Miss Marguerite Mers. "Schlummerfeld" (Matti), Miss Shumway; violin obligato, Miss Turner.

"Chanson Provencale" (Dellacqua), Miss Mers.

"Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2" (Liszt), Miss Turner.

"Heaven Hath Shed a Tear" (Kucken), Miss Mers; violin, Miss Turner.

"Indian Bell Song," aria from the opera "Laknie" (Delibes), Miss Shumway.

The first movement of the concerto in D Minor by Mendelssohn, played by Miss Turner, is one of the most attractive of all of Mendelssohn's concerted pieces, and adequately reflects the refinement and "Nymphs and Fauns" (Bemberg), romantic spirit of the time. The Tall palms stood sentinel partially screening the two pianos and along entire length of platform were heaped great bouquets of beautiful flowers, placed there by loving and admiring friends to be presented to the young graduates. This fine program was chosen for the presentation:

"Concerto in D Minor," allegro appassionato (Mendelssohn), Miss Joy Turner; second piano, Lela Tarpley.

"Staccato Polka" (Muller), Miss Irma Shumway.

Hungarian Rhapsody, number two, by Liszt, represents the culmination of the romantic school of music. This number is the best and most brilliant of all the Liszt rhapsodies, is very difficult of execution and is played by leading artists the world over. The vocal numbers are all representative of the most artistic productions in the realm of vocal music.

"Schlummerfeld," sung by Miss Shumway, and "Heaven Hath Shed a Tear" sung by Miss Mers, are more sustained in their style, while "Nymphs and Fauns" and the "Chanson Provencale," sung by Miss Mers and the "Staccato Polka" sung by Miss Shumway, represent the more brilliant style of composition and require great flexibility of voice.

"Chanson Provencale" and the "Indian Bell Song" are especially elaborate and number among the best songs in the repertoire of all leading singers. The work of the three young women with this difficult music was splendid in technique and interpretation. Dean and Mrs. Mendelhall have every reason to be very proud of this year's graduates from the college of music of Willamette University.

The presentation of class was by Dean Mendelhall; the diplomas given by Doctor Fletcher Homan.

The pupils of Professor Frank E. Churchill, representative of the Western Conservatory of Music, of Chicago, in this city, will give their closing piano recital June the twenty-first and twenty-second at the First Christian church. The recital by advanced class will be given Wednesday evening, Mrs. Halle Parrish-Hinges, Mrs. W. P. Babcock, Mrs. Bross and Miss Blanch Liston assisting. At recital of intermediate grade, on Thursday, Misses Viola and Pearl Vercler will assist.

An immense audience witnessed the sixty-seventh commencement exercises of Willamette University last Thursday evening in First Methodist church. This event was wonderfully interesting from the fact that Doctor F. S. Hoyt, the first president of Willamette University, was upon the platform and received the insignia of Doctor of Laws, from Doctor Fletcher Homan, now president of the university. He also conferred upon Reverend John Flynn, William Henry Whitmore and Edward Laird Mills the degree of Doctor of Divinity, by authority from board of trustees. Dean Mendelhall presided at the organ while the graduates marched to their places. Reverend Hoyt gave the invocation and the Glee club quartet sang in their delightful manner.

Receiving the degree of Master of Arts, were Mabel Charlissa Glover, Ellen Joy Anderson, George Oscar Oliver and Samuel August Siewert. Dean Patterson presented the class from College of Liberal Arts and Doctor Homan conferred on them the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Dean Patterson gave the diplomas. In the class were Marie Caroline Schmidt, Alma Viola Haskin, Hattie Carolyn Beckley, Lorena C. Belknap, Rhoda May Hopkins, Theodosia Bennett, Wesley Beckley, Weller Chamberlain, Guy A. Woods and Watson Crawford.

Dean Patterson presented two graduates from the College of Education to Doctor Homan, who gave them diplomas. The graduates of College of Medicine were presented by Dean W. H. Byrd for degree of Doctor of Medicine; the members were Prince Wolverson Byrd Charles Oliver Boyer and Andrew Albert Soule. To Prince Byrd, Doctor Homan presented the Tamias medal, awarded for best work in Willamette University College of Medicine.

For the best general athletic work Luke Rader was awarded medal, presented by James Crawford, president of the student body. Reverend Benjamin F. Young, of Portland, delivered a splendid address upon "The Intention of Life." Closing the exercises was Dean Mendelhall's pipe organ solo.

At Willamette alumni association business meeting held in the chapel of the university Wednesday afternoon, Burgess Ford, of Portland, was elected president; Miss Mattie Beatty, vice president; Eleanor Colony, secretary and Robert Eakin, Jr., treasurer. Mrs. Valdeia Ohmart and Mr. I. H. Van Winkle, members of the board of trustees, were elected. On the board of trustees, Burgess Ford was elected alumni member for three years and Lloyd T. Reynolds for the two-year term. Doctor Homan spoke to the alumni on what they could do for the university.

Mrs. A. Wolfal from Centralia, Washington, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Dase, of South Salem.

Mrs. Frank Benson, who has been a guest of the Dr. R. E. Lee Steiners, went to Portland yesterday to visit friends.

