It Isn't What You Pay BUT WHAT YOU GET That Counts

We always consider Quality First in Buying, and never place anything on sale unless we are convinced it will prove satisfactory to the customer.

Our Spot Cash Plan of Business

Has met the approval of Economical Buyers, because they realize that it enables us to give better values than "credit" stores can afford to offer.

Reliable Merchandise Sold at Reasonable Prices

Explains our wonderful success. We don't make as much on each individual sale as "regular" stores make, but we make more in the aggregate on account of the greatly increased business. You don't pay your neighbor's debts when you trade at

WRECKAGE DRIFTING ON THE BEACH

TWO LIFEBOATS BEARING THE NAME SECHTEL ARE WASHED ASHORE, BUT SO FAR NO BODIES RECOVERED.

Victoria, B. C., March 27.—Constable Dunwoody, of this city, sent to Church Point to search for bodies from the wrecked steamer Sechtel, together with Indians there, has discovered considerable wreckage, which has drifted ashore from the wreck, but no trace of the victims of Saturday's disaster.

H. D. Helmsen, who went to the scene of the disaster Sunday, says two pair of boat oars, a peak cap, two life buoys, one lifebelt, double-edged axe, driven in a piece of wood, two lifeboats, all bearing the name of the steamer Sechtel, were cast up by the sea in the vicinity of Church Point. Two boats, badly smashed, were also found.

In this condition while the moments which meant life or death went by.

"There were only 15,000 square feet of floor space for the girls, their machines and the cutting tables. If all of the 750 had marched quietly to the little fire escape it would have taken three hours to get them down. Imagine taking a theatre three hours to empty! The same conditions prevail in every loft workshop in the city, and we are helpless. The building was endorsed as safe by the state labor department."

Beers declares that the iron shutters on the seventh floor of the building swung out across the fire escape platform, blocking it.

Harris & Blank, the owners of the Triangle factory, insist that the exits from their workshop were all free and clear.

Trying to Burn Church.

Walla, Wash., March 27.—The authorities today began a systematic search for the man who late last night attempted to fire St. Paul Episcopal church. This is the third attempt to burn the structure in a year. The incendiary was frightened away by a choir boy.

JOHNSON SAYS ITS ALL "PREJUDICE"

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
San Francisco March 7.—Attorney Greeley, representing Jack Johnson, appeared in Judge Mogan's court today and said the papers in the appeal would be ready during the day, and would be filed.

District Attorney Fickert announced that he would make every effort to sustain the finding of the trial court that sentenced Johnson to 25 days in jail for speeding.

Greatly peeved at the prospect of doing 25 days in jail, Johnson visited Fickert at noon and petulantly claimed that he was being discriminated against because of his color, and because he had whipped Jeffries. Fickert gave the pugilist a merry laugh and assured him that he would be treated just as would any other persistent lawbreaker.

Judge Treadwell today denied absolutely Johnson's story that he had promised that if the pugilist would plead guilty he would let him off with a light fine.

Homer Davenport is in town, and Silverton people are reorganizing the band.
