Another Auto-- Bechtel & Bynon have been compelled to add another auto to enable them to carry all the people who desire to see Kingwood Park, Phone 452 and have an auto call for you.

Baker Pioneer Dead-- H. H. Corey, Sr., of Baker City, died Sunday at the age of 84 years. He was the father of H. H. Corey, assistant secretary of state and R. R. Corey, of Baker City, where he has lived for the past 25 years. He was a pioneer of eastern Oregon and has always lived on the frontier.

Goes to Gates-- Deputy District Attorney Winslow will leave tomorrow for Gates where he will prosecute Ed Wolfe, charged with assault and battery. The charge it is alleged, is preferred against Wolfe as a result of a general all-around fight indulged in by several parties at the end of a ball game held at that place. The trouble, it is stated, was over a girl.

Seeing for Themselves-- Thirty-three persons in one party went over to Kingwood Park yesterday to see for themselves just what is going on in that much talked of addition. Needless to say all were delighted with the natural beauty of the place and with the extensive improvements being installed.

Commission Goes to Baker-- The members of the State Railroad Commission today went to Baker, where they will hold a hearing in the complaint made against the service of the Sumpter Valley Railroad company. It is charged in the complaint that the company fails to

Mr. Geo. C. L. Snyder-- Will sing at the Seymour theater, beginning Monday night, June 19.

China Wedding-- Their friends will hardly believe and they could hardly believe it themselves, but Mr. and Mrs. Mark Skiff celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary last Saturday.

Canadians Visitors-- Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Turpin of Medicine Hat, east of Calgary, Canada, arrived Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hunt in Yew Park, parents of Mrs. Turpin. Two little Turpins accompany them and Mrs. Turpin will be remembered as Miss Maud Hunt who was one of the prettiest girls in Salem.

Pioneers' Picnic-- The Waldo Hills Pioneer picnic was held today at the Hunt grove with a large attendance. John H. McNary of this city was orator of the day.

Commission Goes to Baker-- The members of the State Railroad Commission today went to Baker, where they will hold a hearing in the complaint made against the service of the Sumpter Valley Railroad company. It is charged in the complaint that the company fails to maintain a sufficient crew of men to operate the trains; that the dispatching service is inadequate, and also that the flagging system is imperfect.

Socialist Strawberries-- R. R. Ryan (Oliver Jory says that means Rocky Rooster), brings this office four boxes of the finest strawberries we have seen this year. They were grown on his prize 20-acre farm a socialist farm, where everything grows that the heart of man can desire, including the finest Jersey cream. Somebody bring us the cream.

Stole Canvas-- Some religious or irreligious sinner stole the canvas off a new cement sidewalk that J. P. Veatch is laying at the Congregational church corner, the other night.
