[UNIVED DRIES LEASED WISE.] Los Angeles, Cal., June 28.-Notice from the district attorneys office to show cause why Mrs. Ortic E. Mc-Manigal, wife of the alleged dynamiter, should not be cited for conlempt of court was served today on Clarence Darrow, chief counsel for the McNamara brothers.

Darrow immediately answered that he was prepared to meet the issue. Steps are now being taken by the district attorneys office to produce Mrs. McManigal in court. The arguments will be made before Judge

Hutton of the superior court. Earlier in the day Detective Mc-Laren of the Burns agency, outlined some of the plans of the prosecution.

"If we can get Mrs. McManigal committed to jail for a few days," he said, "we will then have a chance to question her and remove her from the influence of counsel for the defense. This is our last step."