Miss Alice Bingham returned last evening from Anna Wright school in Tacoma, and will spend the summer vacation with her parents, in Salem.

Mrs. J. Walton, of Tillamook, is visiting for two weeks the Henry Fawks, of Nob Hill.

Word received yesterday from Mr. W. P. Babcock, at Breitenbush Springs, speaks of an improvement which rest and quiet has already brought. His little daughter, Amelia, accompanied by Miss Mayne Babcock, will leave for the Springs on Monday to remain with Mr. Babcock for two weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Dunway are returning today in their car from Portland, after a two weeks' visit with friends.

In Vancouver, British Columbia, on the thirteenth of June, a tiny baby son came to gladden the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hobson (Minnie Achenbach) and grandmother Hobson.

Miss Elizabeth Lord and Miss Ruth Wallace are visiting in Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bishop motored last week to the Rose Carnival—the Bishops returning by train and Miss Aline Thompson joining the Roberts for their return trip.

Department President Lizzie W. Smith and staff were honor guests yesterday afternoon at a reception given by the members of Woman's Relief Corps, Sedgwick Post number one, Grand Army of Republic in Salem; from two until five, in Steeve's hall, which was most beautifully and elaborately decorated with flags and many varieties of flowers filling numberless baskets and vases. Mrs. J. Frank Dunlap stood at the head of the long receiving line. Over two hundred called during the afternoon. A bower of red, white and blue streamers and flowers formed a spot for the serving of punch by Miss Mary Follick, with Miss Emma Wright, Miss Sylvia Beckman, and Miss Ada Simpson assisting. Adding to the afternoon's entertainment was this most enjoyable program:

Valse, op. 100, No. 2 (Streabogg); Grace Hunt, Helen Reysner and Gretchen.

Address of welcome, Gideon Stoiz, G. A. R.

Whistling solo, Selected, Mrs. C. Clark.

"Remarks from the Press," R. J. Hendricks.

Invocation, (D'Hardelot), Ada Miller; violin obligato, Gaynell Baldwin.

Introduction of department president, Ronald S. Glover.

Response, Dept. Pres. Lizzie W. Smith.

"Sonatina," violin solo (Schubert) Gaynell Baldwin.

"Booster" from board of trade, A. F. Hofer.

"To Thee, O Country," national hymn, (Julius Eichberg), by W. R. C. octette: Sopranos, Elsie B. Simeral, Viola F. Tyler, Verr B. Glover, Emma Wright; altos, Elizabeth Adair, Ida M. Babcock, La Moine R. Clark and Mary Follick.

Mrs. Looney and Mrs. Dyer entertained with luncheon and lawn party yesterday afternoon at Mrs. Looney's home; a car being provided for accommodation of guests. Luncheon was served in a rose bedecked room and the afternoon enjoyed on the beautiful lawn, with floral decorations added for the occasion. Miss Anderson gave two vocal selections. The hostesses were assisted by Miss Ryth Gatch, Miss Walker and Robertson.

Mrs. Denton's home at 148 Twelfth street, was a pretty scene last evening when her small pupils presented their piano recital in rooms beautifully brightened with a color scheme of pink and white carried out in roses, with added touches of green. Parents and friends of the children filled the rooms to overflowing. A few numbers were introduced by the older pupils, but in the main, the program consisted of primary work of children from seven years of age to twelve. The first part was devoted to youngest, who entered into the spirit of the occasion bringing out very best results of their training. In the second part was piano work somewhat in advance which showed special merit. In assisting with the program, the Misses Marie and Nellie Schwab sang the duet from Il Trovatore, with guitar and mandolin accompaniment, and Tom Curtis gave a well played violin solo.

The piano recital by advanced pupils of Miss Margaret Fisher last evening in the Baptist church, which held a very large and appreciative audience, was most successful and finely given. Although Miss Fisher has taught but a few years in Salem, the quality of her work, as shown in the recitals this week is most satisfactory.

Professor Von Eschen, of Willamette University, is leaving for southern Oregon and northern California, where he will prospect and study geology of the states.

Rev. R. U. Avison is leaving this afternoon for St. Paul, Minnesota, having been called to perform the marriage ceremony of George Wilbur Hartwell and Martha Davis Win-

Kingwood Park

The Addition that was Started Right

There is more interest centered in Kingwood Park today than at any previous time. There is a reason for this, and that reason is summed up in the statement that Kingwood Park is all that we have claimed for it, and that our promises are being made good, just as we intended they should be.

Yesterday we spent the day carrying prominent Salem people over to Kingwood for no other purpose than to show them what we are doing in the way of improving this magnificent addition, and in every case the party was not only surprised at our achievements, but delighted beyond measure at the rapid strides being made in Kingwood Park.

Kingwood Park is the addition de lux, the addition that has stirred Salem realty circles, the addition that is being built up with a class of homes at once stamping it as the swell residence section of the city.

Sooner or later you will want a home in Kingwood Park. Why not attend to the matter now while you can secure a building site at first cost.

Go over to Kingwood Sunday and see just what we are doing.
