of the contention of the advocates of the saloon (the Journal included) that if we outlawed the liquor traffic that it would kill prosperity; that grass would grow in our streets, even on the bituthic or concrete pavements, if we voted dry? Bah!

JOHN P. ROBERTSON. Feb. 11.

Thirty Years Together.
Thirty years of association—think of it. How the merit of a good thing stands out in that time—or the worthlessness of a bad one. So there's no guesswork in this evidence of Thos. Ariss, Concord, Michigan, who writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for 30 years, and its the best cough and cold cure I ever used." Once it finds entrance in a home you can't pry it out. Many families have used it 40 years. It's the most infallible throat and lung medicine on earth. Unequaled for lagrippe, asthma, hay fever, croup, quinsy or sore lungs. Price 50c, $1.00.
