CASE LIKE ORCHARD'S IN IDAHO

McManigal, Like Orchard, Confesses to Crime--Latter Confessed So Much Villainy Jury Could Not Believe Him.

IS HE IN ORCHARD'S CLASS.

Jurors in Orchard's Case Refused to Convict on the Testimony of a Man Admitting Under Oath That He Had Committed All the Crimes of the Decalogue--Will the Jury in This Case Take the Same View of It

Los Angeles, Cal., April 28.—Efforts by organized labor to defend him of the charge of dynamiting, under which he was brought to Los Angeles, were repulsed today by Ortle McManigal. Attorney Job Harriman, who has been retained to defend the McNamara brothers, called at the county jail at noon today. He was admitted to McManigal's cell.

"I don't want to see you or Hilton or any other attorney," said McManigal. "We will let matters take their course."

McManigal then refused to say another word. In response to Harriman's question: "Have you been promised immunity?" he turned his face toward the wall.

The state convention of Modern Woodmen will be held at Hood River next Tuesday and Wednesday.

M'MANIGAL IN EMPLOY OF BURNS

Union Labor Leaders Say McManigal, Confessed Dynamiter, Has Been for Some Time in Burns' Employ and Was Paid by Him.

HE IS A BURNS OPERATIVE

He Is Alleged to Have Admitted Going on With His Wrecking Operations After He Had Arranged With Burns to Make a Clean Breast of the Whole Affair and to Inculpate John J. and James McNamara--This Is Denied by Burns and Others.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 28.—District Attorney John D. Fredericks refused today to confirm or deny that part of a confession of Ortle E. McManigal, confessed dynamiter, in which McManigal is alleged to have admitted going on with his wrecking operations after he had arranged with Detective William J. Burns to make a clean breast of the whole affair and to inculpate John J. and James B. McNamara.

Union labor leaders here declare that Fredericks admitted that McManigal had made the statement as confirmatory to their theory that McManigal was, in fact, a Burns operative.

Just what Sylvester's motive in committing the act was is a problem which the police are at a loss to solve.

REBELS MARCHING ON MEXICO CITY FIGHTING IN FULL BLAST AT JUAREZ

AN UNVERIFIED REPORT SAYS DIAZ WILL RESIGN ON ANNIVERSARY OF ELECTION

Five Thousand Rebels, It Is Reported Today, Have Left Cuernavaca, and Are Marching to the Mexican Capital--Madero Today Reviewed His Army and Increased Its Fighting Strength by Promoting a Lot of Officers--Latter Will Out-number Privates if the Peace Negotiations Are Held Up for a Short Time.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] El Paso, Tex., April 28.—As a result of the first general review of Madero's army, Pasquale Orozco, who once tried to take Juarez, today is second in command to Madero, with the rank of brigadier-general. Commissions at the review, which was held last night, were also distributed to the other chiefs of the revolt. Garibaldi, Blanco, Villa and Eduardo Hay, now a prisoner at Casas Grandes, were made colonels. Raoul Madero and Roque Garza were made majors of the Army of Liberation.

Despite Madero's warlike review, the armistice was today extended for five days to permit the peace commissioners for the Mexican government and for the insurgents to arrive here. Dr. Vasquez Gomez, head of the Washington junta, and Francisco Madero, Sr., it is expected, will represent the rebels. Gomez is expected to arrive here Saturday night. Governor Ahumada of Chihuahua will represent the rebels.

Fighting Just the Same.
Washington, April 28.—Despite the fact that Francisco Madero and representatives of President Diaz agreed to an extension of the armistice for another five days while peace is discussed in the vicinity of Juarez, reports from Ambassador Wilson at Mexico City today say that the fighting in the territory contiguous to that city is in full blast.

Five thousand rebels, it was reported today, have left Cuernavaca and are marching toward Mexico City.

A report which has not been verified, says that Diaz intends to resign June 26, the anniversary of his election.

Blame Americans.

Washington, April 28.—Charges that Americans were fomenting the Mexican revolution made by Vice-President Ramon Corral in an interview in Santander, Spain, were today

Fighting At Mazatlan.

Nogales, Ariz., April 28.—Passengers arriving on the Guaymas train today confirmed the report of the destruction by revolutionists of the steel concrete bridge between Mazatlan and Culiacan. The passengers left the railroad at Mazatlan and proceeded by boat to Culiacan. From there the road is open to Nogales. They reported that the revolutionists occupied San Blas yesterday and that heavy fighting was going on near Mazatlan, where the water supply of the town had been cut off.

La Follette Protests.

