GOOD GOODS

Our Constant Aim— "To Please"

Special Music—
From 5:30 to 8:30 at the Elite Cafe, with Sunday dinner.

One-Story Brick Building—
Commercial street for $3000. Derby & Wilson.

Nine Acres—
Fine garden or berry ground, 3 miles out, 1 mile from station on electric line, at $125 per acre. Derby & Wilson.

To Visit Kingwood Park—
Hundreds of Salem people will take advantage of the opportunity of seeing Kingwood Park today. The recent rains have done wonders for the trees and shrubbery.

The Food You Eat is First Step—
Toward perfect health and increasing vitality, provided it is absolutely pure and wholesome. Quality and prices count here. J. W. Lawrence, corner Ferry and Commercial streets.

See Hollywood—
Don't overlook our fine five-acre tracts at Hollywood. Nothing better in the small tract line than these. All cleared, rich soil, easily worked, cheap and on easy terms. Bechtel & Bynon.

Remember—
The regular Sunday dinner at the Marlon Hotel, from 6 to 8 p. m. These enjoyable dinners are looked forward to by Salem people. Delightful music is furnished, and the service is excellent.

Brings Condemnation Suit—
W. L. Benham, representing an irrigation project near Stayton, today brought a suit in the circuit court to condemn lands belonging to Lucy J. Kearns for the purpose of constructing a ditch across them. This is the second case of this nature brought by the company this year in the circuit court here.

Institute at Centennial—
State Superintendent of Public Instruction Alderman is making plans for a historical institute which he proposes to hold at Astoria during the last two days of the Centennial celebration. The program will be in the way of historical review of the progress made in the state since its settlement.

The Regular Sunday Afternoon—
Lecture at the Commercial hall will be held tomorrow at 2:00 p. m. Rev. Bandy of the Unitarian church and Lloyd C. Ramp, of Portland, will be the speakers. Everybody cordially invited.

Printers' "Slug" Ball—
The Allied Printing Trades baseball team of Salem will play the Falls City Commercial club team tomorrow morning at Falls City. The Salem and Falls City railroad have arranged for a special Sunday excursion rate especially for this game tomorrow, and the baseball fans of Salem who take advantage of this privilege can take their wives and sweethearts and a big basket lunch with them and spend a pleasant Sunday at the little city by the falls. The train leaves West Salem at 9 o'clock Sunday morning and the afternoon train returning reaches West Salem at 5:30.

Judge Hollis in City—
Judge Hollis, of Cottage Grove, is in the city on business and was a caller at the state house today. The judge saw service in the house of representatives during the legislature and was one of the strong men in that body during the session.

Fried Spring Chicken—
For your Sunday dinner at the Elite Cafe. Cant be beaten.

Monmouth, Oregon
The home of the State Normal, is a splendid town, surrounded by a magnificent country. The climate can not be excelled on earth. Land is cheaper here than any place in Oregon considering everything. We want good people and can take care of a great many. We have a very large list of very fine bargains. Note the following:
A splendid 123-acre farm 4 miles out for $50 per acre.
A good rolling farm of 57 acres improved, only 2 miles out, good soil; $60.
285 acres almost in town, 200 under cultivation, excellent soil, $75.
70 acres near town, house, barn, orchard, lots of berries for $32.
52 acres with improvements costing $4,000, an ideal home, $7,000.
The only hotel in Monmouth doing a fine business, $13,000.
The only hotel in Jefferson, Oregon with splendid trade, only $5,000.
Terms can be had on all these. Write or come and see us.
200 acres all black fine plow land, well improved, almost in town, $100.
A very fine 450 acre stock farm with R. R. running through it, only $35.

A "Daring" Story— "The Spendthrift" which Frederic Thompson will present at the Grand Opera House Monday May 8, is said to be one of the most daring stories ever staged, and this is saying a great deal, considering some of our modern dramas. It is a play with most startling situations and dialogue.

W. O. W.— Neighbors of Salem Camp: Sunday is the day we build our log cabin on the fair grounds. Come early. Big feed. Big time. 5-4-3t

Vehicles— Several good second hand buggies at great bargains at Sam Manning's Implement house, foot of State street 4-27-tf

The Many Patrons— Of the Elite Massage Parlors will please note our new location. On May 15th we will in the Bligh block open newly equipped, making the parlors the most up-to-date in the Pacific northwest. 5-4-3t

Rare Mushroom Ripe— Dave McFadden brings The Journal editor several specimens of the somewhat rare beefsteak mushroom. It has a very rough and toad-like appearance, and grows as large as a Bartlett pear. When fried in butter it has the fine flavor and tenderness of a good ripe piece of beefsteak, and is just as edible. The week's rains have brought them out ahead of time, as they are generally found in the fall of the year.

Miss Frances Ward— Assisted by a quartette in the Yama Yama Man at Ye Liberty tonight.

A Pleasant Outing— One of the prettiest walks or drives around Salem is that trip to Kingwood Park. Go over with the crowds today and see the recent improvements.

W. O. W.— Neighbors of Salem Camp special cars leave State and Commercial streets for the fair grounds Sunday morning at 8 o'clock sharp. Many visitors will be with us. Come and enjoy the fun. 5-4-3t

Company Licensed— Insurance Commissioner Kozor today granted a license to the Franklin Insurance company, of Washington, D. C., to transact a fire insurance business in the state. S. M. Boyer, of Portland, has been named general resident agent.

Inspects Roads— The members of the board of county commissioners spent the forenoon today in the inspection of road routes petitioned for and also the sites for proposed bridges in the vicinity of the city. The afternoon session was devoted to the transaction of routine work.

Attending Institutes— State Superintendent of Public Instruction Alderman went to Hillsboro today where he will deliver an address at an educational rally.

Sold a Ford— Vick Bros. Salem agents for the Ford, today sold one of their Model T Torpedo roadsters to Dr. E. H. White, of this city. Dr. White's car is one of the prettiest machines ever seen in Salega. E. H. Whitehead has severed his relation with the Olmsted Land company and will hereafter be sales manager for the Salem branch of the Ford.

Fish Commission in Session— The State Board of Fish Commissioners is in session at the state house this afternoon and besides organizing and making preparations to assume its duties when the law creating the board goes into effect, May 20, it will elect a fifth member. The members now comprising the commission are Wm. Finley, of Jennings Lodge; C. F. Stone, of Klammath Falls; C. K. Cranston of Pendleton and M. J. Kenney, of Portland. These were appointed by the governor and it now devolves upon them to elect the fifth member. A southern Oregon man will probably be selected.

Chinese Situation is Bad. (UNION PRESS LEASED WIRE) Canton, May 6.—With fire and sword the revolutionists this afternoon are threatening Sheklung, on the East River, 45 miles east of this city, and 57 miles north of Hong Kong. Troops have been dispatched by the authorities, it is reported, to intercept them.
