Banks Must Report— In compliance with the law the state bank examiner is today sending out blanks to the different banks in the state where there are unclaimed deposits, asking them to write in the blanks the amount of them, and return them to him. Under the escheat law if a bank deposit is not added or drawn upon for a period of seven years the depositor is presumed to be dead, and the money escheats to the state.

A Queer Petition. [UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] San Diego, Cal., June 21.—Local saloonmen have formed a protective association and have asked the city council to pass an ordinance prohibiting free lunch. They say it is not only costly for them, but encourages drinkers to stay in saloons longer than they ought.

RAILROAD WILL HAVE ALL KINDS OF MONEY

The Oregonian this morning says: Copies of the O.-W. R. & N. Co's first and refunding mortgage, dated January 3, 1911, to obtain an authorized bond issue in the aggregate principal amount of $175,000,000 were filed yesterday with the clerk of Multnomah county, and with the clerks of other counties in the state. Similar copies will be recorded at once in every county in Oregon, Washington and Idaho, in which the company does business.

By this mortgage $40,000,000 of bonds are authorized to be issued to cover the cost of acquiring the railroads now existing; $23,380,000 are authorized for the purpose of refunding the 4 per cent consolidated gold bonds of the old O. R. & N. Co., maturing June 1, 1916, and $111,620,000, being the remainder of the authorized issue, are to be certified from time to time for the purpose of constructing additional railroads and the acquisition of additional property.

MAN WHO SHOT AVIATOR IS PLACED ON TRIAL

Denver, Colo., June 21.—Examination of venemen took up the morning session today of the trial of Frank H. Henwood, charged with the murder of George Copeland, in the Brown Palace Hotel bar here. Copeland was killed in a quarrel which resulted in the shooting of S. Louis von Phul, St. Louis aviator, by Henwood. Henwood fired three times at Von Phul, one of the bullets wounding George Copeland, who afterwards died. The state elected to try Henwood for the Copeland shooting first.

SMUGGLERS WILL LOSE A SMALL FORTUNE

San Francisco, June 21.—Customs inspectors today seized a consignment of woolen goods valued at $19,000 on the German Kosmos liner Sraphis. The goods, customs officials say, were brought by a gang of alleged smugglers, who were endeavoring to get them in duty free. The woolsens, it is asserted, were sewed inside the mattresses and pillows and hidden under false bottom sea chests and boxes. The entire consignment, it is asserted, came from Germany.

Net Draws Around the Dirty Beast.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Chicago, June 21.—After repeated contradictions made in her effort to shield See, Mildred Bridges was trapped into making damaging admissions, and losing her confident air, sat crestfallen and confused during the rest of the testimony. She denied at first that she ever had called See her husband or addressed him endearingly. She admitted, however, that she, Mona Rees and See had written each other letters while they were living in the "Commonwealth."

Fight Over Direct Election.

Washington, June 21.—The expected fight in the house over the Brislow amendment to the resolution for submitting a constitutional amendment for the direct election of senators, materialized today. Rucker (Democrat, Mo.) moved that the house do not concur in the resolution as amended, and that it be sent to conference. A debate of three and a half hours was arranged. Cullop (Democrat, Ind.) asserted that the amendment was designed to defeat the resolution. Young (Republican, Mich.) supported the amendment. Norris (Republican, Neb.) denied that the amendment was a subterfuge.
