land before returning to their home at Tillamook.

Among the pretty weddings of this month was one solemnized last Tuesday, June the twenty-seventh, at eight o'clock, in the home of her mother, Mrs. M. J. O'Brien, when Marie A. was united in bonds of holy wedlock to Mr. Robert Edward Burkheimer. Attended by her matron, Mrs. Cary, who was gowned in white, the bride, very lovely, entered with her mother, who gave her away. Under the marriage bell, formed of ferns and white cinnamon plinks, the ceremony was performed by Reverend Paul S. Bandy, of Unlarian church. Refreshments were served in the dining room beautifully decorated with pink roses and ferns. After traveling for the summer combining business and pleasure, Mr. and Mrs. Burkheimer will make Salem their home. At present they are in Newport for a honeymoon sojourn.

The bride is a very popular young woman and has a host of friends. Mr. Burkheimer is associated with the Warren Construction company, whose traveling business covers the large territory between Los Angeles and British Columbia.

Mrs. O. C. Locke entertained the Priscilla club last Thursday afternoon. Plans were talked over for the annual picnic given on little Priscilla Fry's birthday, July the twelfth, in the beautiful park surrounding her home.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. King are motoring today to be Salem neighbors in Portland, residing for the present at 494 East 37th street. Mrs. King, who has been prominent in social and civic affairs, will not sever her connection entirely from Salem. Mr. King has been located as attorney in the Yeon building since last Fall.

Mrs. L. D. Denison was hostess last Wednesday for the Needlecraft club, in her delightful boat house home. Each of the fifteen members brought an armful of roses which made beautiful decoration for the rooms. The needlework and conversation among themselves, with a talkative parrot helped make the afternoon merry.

Miss Ella Mae King will not accompany her brothers family to Portland, but will remain in Salem, the guest of the Andreas F. Hofers.

The rapid advance of Miss Weller's young piano pupils could not have been shown in a better way than at recital given on Wednesday evening in the First Methodist church. The program of piano solos and ensemble work was highly appreciated by the large audience of relatives and friends who gathered to hear them. Each number received merited applause and Miss Weller is to be congratulated upon her success as an instructor. In assisting, Miss Morrison from Dallas, who is a favorite singer in that city, gave "Perfect Day" and "Song of the Heart" with sweet contralto voice. Miss Viola Verejer accompanied with violin obligato. Capriccioso Brillante, by request, and William Tell Overture, were genuine treats.

Miss Weller's program for this recital read as follows: "Homage to Rhapsodia" No. 1, Liszt; Leona Wedner, Iola Smith, Myrtle King, Margaret Rodgers.

(a) "Merry, Merry Lark".....Nevin (b) "Valse in E Flat".....Durand (c) "The Swallow".....Alice Chalkraft.

Miss Mary Rutherford was hostess for the Entire Nons club last Thursday at her home on North Broadway, with Mrs. Mullis as guest of honor. Pink roses brightened the rooms. This club has met twice a month during the season, for needlework and social entertainment, with light refreshments served. In the club are Mrs. Emory A. Thompson, Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. William, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mrs. P. Barber, Mrs. William Morford, Mrs. Barker, Miss Ethel Fletcher, Miss Ella Curran and Miss Belle Nichols, with Miss Fletcher, president, Mrs. Thompson, vice-president; Mrs. Thompson, secretary and treasurer. This meeting was the last of the season. In September the members will again take up their club work.

Miss Aline Thompson telephoned invitations for six tables of five hundred yesterday afternoon, complimenting her guest, Miss McNain.

Miss Inez Denison is visiting Mrs. E. J. Lally in North Liberty.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Rath are leaving this afternoon by Electric for Portland to meet Mr. Rath's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Steen and sister, Miss Merlam Rath, who are coming from Chicago to be their guests until September. Mr. Steen was formerly from Danville, Illinois, and prominent in business circles throughout the state.

The unique and altogether delightful entertainment given at Congregational church last evening for the benefit of Ladies Aid society, outclassed anything of the kind seen in Salem for many a day. From "Johnnie Jones and His Sister Sue" to "Baby Fleming in His Bath tub" the children acted their parts to perfection. The program was given as follows: Cherry City Maid, Mildred Wilson; Kodak Girl, Lucille Staley; Hire's Root Beet, Harold Bauer; Quaker Oats, Stewart Kibbie; shredded Wheat, Genevieve Endicott; Cream of Wheat, Rosalie Buren, Miss Patterson and Chalmers George; Breakfast Bacon and Ham, Margaret Kibbie; Wild Rose Flour, made in Salem, Constance Yantis; Epopley's Baking Powder, Alice McCellan; Jello, Thelma Young; Salem's Famous Prunes, Maxine Buren; Bon Ami, Gertrude Johnnie Jones and His Sister Sue. After the entertainment was a program of music and the serving of refreshments.

