MEXICANS WILL NOW FIGHT MADERO BELONGS TO SLAVE-HOLDING CLASS

OWNS FIVE MILLION ACRES--- A CHANGE OF PRESIDENTS BUT NOT OF CONDITIONS

Rebel Junta Representing the Liberal Mexican Party Issue Manifesto Appealing to Liberals to Keep Up the War and Socialists All Over the World to Lend Their Assistance--- Manifesto Says the Liberals "Will Fight Until the National Resources of Mexico Have Been Restored to the People for Their Free and Equal Use.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Mexico bordering upon the Pacific ocean. The liberal army, Magon said, was about equal to that of Madero, if anything, stronger. He said, however, that in the event of peace he believed that more than half of Madero's followers would align themselves with the liberal army.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 22.—That the appointment of Francisco I. Madero, Jr., as president of Mexico will by no means restore peace to that country was indicated here today by the Los Angeles rebel junta, representative of the Mexican liberal party, which is conducting the insurrection in Lower California, Sonora, Sinaloa and Southern Mexico, and which controls the army of Genera Figuerra, which is reported encamped near Mexico City.

After two weeks of debate in their inner councils, members of the junta today sent to the printers a draft of a manifesto appealing to all members of the liberal party to keep up the war, and to Socialists all over the world to lend them assistance. The manifesto, in pamphlet form, will be printed in several different languages and distributed broadcast.

The manifesto reads, in part, as follows: "The Mexican revolution must go on until it has won for the people economic independence. Much blood has been shed; much money spent; immense sacrifices have been made. It would be lunacy to permit all this to be wasted on a mere change of presidents or cabinets."

"From the first Madero's sole aim has been political; the substitution of his government for that of Diaz. Madero belongs to one of the wealthiest of Mexico's families, which owns approximately 5,000,000 acres of land. That very fact constitutes him a member of the slave-holding class."

"There is no guarantee that under Madero, or any of his supporters, the people of Mexico will be happier or more prosperous than under Diaz. Madero has used for his own political advancement the following of the Mexican liberal party. He has transformed for the moment an economic revolution into a political, alleged reform crusade."

From the first the Mexican liberal party's sole aim has been economic—the substitution of an economic liberty for slavery.

"The liberal party will not lay down its arms until the natural resources of Mexico have been restored to the people for their free and equal use."

The manifesto, among others, is signed by General Figuerra.

Ricardo Flores Magon, junta president, said that it would affect all of the revolutions in Southern Mexico, as well as those in every state of Carnegie to Testify.

Washington, May 22.—Andrew Carnegie today voluntarily notified Congressman Stanley, chairman of the committee appointed by the house to investigate the United States steel corporation, that he would be available at any time the committee might want him to testify. It was said that Carnegie would be summoned next week.

G. L. DICKEY KILLED BY ACCIDENT

HIS NEW CAR BURNED IN THE WATER

NEW $2900 FRANKLIN CAR OWNED BY E. W. POWERS, GOES IN THE DITCH, OIL ON WATER CATCHES FIRE AND CAR IS BADLY BURNED.

E. W. Powers, a prominent fruit buyer, was out Saturday night trying out his new $2900 air-cooler Franklin car, when he went into the ditch on the south side of Franklin street between the S. P. company tracks and Capital street, in trying to dodge a mudhole. A crowd gathered to see the machine that lay over on the side in about three feet of water. Young Mr. Powers and Silas Rich, of the U. S. National bank, were riding in the car, and all the occupants were dumped out in the water. In about a half hour from some unknown cause the car caught fire, and it was damaged to the extent of $300. It is not known whether some bystander lit a match or whether the fire was set by the batteries or from one of the lamps but it made a wonderful illumination for awhile, and the owner and everybody was helpless to stop the flames. Mr. Powers was out getting signers for paving D street with El Oso pavement, and says he would be willing to burn several more cars if he can get some streets paved up where he lives. He had no insurance.

CARNEGIE TO BE A WITNESS IN STEEL CASE

Washington, May 22.—With Andrew Carnegie's name among the list of those subpoenaed, the Stanley committee selected to probe the steel trust began its deliberations today. The department of justice and the department of commerce and labor both will assist in the investigation. There are five Democrats, all lawyers, on the committee.

CHILDREN PREFERRED TO LAWNS

SCHOOL BOARD MAKES PLAY GROUND OF SCHOOL HOUSE LAWNS, PREFERRED ROSY-CHEEKED, HEALTHY YOUNGSTERS TO SCHOOL HOUSE SCENERY.

In the absence of Chairman Will Babcock, A. N. Moores took his place as chairman for the evening. The board elected the teachers recommended by City Superintendent Powers, and decided that next year children should be allowed to play on the lawns of all school yards.

HE DIED TWO HOURS LATER

His Companion, Chester Frohmader, Lifted Him Into the Boat and Brought Him Home, Where All That Was Possible Was Done for Him, But He Was Beyond Human Aid—He Regained Consciousness and Recognized His Heart-Broken Parents Just Before the End Came

Seeking to adjust the position of a shotgun in a boat while returning from a hunting trip yesterday forenoon, Louis G. Dickey, 16 years of age, inadvertently discharged it, inflicting an ugly wound in his side, and today he lies cold in the embrace of death on a slab in the morgue of the Cottage Undertaking company.