Washington, April 28.—On behalf of the progressive Republicans, La Follette, in the senate today, read a protest against the treatment of his colleagues in the awarding of assignments on committees. He declared that by the action of the regulars millions had been deprived of representation on important committees.

La Follette's protest provoked no discussion, and the committees as planned by the regulars were adopted without a roll call.

REFUSES TO PARDON NEBRASKA CATTLEMEN

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, April 28.—The department of justice today notified Bartlett, Richards, William Comstock, Charles Jameson and Aquila Triplett, millionaire cattlemen of Nebraska, who were convicted of having induced homesteaders to fraudulently claim thousands of acres of land in that state, that President Taft had positively refused to consider their application for pardon.

Chicago, April 28.—"It is most outrageous lie."

In these words William J. Burns, the detective whose work resulted in the arrest of John J. and James B. McNamara and Ortle McManigal in connection with the alleged dynamiting plots in Los Angeles and elsewhere, today contradicted reports current among labor men in the coast city that McManigal, confessing, said he had agreed to supply Burns with details of the plots he was supposed to be carrying out. Burns further said he did not believe that District Attorney Fredericks, of Los Angeles, had made, as was reported, an admission to that effect.

"Fredericks knows the details of my work," Burns said. "He knows that I never saw McManigal until three days before he was arrested. I never spoke to McManigal until he was a prisoner. It is bold to say he is a Burns detective."

"The statement is the expedient of desperate men who are trying to becloud my reputation in the effort to save themselves. It seems to me there must be other mixed up in this thing from the desperate way they are injecting themselves into the case and their forces to injure me."

ANOTHER MAN WHO WILL TRY TO IDENTIFY McNAMARA

Los Angeles, Cal., April 28.—John Baker, superintendent of the Giant Powder company at Giant, California, arrived here today from San Francisco to determine whether James B. McNamara is James B. Bryce, who purchased the dynamite at the Giant works with which it is alleged the plant of the Los Angeles Times was destroyed.

On his arrival Baker was met by T. H. Mills, local superintendent of the Burns detective agency. The two were scheduled to visit the jail this afternoon.

Baker, acting as clerk, delivered the explosive to three men, later identified as Bryce, Caplan and Leonard, on board the launch Pberless at the powder works three days before the explosion in Los Angeles. He obtained Bryce's signature to the receipt and is expected to be one of the star witnesses for the prosecution.

The result of Baker's visit to the jail will not be made public, according to District Attorney Fredericks. "Newspapers are garbling statements issued from this office," he said, "and henceforth evidence we unearth will be kept secret, to a certain extent."

MAY SUE TH. ROADS CARRYING COAL

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Cleveland, O., April 28.—As the first gun in a nation-wide crusade, it was announced here today that wholesale suits against coal carrying railroads will soon be begun in the courts of Cleveland.

"Tim" Davenport Dead.

Pasadena, Cal., April 28.—The body of T. W. Davenport, father of Homer Davenport, the cartoonist, will be taken tomorrow to Silverton, Or., for burial. Davenport died in South Pasadena late yesterday, following an illness of four days. He was 85 years old.

Homer Davenport, according to information received by Pasadena friends of the family, is en route from New York to Silverton. He has been informed of his father's death.

HITCHCOCK IS GIVEN A BASTING

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, April 28.—Postmaster-General Hitchcock was roasted to a turn in the house today by Representative Cullop (Democrat, Ind.).

"If Hitchcock would pay more attention to business, and less to politics," said Cullop, "there would not be so many complaints about the way the postoffice department is conducted. While most of the employees of that department are civil service men, they are perniciously active in politics."

TICK BITES CAUSE DEATH IN CALIFORNIA

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Sacramento, Cal., April 28.—"Rocky Mountain spotted fever," a fatal disease, caused by tick bites, heretofore restricted to comparatively small areas in Montana, Idaho and Wyoming, and first heard of in a small cattle range valley in Northern Wyoming, has appeared in California. A case resulting in the death of E. Crum was reported today to Dr. William F. Snow, secretary of the state board of health.

RICTI'S LOVE STRONG JURY SAYS WORTH $9,000

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Seattle, Wash., April 28.—A valuation of $9,000 was placed upon a husband's love by a jury in Judge Ronald's court. Mrs. Emma Richti got a judgment for that amount against Mrs. Florence H. Neal, whom she sued for alienation. The plaintiff sought $20,000.

The women were girlhood friends. Years later Mrs. Richti accused Mrs. Neal of stealing her husband, though Mrs. Neal had one of her own. Neal later was drowned and the widow got a verdict for $13,000 against a mill company. Richti is missing.