The affair was planned and the children trained by Mrs. William Fleming and Mrs. George G. Brown and was a financial success.

The members of Jason Lee Memorial church gave a reception last evening for Reverend and Mrs. W. C. Stewart in the church parlors which were beautified with red rambler roses, white carnations and sweet peas. Over one hundred guests greeted the pastor and his wife. Mrs. Stewart wore her wedding gown of white messaline, in serving refreshments Mrs. Clark was assisted by Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Fennell.

After visiting in Salem and Portland since the Sacred Heart Academy commencement, Mrs. C. A. Robert, Mrs. C. T. Chichester, Misses Pearl and Mildred Robert, left last evening for their home in San Francisco.

In Mitchell, South Dakota, on Saturday, June the twenty-fourth, Miss Ella Boon's daughter in her white wedding gown, attended by her sister, Ruth, was united in marriage to Mr. Archie C. Turneure, Mr. and Mrs. Turneure will make their home in Hulet, Wyoming. The young couple have many friends in Salem who are wishing them all happiness in their future life.

In honor of her guest, Miss Roberta Boyd, of Marysville, California, Miss Mabel Robertson gave a charming tea on Thursday afternoon, in rooms beautifully decorated with a scheme of blue and yellow developed in bachelor buttons, daisies and nasturtiums, these being the colors of Alpha Omicron Pi of University of California, to which sorority the young women belong.

Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr., poured, Miss Sophia Catlin and Miss Althea Moore served. About forty called during the afternoon from four until six.

Guests asked for the Cox-Cowles wedding reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Fash, Mrs. E. H. Cowles, Mr. and Mrs. Hurley Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moore, Mrs. Minnie Moore, Miss Josie Moore, Helen and Alton Moore, Mr. Jesse Moore, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Shorey, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Shorey, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman, Miss Lila Jerman, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Penner, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Waterbury, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Waterbury, Miss Carrie Waterbury, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Morcom, Miss Lucy Morcom, Mr. and Mrs. Loveridge, Miss Loveridge, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Poorman, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Poorman, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Livesley, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Emmett, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Guiss, Miss Avon, Mr. Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. Boscow, Miss Mabel Boscow, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Berry, Mrs. Beegs, Mrs. M. Bradley, Mrs. K. V. Nicklin, Mrs. J. Y. Colvin, Mrs. O. E. Thompson, Mrs. Kiffin, Mrs. Clio, Mrs. Phlegley, Mrs. Wilson, and Messrs. H. L. and W. B. Gill, all of Woodburn; F. W. Poorman, of Battle, Montana; Mr. and Mrs. Sadler and Mr. Mrs. H. L. Bents, of Aurora; Mr. and Mrs. J. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Houston, Miss Houston, Dr. and Mrs. Seymour Steff, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Patton, and Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Polley, Miss Noedham, Mrs. Smith, and Mr. Schmidt, of Salem; Miss Leona Wheeler, of Portland, and Mr. Fred Wollert, of Seattle, Wash.

Miss Kittie Harbord and Miss Jennie Fry entertained the Meum et Teum club most delightfully last evening with a pink rose party. Five hundred was played at five tables. High score gave Miss Bella Morrison of Seattle, a dainty pink rose bon bon box containing an Armenian doll, while Miss Blanche Brown was consoled with the same sort of box filled with candied rose petals. Refreshments were served in dining room. The long table most charmingly decorated with Caroline Teston roses outlining the edges and used for center mound. From chandelier hung pink ribbons tied with roses. Miss Fry's house guests are her sorority sisters, Miss Pauline Van Orsdel, of Dallas; Miss Ethel Risley and Miss Norma Graves, of Portland. Besides club members were Mrs. Donald Stevenson and Miss Hortense Eppley, of Salem.

One of the most interesting toasts of the evening was sung in praise of a Meum et Teum soon to leave the ranks.

The music room decorated with national colors developed in red roses, white syrenegans and flags. Mrs. Walter A. Dentons piano pupils gave their closing recital as programmed, with one exception, Tommy Curtis and his violin substituting in the number. This talented young lad gives evidence of musical ability. His work shows smooth, steady tones. The chorus singing in three numbers was fine, especially good was America, sung with true patriotic fervor. The work of older pupils was exceedingly good; some of the numbers being played in most brilliant manner.

In Mrs. Denton's excellent training, her younger pupils' quick response was commented upon in most flattering manner. The children are all enthusiastic and vied with each other in giving their selections correctly. There was a noticeable absence of self consciousness and the numbers showed good practice. Mrs. Denton is leaving the city about the first of August for a well earned rest, resuming her instructions this fall.
