

SUFFERED TERRIBLY FROM HEAT

NOGALES SURROUNDED BY FOREST FIRES, AND FOR THREE DAYS HER PEOPLE ARE ALMOST COOKED—RAIN BRINGS RELIEF THIS MORNING.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Nogales, Ariz., June 30.—After being hemmed in by forest fires that raged on three sides of Nogales since Wednesday, rain early today brought relief after two days of terrific suffering from heat. Scores of persons in Nogales were prostrated and hundreds of head of cattle in territory adjacent to Nogales succumbed to the heat. Forest rangers and soldiers of the Sixth cavalry, who have been fighting the fires since the middle of the week, returned here today, and reported that the rain had completely extinguished the flames.

NATIONAL GUARD GETS TRACT OF LAND

A lease and an option was secured by the national guard of the state today on 100 acres of land adjoining the present tract of land owned by the organization in Clackamas county, and as soon as possible the matter will be taken up with the federal military department, and the request be made that the government purchase the land for the national guard.

The land is to be used as a rifle range and as headquarters for the guard to assemble at during times of war. The national guard has been using the old tract for a rifle range, but it is not large enough, and hence the lease of the new tract. As there is a mountain back of the tract upon which the lease has been taken, it will also be used for artillery practice.

THE "TOYMAKERS" DREW A CROWDED HOUSE

"The Toymakers" drew a crowded house last night, and the number of little folks attending was unusually large. To them the event will be a memorable one, for the toy features were splendid, and were enjoyed by the older folks, too. The little Chink and the Japanese doll, both Mr. Hartman's children, and the latter not over four years old, were "catchy" and the entire audience took them into their hearts, especially the little "Jap."

The songs were not of the "taking" kind, and the singing was as good as the songs. Oliver Lenoir has a voice like a fog horn, and the male chorus was fairly good. The minut was beautifully costumed and danced—and Miss "Muggins" Davies was a most charming doll bride, so charming that it is sad to think of her as being married to the man who got her, for he is certainly "a bad actor."

STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS SAVED BANKER

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] San Francisco, June 30.—In sustaining the demurrer today of S. Foster Kelly, a wealthy Seattle banker, recently prominent in the matrimonial troubles of Albert J. Henry and Iva May Henry, his divorced wife, to a suit for $100,000 damages for seduction, Judge Starbuck here practically threw the suit out of court.

Judge Starbuck held that the statute of limitations for the offense—one year—favored Kelly. Henry accused the banker of having eloped with Mrs. Henry from Seattle in December, 1909, but did not start his suit for damages until last April. Henry's attorneys are given 10 days to amend the complaint eliminating the seduction charge.

THE JUDGE SCORED THE WITNESS

Seattle, Wash., June 30.—The biggest sensation of either of the Wappenstein trials was sprung a few minutes before noon today, when Will H. Morris, Wappenstein's chief counsel, accused Judge Ronald of intimidating T. J. Long, a witness now living at Portland.

Long was alleged manager of the Big Casino, house of ill repute, under the Wappenstein regime, and at the first trial testified that Wappenstein told him to see Gid Tupper on one occasion when Long, it was alleged, broached the subject of a bribe to the former chief. This morning Long, who was called by the state, failed to remember this.

Judge Ronald asked Long what caused him to go to Tupper and say that Wappenstein sent him, and Long again failed to answer.

Judge Ronald then excused the jury and said to Long:

"The court will take a recess until 1:30. By that time you can refresh your memory. We want the truth. I don't want any evidence concealed." Morris here made his objection—"The manner of the court in talking to this witness is an intimidation," he said.

"I will stand by what I said," Judge Ronald replied. "This court will see that the truth is told even if the state or the defense must cross examine its own witnesses."

Judge Ronald had been ruling more favorably for the defense than Judge Main throughout the entire trial, and this was the first real clash between the court and defendant's counsel.

FORTY TRAINS LOADED WITH JUST DOCTORS

PRESCRIBE PILLS FOR OTHERS, BUT SURROUND 3000 POUNDS OF BEEF AND A FEW OTHER THINGS AT TODAY'S LUNCHEON.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Pasadena, Cal., June 30.—Three thousand pounds of beef, garnished with real Mexican chili, were served today in the Busch sunken gardens to 5000 delegates to the American Medical Association convention. The barbecue was prepared by Jose Romero, descendant of the chief of Pio Pico, last Mexican governor of California.

