NEW CHIEF AT SEATTLE CLEANS UP

CUTS OUT BOXING MATCHES AND SIMILAR "ENTERTAINMENTS" AND MAKES RADICAL CHANGES IN OFFICES OF THE FORCE.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Seattle, Wash., Feb. 13.—Police Chief Bannick today issued sweeping orders for a general clean up of the city. The order includes protected disorderly houses which flourished under the former administration; strict observation of liquor laws; creation of a plain clothes squad aside from regular city detective department; removal of Inspector Mike Powers and appointment of John Sullivan; no more boxing contests; elimination of handbooks. 25 in number; general shifting of sergeants and patrolmen and a stricter surveillance of notorious negro clubs in the lower end of the city.

Prosecuting Attorney John F. Murphy will tomorrow morning ask for the immediate drawing of a grand jury before which will be presented evidence that will uncover the vice system that has flourished up to the installation of the new mayor, George W. Dilling last Saturday.

The evidence has been secured by William J. Burns, the former United States secret service operative who prosecuted the investigation against Schmitz and Reef in San Francisco, and who secured the evidence in the famous Oregon land frauds.

Evidence that will result in the indictment of scores who paid tribute to the heads of the vice syndicate are expected to result. It is alleged that Burns has succeeded in weaving a net of most damaging evidence about the late police chief who resigned last Saturday.

A MEXICAN MERCHANT IS MURDERED

STOOD HIM UP AGAINST A WELL AND SHOT HIM TO DEATH BEFORE HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Galveston, Tex., Feb. 13.—Murder of a Mexican merchant, Alguies Saldon, in Puebla, Mexico, by adherents of President Diaz, is reported here today by Dr. H. A. Bates, of San Antonio.

The physician says the Diaz adherents discovered that Saldon was acting as treasurer of the insurgents. Searching his home, they found $1500 and certain revolutionary documents, upon which they stood him against a wall and shot him to death.

When the Mexican troops first reached Saldon's home and he refused to surrender, they opened fire with machine guns, riddling the residence. Finally a charge was made and when the house was entered, Saldon and his family were found hidden in a cellar. When Saldon was stood against the wall before the firing party, his wife nearby, and as he fell to the volley, he reeled forward and expired in her arms.

MEXICANS ARE REALLY FIGHTING

HEAVY FIRING SOUTH OF SAMALAYCA INDICATES THAT REBELS HAVE FINALLY ATTACKED NAVARRO'S FORCES.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
El Paso, Tex., Feb. 13.—Heavy firing south of Samalayuca, which was reported here today by workmen who had been south of Juarez on the line of the Mexican National railroad, indicates that the expected battle between the forces of Orozco and Navarro had begun.

Orozco's pickets, who turned the workmen back 23 miles south of Juarez, told them that the rebels were engaging Navarro's force and the fate of Juarez was likely to be decided by nightfall.

That Navarro has been surprised is probable. Early today he sent a courier to Juarez to assure the citizens that his advance would be un-checked.

Abram Gonzales, the head of the rebel junta here, vanished today, following the finding in the clothing of General Castillas, who is in jail here for violating neutrality, a message from Gonzales to the rebels in the field. The message conclusively showed that Gonzales had transgressed international law. United States marshals are seeking the rebel chief.

Daniel Jackson, attorney for General Castillas, declares that his client will be released on bond today.

KILLED WIFE AND A FRIEND AT SAN JOSE

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
San Jose, Cal., Feb. 13.—W. W. McAdams today shot and killed his wife and Nick Curtich, a wealthy restaurant owner. McAdams told the police that he returned home unexpectedly and found Curtich with his wife.

McAdams is in jail, where a special guard has been placed about his cell to prevent possible attempts to lynch the prisoner.

Friends of Curtich claim that the shooting was cold blooded and premeditated, and that McAdams deliberately laid a trap for Curtich, and shot him down without warning.

McAdams is a resident of Gilroy, and wealthy.

ARCHBISHOP RYAN TO BE BURIED THURSDAY
