

ARE YOU ALL READY FOR Easter Sunday?

It's not very far away now and if you are not ready it's time you were thinking of new Easter wearables.

Every department has blossomed out in new Spring Dress. The Ladies' ready-to-wear section, the dress goods and silk departments, Men's clothing and furnishings, the shoe section--in fact no department has been slighted in getting it's share of new things.

It will pay you well to visit us and get an early choice from these select displays.

The prices too are very attractive to economical shoppers.

Get in the "$500.00 for a name contest" and be a winner. See the Saturday Evening Post issues of March and April.

To Welcome a Neighbor—A jolly company of about 50 gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Haines Monday evening. Mr. Haines recently bought the Highland grocery. The evening was spent in visiting, music and singing. Some amusing readings were given by Miss Teekham. Refreshments were served and all felt better acquainted with the new neighbors and hope they have come to stay.

Plans Completed for Thielson Building—Plans have been completed by Architect Hazeltine for the Thielson building to be erected on High street near the Grand Opera house, and Mr. Thielson is now considering bids from the contractors. The building is to be 43 by 100 feet and two stories high. It will be so constructed that if the necessity demands, that additional stories may be built upon it. It will be used as a garage.

Salem Boy Gets There—Mr. Ralph Matthews, a well known Salem man recently accepted a government position in the department of mines and has gone to Pittsburg to take up his official duties. Mr. Matthews graduated with the class of 1910 from the chemistry department of the University of California. After finishing his school work, he accepted a position in the oil refineries in West Berkeley, California, where his efficient work gained his present appointment.

May Issue Boosting Magazine—A magazine which will have for its object the boosting of the city and the Willamette Valley in general was an idea advanced last evening by M. O. Buren at the meeting of the Business Men's League. It met with favorable consideration from the other members and Messrs. Buren, Fry and Sargent were appointed as a committee to investigate the feasibility of publishing such a publication and will report back to the organization in the near future.

At the meeting rules were adopted for the Columbia Southern project which is now being financed by the Washington-Oregon Irrigation company.

FUNERAL OF E. A. DOUGLAS
YESTERDAY AFTERNOON
The funeral of Elmer A. Douglas, who passed away Sunday at the Tuberculosis Sanatorium, was held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, from the home of Supt. Alderman. Rev. Stillman officiated at the services, and spoke feelingly of the life of deceased. The floral tributes included a pillow, inscribed "20", from Capital Typographical union, Mr. Douglas having been a member of the international organization. A delegation of printers acted as pall bearers, escorting the remains to the union's lot in I. O. O. F. cemetery, where interment took place.

NEGRO, HIS WHITE WIFE AND FAMILY MURDERED
[ENTERED HERE'S LEARNED WITH] San Antonio, Tex., March 22.—Al Gassoway, a negro, his white wife and their three children were found today murdered in their home here. Evidently the family had been slain as they slept. All had been struck repeatedly on the heads with an axe, which was found in the room. The feeling here against the couple had been bitter because of their miscegenation.

ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF LARCENY OF $20
F. J. Stewart was arrested this morning by the police on the charge of stealing $20 from his companion, J. H. Estes, and will be given a hearing this afternoon before Judge Elgin. Stewart and Estes, it seems, had been at work for the Spaulding Lumber company at Lebanon and yesterday came to the city and secured a room at the Owl Lodging House. Last night after Estes retired Stewart went to the room and took his grip and it is the supposition of the other man that he also took $20 that did not belong to him at that time.

Alderman to Attend Institutes—State Superintendent of Public Instruction Alderman left today for Columbia county where he will attend teachers' institutes at St. Helens and Rainier.

Bound Over to Grand Jury—Joe Thomas, who was arrested last night by Night Patrolman Whitlatch on the charge of attempting burglary, was today bound over to the grand jury by Judge Elgin. The charge consisted in an attempt to enter and burglarize the home of W. L. Thomas near the Southern Pacific depot.

Big Fire in Buenos Ayres.
[ENTERED HERE'S LEARNED WITH] Buenos Ayres, March 22.—Fire, which broke out in the customs store, here this afternoon caused a loss estimated at $3,000,000.
The sharp plow is run by the shrewd plowman.

OTTUMWA WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Ottumwa, Iowa.—"For years I was almost a constant sufferer from female trouble in all its dreadful forms; shooting pains all over my body, sick headache, spinal weakness, dizziness, depression, and everything that was horrid. I tried many doctors in different parts of the United States, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than all the doctors. I feel it my duty to tell you these facts. My heart is full of gratitude to you for my cure."—Mrs. HARRIET E. WAMPLER, 531 S. Ransom Street, Ottumwa, Iowa.

Consider This Advice.
No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous medicine, made only from roots and herbs, has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, confidential and always helpful.

THEIR MARRIED LIFE.

says the cartoonist, which continued to grow worse until finally the separation came. After that, he says, the wife grew sullen and morose and aired her imaginary domestic trouble before friends, insulting them and embarrassing them.

Tells Aunt to Go to Hotel.
In September, 1905, Davenport had a concession on the "Trail," at the grounds of the Lewis and Clark exposition, at Portland, and they lived on the ground where the concession was located. An aged aunt, alleges the cartoonist, came from the state of Washington to visit him, and especially to visit his wife, whom she had never seen. The wife treated her with disrespect, he says, and while they had ample accommodations for her where they lived, and she was fatigued, the wife told her to look up a hotel and stay there.

Slammed Door in Faces of Friends.
While at the fair, he alleges, numerous friends came to visit him, and these she treated with disrespect, insulting them and making the situation extremely embarrassing for him. Upon one occasion, he says, when a particular friend, whom he calls John Doe, came to see him, and he was absent from home, and the wife, on opening the door, and seeing who it was, slammed it in his face. This act was done, he says, in spite of the fact that she realized that the visitor was one of his best friends.

Charged Him With Infidelity.
Then in 1906 came charges of infidelity, and a year later, unable to bear up longer under the treatment inflicted upon him, he ceased to live with her as a husband. She charged him, he says, with associating with dissolute women, and made those accusations against him in the presence of friends and before his children. That marked the beginning of the end. In 1907 he ceased to live with her as a husband, and a year later, 1908, he left her entirely, and since then has lived separate and apart from her.

The children are with the wife, and he is willing she should retain their custody. He has been paying her $100 a week, and he willing to continue this allowance.
