For Your Sunday Dinner. Ever since the relay races were inaugurated—four years ago—Chemawana has won every year and the Indian runners are determined that the pale faces shall go down to defeat again. The Y. M. C. A. will have the best team it has ever put out this year and it is confident of success—just as confident as the Indians. As evidence that they will win they point to the fact that an indoor relay race held between three of their men and three of the Indians a short time ago, the Christians won by two laps. The race covered six miles. The Indians only laugh, however, at this argument and predict that their confidence is as much misplaced this year as it was in the years gone before.

Bought Out Shoe Business. John Gremmels who sold out his interest in the Bank saloon, has bought out the Electric repair shop and shoe store on the corner of Court and Commercial streets from Carl Burkhardt. The stock of new goods is being added to and the electric repair machinery is busy and running every day. Repairs are made in a few minutes while you wait. Ladies and gentlemen go in and sit down a moment while the machines whirl, and a few turns does the business, and you go on about your affairs. Electric shoe repairing is a great discovery and this is the only one in town.

WILL RUN BIG RACE TOMORROW

INDIANS HAVE WON FOUR STRAIGHT AND ARE CONFIDENT OF WEARING THE Y. M. C. A. SCALPS AT THEIR BELTS FOR FIFTH TIME.

After training for several months the 10 fleet-footed Indian lads who are to represent the Chemawana Indian school Saturday against 10 picked runners from the Y. M. C. A., in a relay race from here to Portland, are in the pink of condition and sanguine that when the last lap of the race shall have been run that they will have carried away the honor of winning the race for the fifth time.

The first runner will leave the steps of the state house at 10 o'clock and will be started by Governor West or his private secretary, Ralph Watson. Each will carry a message from Governor West to Mayor Simon of Portland. A delegation will accompany the team from here in an automobile. A physician will go along so that should anything happen the runners may avail themselves of his services.

The Laps To Be Run. Klutes Jim will cover the first lap for the Indians—from the state capitol to Chemawana, a distance of 6.2 miles. He is a Yakima Indian.

Wm. Mose, a Digger Indian, from California, will grab the message from his hand at Chemawana and carry it to a point between Gervais and Brooks—a distance of five and one-half miles.

Louie Dan, a Muckleshoot Indian, will run the third lap—a distance of 5.6 miles—a half mile or so beyond Woodburn, where he will be relayed by Edward Three-mountain, a Colville Indian lad, who will run to Hubbard a distance of five and one-half miles.

Peter Alfus, from the Klamath tribe of Indians from California will be there to relieve him and he will run to Barlow, a distance of five and one-half miles, where Joe Burns, a Yakima Indian, will be waiting for him and run to New Era.

Wm. Powers, a Cherokee Indian, will speed over the lap from New Era to Canema, a distance of five miles; W. Prapp, a Snohomish Indian will run from there to Oswego; Charles Jones will run from Oswego to the school just outside of Portland, and John Demmett, an Alaskan Indian, will run the last lap and deliver the message to the mayor of Portland.

Team Is Confident. Inaugurated—four years ago—Chemawana has won every year and the Indian runners are determined that the pale faces shall go down to defeat again. The Y. M. C. A. will have the best team it has ever put out this year and it is confident of success—just as confident as the Indians. As evidence that they will win they point to the fact that an indoor relay race held between three of their men and three of the Indians a short time ago, the Christians won by two laps. The race covered six miles. The Indians only laugh, however, at this argument and predict that their confidence is as much misplaced this year as it was in the years gone before.

Committee Would Admit Both States.

Washington, May 12.—Approval for the constitutions of both Arizona and New Mexico was recommended to the house today by the committee on territories, provided the Arizona vote on an amendment regarding the recall of the judiciary, and the New Mexicans on an amendment making their constitution more easily amendable.

Regarding the charges that corporations controlled the New Mexican convention, the committee's report says: "Certain of the provisions framed and adopted are objectionable, and will, in their operation, be oppressive. It is claimed that these were brought about in the interest of corporations which exerted their influence in the framing of the proposed constitution. The committee has not undertaken to correct objectionable features, believing that it is not the province of congress to make constitutions for the proposed states."
