PEACE NEGOTIATIONS ARE HELD UP MADERO FAMILY THE WHOLE CHEESE

PREMATURE PUBLICATION THAT DIAZ HAD ACCEPTED MADE THE LATTER SIDESTEP

Francisco Madero Wants Peace Because He Wants to Save His Property--His Bank at Monterey Is Suffering and His Big Department Store in the Same Place Has Been Closed by the Government--Ricardo Magon, of the Hot Air Department, Says "All Demands Must Be Granted."

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
San Antonio, Tex., March 31.—Premature publication of reports that President Diaz has agreed to treat with the Mexican insurgents is believed here today to be responsible for the delay in the peace negotiations.

As Diaz refuses to negotiate publicly with "the outlaws" it is believed all future moves will be secret, but that the president will send envoys to Chihuahua to present proposals to Madero. There is no concealment here that there is friction among the members of the Madero family. Francisco Madero Sr. is anxious to save his property. His Nuevo Leon bank at Monterey is suffering through the insurrection and his department store in the same city has been closed by the government. The elder Madero is unpopular with the rebels, who assert that he is but lukewarm in their cause.

To add to the difficulties of those who seek peace, it is said to be uncertain that Magon, the leader of the rebels in Lower California, will be willing to negotiate.

Gustavo Madero denied today a report that Draulio Hernandez, who is bearing peace proposals to Francisco Madero, has been captured by the federals.

Magon Against Peace.
Los Angeles, Calif., March 31.—Ricardo Magon, head of the revolutionary junta in Los Angeles, when told of United Press despatches from San Antonio, Texas, to the effect that he was against pending peace negotiations, said today:
"While I have not been officially approached on the subject, you may say for me that I will oppose any overtures for peace that do not recognize the demands of the insurrection in full."

ARRANGING FOR VISIT OF BIG ADVERTISERS

Phil Bates, of the Pacific Northwest magazine of Portland, is in the city conferring with the board of trade relative to the making of arrangements for the reception of those entering into the composition of the "Sunset List Excursion."

The excursionists are composed of members of the leading advertising firms in the middle western states and the party will leave Chicago on May 29, in a special car. Arrangements have been made for the party to visit places of interest in the northwest and if possible it is desired to fix upon June 8, as the time for the visit of the party to this city.

WOMEN SUFFRAGE PASSES IN WISCONSIN

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Madison, Wis., March 31.—By a vote of 16 to four the state senate passed today the bill giving women the right of suffrage in state elections.

Roosevelt's Seattle Stunt.

Seattle, Wash., March 31.—Seattle is agog over the coming of Roosevelt on April 6. They have changed the sailing time of the Tacoma boats so that the colonel can get a chance to eat and sit down before he arrives in Seattle. After that it will be all work.
Landing at 3 o'clock, he will whirl through a parade, tear out to the university, speak, return to the Hotel Washington, eat and speak without changing from his frock coat, hasten to Dreamland rink and throw confusion into the trusts, shake hands with 1500 persons, then over to the Press club until midnight, then he will go off to bed, and to Spokane next morning.

CHILDERS PLUNGED TO DEATH

With Two Companions Was Working on Wire Cable 90 Feet Above the River When the Shore Line Pulled Loose

THE OTHER TWO ESCAPED

Childers Jumped From the Flimsy Frame on Which the Three Were Standing before It Reached the Water and Was Drowned—His Companions Heard Him Calling for Help, But Were Unable to Aid Him.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Estacada, Or., March 31.—From a point 90 feet above the Clackamas river, near here, where they were swinging in a flimsy frame attached to a wire cable Wilbur Childers, of St. Johns, Oregon, Ray Marrs and John Baker fell into the river last night, the shore line of the cable pulling loose, according to word reaching here today.

Childers jumped from the frame before it reached the water and was drowned. Marrs and Baker clung to the frame and reached the bank. In the gathering darkness they saw Childers floating down the current, heard him call for help but could not aid him.

Childers, Marrs and Baker were members of a drilling crew employed by the Portland Railway, Light and Power company on what is known as the "upper dam site."

F. A. ELLIOTT SELECTED FORESTER

HAS HAD 30 YEARS' EXPERIENCE IN THE TIMBER AND WAS FOR SOME TIME IN CHARGE OF SIMILAR WORK FOR THE S. P.

The State Board of Forestry met yesterday afternoon in the office of Governor West and elected F. A. Elliott, who is identified with the Spaulding Logging Company, as state forester. The place was contested for by S. C. Bartrum, of Roseburg, but Elliott won over him easily.

Mr. Elliott is excellently qualified for the position, having had over 30 years' experience in the timber business. He has been in the employ of the Spaulding Logging Company for a number of years, and at one time was at the head of the forest fire fighting force of the Oregon & California Railroad Company.

An Aviator Killed.

Baltimore, Md., March 31.—While testing an aeroplane invention here today, Clarence R. Radasill sustained injuries which probably will result in his death.
Radasill's invention is a paravane, with which it is said, aeroplaning could be made comparatively free from danger.
To prove the value of his invention Radasill jumped from the top of a Baltimore & Ohio freight elevator. The parachute opened, but the force of the wind blew Radasill against a wooden wharf with terrific force.

of $3000 a year and the appointment of a deputy at a salary of $1800 a year. Mr. Elliott has not yet appointed a deputy, but when the board meets again, in 10 days, for the purpose of outlining its policy, he will probably then announce his appointment.
Mr. Elliott will maintain offices at the state capital.

