Spelled It Wrong— Owing to the fact that the word "chauffeur" on the new badges being issued by the secretary of state was misspelled, the Pacific Coast Stamp Works, that is furnishing them, has called all the old ones in, and is furnishing new ones free. The first letter "u" was left out.

Born to Die— Saturday at noon there were born to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hurst, at their home, 727 Union street, twins. They came but to be gathered back into the arms of Him who said "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." One died Sunday evening and was buried Wednesday, and the other died at 3:30 this morning. Funeral notice later.

Got the Contract— D. D. Barron, of the Owl Construction company, is smiling today, and just because he had been notified that his company's bid for building that bridge across the North Mill creek ditch on Liberty street, for the Salem Flouring Mills Co. had been accepted. As the competition was sharp, he feels elated over his success, and says all he wants is an opportunity to show just how good work his company can do.

Fifty or More Required— State Superintendent of Public Instruction Alderman today received a communication from the Oregon-Washington Railroad company advising him that the company would not be able to make reduced rates to county school superintendents who will visit the city this month for the purpose of assisting in grading the state teachers' examination unless 50 or more passengers were guaranteed. Mr. Alderman took the subject up with the railroad company several days ago.

Apportioned Rates— Upon the request of the Southern Pacific Railroad company and the Pacific Railway company, the State Railroad Commission yesterday apportioned the rate to be charged by the two for the shipping of freight from Timber to Portland. The commission some time ago made an order reducing the rate from nine to seven cents, and the apportionment, as made by the commission, gives the Pacific Railway company four cents for its haul from Timber to Hillsboro and the Southern Pacific three cents for its haul of the freight from Hillsboro to Portland.

To Investigate Crossing— The state railroad commission has set June 30, as the time for the investigation of the crossing of the track of the Southern Pacific Railroad company and that of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern in Eugene. The investigation will be held in that city, and in the event that the commission finds the crossing to be not safe, as it is alleged to be, it will order safety guards installed.