Forty special trains brought the doctors from Los Angeles today. They were taken direct to the Busch gardens.

The afternoon was scheduled to be spent at Tournament Park, the program including a chariot race for a purse of $1000, polo games and horse races.

SUES ELECTRIC FOR VIOLATING LABOR LAWS

Alleging that upon two occasions the Oregon Electric has violated the nine hour law relating to station agents, Attorney-General Crawford last evening began a suit in the circuit court in behalf of the state, asking that the state be awarded $1000 in the way of a penalty.

The law under which the action is brought was passed at the last session of the legislature. Besides regulating the working hours of telegraph dispatchers it also provides that station agents shall not be worked by any railroad company in excess of nine hours out of 24, excepting in emergency cases.

It is alleged in the complaint filed by the state that the company worked G. J. Oliver, agent at Woodburn, and also L. M. Blinn, agent at Donald, in excess of nine hours. Both violations of the law are alleged to have occurred on June 20.

YOUNGSTER FOUND SMITH AN EASY MARK

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Los Angeles, Cal., June 30.—The youngest frenzied financier on record had his inning before Superior Judge Hutton today in the juvenile court. He was Joseph Dresser, 13, who bought a cigar stand on the "flash" of a "phony" roll of bills and operated the place for two days. At that time the owner, H. M. Smith, who supposed he had sold it for $1250, "got wise" and the juvenile officers started a search for Dresser.

Smith told Judge Hutton he was out $100, two days' sales. Judge Hutton only laughed.

"If you let a boy of Dresser's tender age 'bunco' you," said Judge Hutton, "you ought to be out."

The boy was released on probation in custody of his father.

GARY IS AMAZED HIS TURN COMING

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] London, June 30.—E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of the United States steel corporation, expressed amazement today over the indictment of the heads of the wire trust. "I know no reason," he said, "why the wire companies should have been indicted."

PORTLAND WOMAN IS CONVICTED

MRS. HENRIETTA FARRELLY, FOUND GUILTY OF FORGERY, IS SENT TO SAN QUENTIN FOR FOUR YEARS.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] San Francisco, June 30.—Four years in San Quentin was the sentence pronounced by Judge Lawler today in the case of Mrs. Inez Peterson, of Portland, Or., convicted of having forged a mortgage deed while posing as Mrs. Henrietta Farrelly, of San Leandro, and attempting to borrow $10,000 on property in Alameda county. Arguments on the woman's application that she be admitted to probation were concluded today and the court denied the petition. After judgment was pronounced Mrs. Peterson's attorneys requested and was granted a 10-days' stay of execution, in which to prepare an appeal.

JEFFRIES HAD BACK SEAT AT CORONATION

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] New York, June 30.—While Jack Johnson, attired in giddy raiments was crowded up close to the front row to see the king go by on coronation day, James J. Jeffries, ex-champion, slept peacefully in the room of an obscure London hotel. Jeffries and his wife returned today on the Mauretania.

"We were forced to stop at an obscure hotel," said Mrs. Jeffries, while Jim grunted an assent. "I saw the parade, but Jim stayed in his room and slept."

HINES SPRINGS SENSATION IN LORIMER TRIAL

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, June 30.—Production of bills from the Washington hotel which indicated that he could not have been in Chicago at the time Clarence S. Funk swore he had asked a contribution to a "slush fund" was the surprise Edward Hines, millionaire lumberman, sprung today at the resumption of his examination by the Lorimer investigating committee of the senate.

The bills Hines produced indicated that he was in this city from February 7 to March 5, last, between which dates Funk placed his alleged conversation with the lumberman in the Union League club, Chicago.

Hines then went on to declare that he had not seen Edward H. Tilden, of the National Packing company, the alleged collector of the "slush fund," for six months prior to Lorimer's election, and that at no time had he ever discussed with Tilden any contribution to any fund. He denied that he regarded Lorimer's election as a personal success.

