ALL ABOUT THE BABIES AND PRIZES

RULES FOR THE PARADE AND LIST OF PRIZES OFFERED FOR THE WINNERS IN THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH.

The baby parade will take place at 11 o'clock Saturday, July 8, and will start on Court street opposite the county court house. The line of march will be west on Court street to High street, south on High street to State street, east on State street to Cottage street, north on Cottage to Court street and west on Court street to the place of starting. The half of the streets next to court house and postoffice squares will be reserved and kept clear of traffic. It will not be necessary to cross any street or tracks, and in order to make it absolutely safe for the little ones, the whole line of march will be patrolled by a company of the state militia. The Beauty Show will take place immediately after the parade and will be held at the same place.

It is very important that the parade start on time, and it is the committee's intention to see that it starts at 11 o'clock sharp. The committee also wishes it distinctly understood that they will not assume the responsibility of acting as the judges. Judges for the Beauty Contest will be selected from out of town, if possible. The parade judges' names will not be made public. They will be along the line of march and will hand in their decisions to the committee at the conclusion of the parade.

RULES GOVERNING EXHIBITS.

- A plate of cherries or berries should contain one pound. Stems of cherries must be left intact.
- Carton exhibits must be wrapped and judged separate from the 10-pound box.
- All fruit entered for prizes must be correctly labeled and must be in the hands of the exhibit committee before 8 a. m. of the opening day. All fruit will be judged and awards made before the doors are opened to the general public.
- In collections duplication of varieties will not be permitted.
- Exhibitors must file with the secretary on or before the first day of the fair the name of the exhibitor with complete list of varieties entered by him.
- Entry cards furnished by the secretary must be placed with all exhibits for the guidance of the judges.
- All exhibits must be free from the name or address or anything that would indicate where the fruit was grown or packed, until after awards are made.
- All articles placed upon the tables for exhibition must remain in charge of the exhibit committee and cannot be removed before the close of the fair, without express permission of this committee.
- A judge of judges shall be appointed who shall judge all exhibits, and in all cases his or their awards shall be final. No judge shall be allowed to enter fruit in competition.
- In plate exhibits judges shall consider size, shape, color, freedom from blemishes, care in arrangement.
- In commercial exhibits judges will score according to the following: 30 points; color 15 points; uniformity, 15 points; quantity, 20 points; freedom from blemishes, 10 points; packing, 20 points.
- In addition to the prize offered, all exhibitors will be paid 50 cents per box for transportation of cherries accepted for exhibition by the committee on exhibits, membership of the fruit being thereby voided in the committee.
- The committee on exhibits reserves the right to reject any fruit deemed by it as unfit for exhibition.
- Exhibitors are requested to send a list of their exhibits to the secretary by July 15, so that arrangements can be made. For programs or any further information, address the secretary.
