He is taking in Seattle, Victoria, and Vancouver, B. C., on this trip. Mr. Moores has had several good offers to go into business at Salem where he has lived for 40 years, and will probably settle down here on his return.

Not Our Will—In a news item appearing in yesterday's journal it was stated that S. B. Stewart had commenced suit in the circuit court against George C. Will and that the purpose of action was to secure a judgment for a real estate commission amounting to $1375. The item was correct in all respects save that the C. should have been eliminated as it was not George C. Will of this city, but George Will of Aurora against whom the suit was brought.

Purchased Waite Residence—John H. Albert today purchased the E. M. Waite residence, located on the site where it is proposed to erect the Carnegie library. He will move it soon to a point opposite to where his present residence is located, and remodel it throughout.

BASEBALL BEGINS IN PORTLAND

THREATENED RAIN, BUT THE PARADE WAS CARRIED OUT AND GRAND STAND FILLED—MAYOR SIMON TOSSED THE FIRST BALL.
Portland, Ore., April 18.—With rain threatening, the Beavers this afternoon hoisted the 1911 pennant at the Vaughn-street grounds while the fans who filled the grandstands shrieked delightedly. Thus was ushered in the baseball season in Portland.

With Chief of Police Cox with a squad of police leading a parade formed at 10th and Morrison, Mayor Simon, city officials, Judge W. W. McCredie and other notables followed in automobiles. The parade ended at the baseball park where the pennant was flung to the breeze with proper ceremony. Councilman Cellars put the first ball over the plate and Mayor Simon was behind the bat. Judge McCredie said Cellars' name was looked upon as significant.

THE CORONER'S JURY SAYS IT WAS A MURDER

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
San Francisco, April 18.—The coroner's jury investigating the death of Guy Landsburg, the young Alameda real estate dealer, rendered a verdict this afternoon that Landsburg was murdered, but whether by accident or intent the evidence did not show. The testimony of John O'Rourke, a waiter, showed that Landsburg visited the Midway cafe nearly two hours after Edward Donley and Frank Torres said they had taken Landsburg's valuables. Thermodyne—A sure cure for peritonitis. Sold at all drug stores. try t. 4-13-31

ANNIVERSARY SAN FRANCISCO EARTH QUAKE

This is the fifth anniversary of the San Francisco earthquake, which occurred April 18, 1906. It was predicted for some time after the event that San Francisco would never be rebuilt, but now it is bigger and more beautiful than ever, and the quake is only a memory. Fire following the quake did the greatest damage, and burned several days, in fact, burned itself out before it quit. Salem responded generously to appeals for aid, and she gave twice, by giving really before the call for aid was sent out.