Dickey, with a companion, Chester Frohmader, about 14 years of age, left home early Sunday morning. They crossed the Willamette in a row boat, and were just returning from their hunting trip, at about 12 o'clock just as they got in the boat they saw some ducks light, and in getting out to get a shot at them, the accident occurred. Dickey caught his gun by the muzzle and pulled it toward him, the muzzle pointing right at his side. In pulling it out the hammer caught on the gunwale of the boat, and caused the gun to be discharged, and the heavy load of shot was emptied into his side. He reeled back against his companion, knocking him down, and with the words "take me home" on his lips, fell on the river bank unconscious.

Companion Tries to Save Him. Picking up the unconscious form of his companion, Chester Frohmader managed to lift it into the boat, and then hurriedly rowed across the river. Upon landing he ran home, two blocks, and called his father, Adam Frohmader, who at once called Dr. J. N. Smith, and, with some others, hurried to the assistance of the dying lad, who was taken to the Salem hospital. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Dickey, were notified, and shortly after reaching his side he regained consciousness long enough to speak a few words to them, and then he relapsed into a coma, and about 2:30 o'clock died.

Funeral Tuesday Forenoon. The funeral will be held from the Catholic church at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. The deceased leaves to survive him, besides the parents, four sisters, Mrs. E. J. Ballinger, of Portland; Mrs. A. J. Victor, J. Barragy, of this city, and Miss Myrtle and Rose Dickey, also of this city.

Telling a man that he is a fool may be called useless information.

Revolution in Portugal.

London, May 22.—A monarchist counter-revolution in Northern Portugal probably will begin today. The anti-republican feeling is manifesting itself in strikes at Oporto. If Lisbon follows the example of the north, the revolution, it is believed, probably will develop into a very serious affair. Many Portuguese are leaving Oporto and business is at a standstill on account of the disorder which prevails throughout that section.

FOUR DEAD, FIVE ACES IN DECK

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Kittingan, Pa., May 22.—Four miners are dead here today as the result of the discovery of five aces in a deck of cards with which the men were playing poker. Dick Sendro, who was suspected of being responsible for the extra ace, is alleged to have shot and killed his brother, Charles, and Andrew and Rocco Leopold, brothers of Walter Spilshub. Dick Sendro is said to have fired into the crowd after the players had beaten him.

MRS. P. S. KNIGHT DEAD PASSED AWAY SUNDAY

Mrs. P. S. Knight, aged 72, wife of Rev. P. S. Knight, died at her residence 257 Liberty street, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. She had been confined to her bed for some time previous to her death.

Mrs. Knight was born January 25, 1839, in Laporte county, Indiana, and in 1847, when eight years of age, crossed the plains with her parents. The family settled in Yamhill county, Oregon, where Mrs. Knight's father died. Mrs. Knight, then Eleanor Smith, came to Salem in 1852, and here she and Mr. Knight were married in 1861, and outside of two years spent in Oregon City. Mr. and Mrs. Knight have both resided here since 1852. Two daughters were born to them. The elder daughter died in Additional Work Progressing.

Architect Legg reported that the work on the addition to the high school building was progressing nicely, and recommended that the contractors, Southwick & Headrick, be paid the sum of $5000 on the contract, and his report was adopted, and the clerk instructed to draw a warrant for that amount.

W. G. McPherson & Company, which installed the heating plant for the high school building, desired to be relieved from the bond clause in their contract for the extension of the plant to the additional rooms of the building, but the board declined to grant the request.

Certain correspondence relating to text-books purchased by Mr. Kirk, as principal of the high school, was ordered placed on file with the clerk, on motion of Director Lafky.

Elect Teachers. The board also elected teachers to fill out the list prepared and voted upon some time ago. Those elected at Saturday evening were: M. Davis, principal of the business college department; Miss Sophia Townsend, teacher of Latin; Miss Catherine Hulbert, teacher in the grades; Miss Carrie Castle, teacher in English; Miss Edith Brown, teacher in the grades, and Miss Ethel Jones, teacher in history.

Funeral arrangements will be postponed pending the arrival of a son-in-law, W. H. Stringer, a business man of San Francisco.

Mrs. Knight leaves a host of friends in Salem who will mourn her death. Her sweet and lovable disposition had endeared her to all with whom she came in contact in church and home work. Rev. Mr. Knight has been a minister in Salem and vicinity for over 50 years and his wife had proved a loving and faithful helpmate in his church work. To her bereaved husband whose gentle ministrations and comforting presence has soothed the bitter anguish in so many hearts when death has invaded the home; the deepest and tenderest sympathy is extended in this, the saddest affliction that can befall humanity, the loss of one around whom the heart strings cling. She lived a long, a useful and a noble life—and surely she is with God and the separation, after all, will be measured by swift years.