The man who is alleged to have "put Lorimer over" also denied Hettler's testimony that he had boasted of the feat. Diverging then to the Aldrich-Taft-Penrose angle of the case, he said:

"I saw Penrose several times before I saw Aldrich, to whom I talked several times during April and May of 1899. I always conferred with Aldrich alone. I never discussed Lorimer's election with President Taft at any time."

MEDICAL FRATERNITY THANKED BY PRESIDENT

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Los Angeles, Cal., June 30.—The thanks of President Taft were received this afternoon by officials of the American Medical association, which has been in convention here, for their efforts in support of amendments to the pure food laws. The telegram reads:

"I wish you would extend my cordial thanks to the convention. I greatly value the support of your association in the matter of securing needed amendments to the pure food laws. (Signed) "WILLIAM H. TAFT."

SOUTHERN PACIFIC DENIES IT

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Chicago, June 30.—Flat denial of a story emanating from New York that the Southern Pacific would improve the Western Pacific tracks with Harriman capital and that, in return, it would be allowed the use of the Western Pacific tracks through Utah and Nevada was made here today by Julius Kruttschnitt, in control of the operating department of the Harriman system.

"There is not a word of truth in the story," said Kruttschnitt today to the United Press. "No such arrangement has been made."

BANDITS HAVE MADE GET-AWAY

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Glendale, Or., June 30.—Volleys of shots were heard in Cow Creek canyon this morning by passengers of the southbound Southern Pacific train which arrived here this forenoon from Portland.

In the canyon are three passes trailing the bandits who held up the Oregon express Wednesday night and robbed the registered mail. As the country is rough and the only means of communication is by courier, it has not been ascertained whether a fight between the fugitives and a posse occurred.

The bloodhounds, that lost the robbers' trail at Cow Creek siding last night, were started here today in an effort to find the trail of the desperadoes in this vicinity. It is believed by many that they boarded a freight at the siding and rode as far as Goldendale to throw the hounds off their trail.

The bloodhounds were worked on both sides of the tracks, but were unable to find any scent.

The large reward, which is offered by the government and Southern Pacific, is having an effect in augmenting the number of men in the posse. Many experienced woodsmen and mountaineers have joined in the chase, and practically all of Josephine, Douglas, Jackson and Coos counties are policed by them.

With the failure of the dogs to find the trail, the authorities frankly admit that they are without clues, and are trusting to luck to run across evidence that might lead to the ultimate capture of the bandits.

LOOK INTO THE DEATH OF FATHER

SUSPICION GROWS THAT RUMBALL'S DEATH MAY NOT HAVE BEEN DUE TO NATURAL CAUSES, LATEST PHASE IN ORVILLE HORROR.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Oroville, Cal., June 30.—Through unreadiness on the part of both the prosecution and defense, the preliminary hearing of charges against Mrs. Emma Rumball and her brother, Archie Lewis, for the alleged killing of the woman's stepdaughter, 13-year-old Helen Rumball here, today was postponed and probably will be held July 10.

After a severe sweating of both prisoners by the authorities the impression is growing here today that Mrs. Rumball broke the girl's neck with a jerk of the rope with which she had tethered the child to a rafter in the superheated attic of their home. For two hours the woman was questioned and when taken back to her cell completely collapsed. This was the first sign of emotion she has displayed since Miss Harriet Plantz, a nurse who was called in, found the dead body of little Helen Rumball.

Lewis, the brother of Mrs. Rumball,

SALEM GIRL MARRIED IN SOUTH DAKOTA

It was learned this afternoon that Miss Effie Blanche Boggs, of this city, was married last Saturday, June 24, to Mr. Archie C. Turneure, at Mitchell, South Dakota. Mr. Turneure made many friends while he was visiting here last summer. Miss Boggs is a well-known Salem girl. She is the elder daughter of C. D. Boggs, and, after graduating at the Capital Business College, she was employed for several years in the money order department of the local postoffice. She went to Mitchell, S. D., about two weeks ago. The young couple will reside in Hulett, Wyo.

Liburn M. Boggs, a brother of the bride, is employed at the Lawrence grocery store, and a younger sister is a stenographer at the state house.
