BROOKLYN PREACHER IS INDICTED

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Victoria, B. C., May 5.—Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis, a divine, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is charged with fraud in a suit involving coal lands worth $20,000,000 situated in Queen Charlotte islands. The case is brought by Z. M. Hamilton and associates, of Victoria, against Rev. Hillis, with James A. Moore, of Seattle and the Western Coal and Iron Company as parties to the suit.

H. W. R. Moore, solicitor for Z. M. Hamilton, was granted leave by Justice Clement, in chambers, to serve a writ out of the jurisdiction of the court on Rev. Hillis, at Brooklyn, and the writ went forward today for service.

HYPNOTIST ATRESTED FOR CRUEL STUNT

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Tacoma, Wash., May 5.—Upon complaint by Earl Ashford, 18, a warrant was issued today for the arrest of "Alburtus," an alleged hypnotist, who is appearing at a local theater here. Ashford was the hypnotic subject used by "Alburtus" last night at the theater. A hatpin was forced through the boy's tongue, another through both cheeks, one through the lobe of his ear, another through the flesh under his jaw and two through one of his arms. With these pins in the boy's flesh, the "hypnotist" led him through the audience, declaring that the lad was in a trance.

The scene seriously affected the feelings of some of the women in the audience. It was noticed that while being led through the audience the young man wiped blood from his lips, despite the "you see there is no blood, no pain" talk by the "hypnotist."

Ashford said today that he was in no sense under the influence of "Alburtus." He said he thought there was some trick about the flesh-piercing, and had no idea that the pins would really stick into his flesh. When the long hat pin was thrust through his tongue, he said he couldn't yell if he wanted to. He said that the pain was terrible.

The criminal charge against "Alburtus" is that of violation of the state law prohibiting the employment of a minor in a stage performance. In addition the young man will bring a civil suit demanding $50 for each pin thrust.

SOCIAL CONTINUED

One of the week's most delightful Missionary meetings was that of the First Christian church with Mrs. W. B. Hatnes, of Highland, as hostess. After the devotional period a fine program was enjoyed. Mrs. Heyser gave a talk on the school of C. W. B. M. This address was delivered in excellent manner. A beautiful trio by Mrs. Wenger, Mrs. Errett and Reverend Davis Errett. The reading by Mrs. Ralph Harris, of North Yakima, was a poem from "Missionary Tidings." "The Challenge of the Harvest" composed by Mrs. Ursula Wiles Errett. This was cleverly written and received with great enthusiasm. Miss Blanche Liston, a pupil of Dean Savage, of Willamette University, read in fine manner and responded with encore.

A CLEANLY AGE

Twentieth Century Ideas Incline Toward Sanitation and Preventatives.

Nowadays scientists believe that in cleanliness lies the secret of prevention of diseases.

To prevent a disease, remove the cause.

Just as unclean habits breed many diseases, so careless habits will breed dandruff. Improper use of another's brushes, combs, etc., will surely cause dandruff, and, in time, will just as surely cause baldness.

It's microbic infection, nothing more nor less.

Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ, and causes hair to grow luxuriantly. Herpicide is absolutely free from grease or other injurious substances.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. One dollar bottles guaranteed. J. C. Perry, Druggist.