$80,000 Appropriated.

The act creating the office of state forester was passed at the session of the last legislature, and it carries an appropriation of $80,000, to be used in the protection of forests from fire. The act also prescribes the duties of the forester and places under his supervision all forest fire fighting associations in the state.

MANAGER OF THE STREET CAR SYSTEM

SAYS HE IS READY TO PUT ON THE STREET CAR SERVICE TO THE SOUTH PAST MOUNTAIN VIEW ADDITION.

General Manager Rollin K. Page says he is prepared to put in the car service to the Salem Heights. He has the tracks in order and all the passing switches put in, and has the cars, and he has notified Traffic Manager Fuller, of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, and expects the service ordered put on any day. That will give a car service as far south as the Salem Heights school house and the rock quarries, on the Liberty road, and will bring the Mountain View properties within ten minutes' ride of the center of the city. When it is understood that the greater part of Portland's suburban property is half an hour to an hour's ride out of the city, this service will be appreciated.

Beautiful Home Sites.

All the Mountain View property gives the purchaser a beautiful home site, with a panoramic view of the whole city and the Cascade mountains and the grand snow peaks. On a clear day five grand, everlasting snow mountains are in full sight of a home in this tract, and will have an increasing value as the homes of the business and professional men, who want something beautiful in the way of scenery and to take their minds off their cares and business.

Fine Fruit on Lots.

Each lot is planted to full bearing fruit trees of all kinds, and the drier on the property will make all this fruit valuable, and will more than pay taxes and interest on the investment. Then you will have a piece of property that will increase steadily in value as the city grows. This property lays right, has a perfect slope, is outside the city, and where taxes will be light for many years. The owners do not sell on a monthly installment plan, but are making very easy terms on contracts that enables anyone having a small amount of ready money to get one of these tracts. If you have not been out, prepare to take the excursion Sunday afternoon on the free automobile truck that will take you to the tops of the highest ground.

BABY TAKEN FROM MOTHER BY FOUR MASKED ARMED MEN CHILD HIDDEN IN CANYON

Kidnaping Occurred at Las Vegas Wednesday Night When the Four Men Appeared at the Home of Attorney A. F. Rogers, and at the Point of a Revolver Made the Mother Dress the Child and Deliver It to Them--Before Leaving. They Gave Mother a Letter Telling How the Child Could Be Recovered.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Albuquerque, N. M., March 31.—Details of a coup by which four masked kidnapers stole the grandchild of Judge H. L. Waldo, general counsel for the Santa Fe railroad, and returned him only after a ransom of $12,000 had been paid were revealed here today with the beginning of a hunt for the criminals.

The kidnaping occurred at East Las Vegas and the baby victim was the two-year-old son of Attorney A. T. Rogers.

On Wednesday night at midnight, while Rogers was away from his home, four masked men appeared at the Rogers villa, covered Mrs. Rogers with a revolver and ordered her to take her child from its crib, dress him and deliver him to them.

Frenzied with apprehension for her baby, Mrs. Rogers offered the kidnapers all her jewels and silver if they would spare the child. Her pleas were curtly refused and the kidnapers handed her a typewritten letter demanding $12,000 in bills of no greater denomination than $10 by at least midnight of Thursday. Failing payment, they said, the child would be killed.

Mrs. Rogers was told to display a red light from the rear of her house at 11 o'clock Thursday night if it was decided to pay the ransom.

All day Thursday the mother of the kidnaped child endured the killing suspense and at the appointed hour that night the red light flamed from the designated window.

According to instruction, William Rogers, the child's uncle, then left in an automobile for Onama, 15 miles east of Las Vegas, where he had been instructed to pay over the money. When Rogers arrived at the designated spot the four masked men stepped out of their concealment and ordered him to keep his hands on the steering wheel of his machine. Then they searched his pockets, got the $12,000 in cash and the letter of instruction they had left.

Rogers was instructed to go to Kearney's Gap, 15 miles in another direction, where he was told how to find the child. Rogers complied to the letter and found the child asleep in an arroyo in the mountains. The baby had been carefully covered with a blanket and, screened from the chilly winds, was sleeping soundly.

Putting on all speed, Rogers at once returned to East Las Vegas and delivered the baby to his mother. He then gave the alarm and within an hour the hunt was on for the kidnapers. No trace, however, was found and today it is believed the four have made good their escape.

One of the kidnapers is said to have been partially identified as Dennis Hart, bank robber and escaped convict, who recently escaped from jail in Albuquerque.

THE TEAM RAN AWAY BUT SHOWED HORSE SENSE

A team attached to a supply wagon belonging to the Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph Company became frightened while at the corner of Liberty and State streets about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and made a round about circuit to Chemeketa street before being captured. Dragging a portion of the harness with them, they turned south on Commercial street, crossed the railroad tracks and then headed toward the river. Possessed of plenty of horse sense, however, the animals did not care for river water, and made another turn upon reaching the west end of the S. P. freight sheds, and went north on Front to Chemeketa, where they finally stopped. Despite the crowded streets, the horses managed to steer clear of all vehicles, and no damage was done.
