ELLIS GREER A STRANGER IN STRANGE LAND

TEN YEAR OLD BOY COMES FROM IDAHO EXPECTING HIS GRANDFATHER TO MEET HIM HERE—IS CARED FOR BY NELS TOMLINSON.

Where is M. C. McFarlane?
The lips of little 10-year-old Ellis Greer flapped that question night before last when he got off the Southern Pacific train in this city—when he stood on the platform without relatives or friends to meet him and without a dollar to take him to a hotel for the night.

His case was called to the attention of Chief of Police Hamilton and he and his officers since then have been asking the same question, but without avail, and with the hope of locating him they have now appealed to the newspapers.

Was to Meet Grandfather.
Ellis Greer is a Lewiston, Idaho boy. He left that city several days ago with Salem as his destination. He came here for a visit with his grandfather, M. C. McFarlane, and when his parents escorted him to the depot they carried a basket of lunch and in the boy's pocket there was the munificent sum of 25 cents to be used by him only in the case of emergencies—extreme ones at that.

Well, in the hurry and scurry in boarding the train the lunch was forgotten. Remembering the emergency question the boy clung on to the 25 cent piece. Seeing his predicament passengers on the train saw to it that he was provided with food during the journey and then came the stop at Salem. When he got off the train the grandfather was supposed to meet him, but he did not. The boy with 25 cents in his pocket stood in a strange city without money and without relatives or friends. Nelson Tomlinson happened to see him and learn his story and he took him to his home at 1655 South Thirteenth street. He then notified the police and since for M. C. McFarlane, but they have not succeeded in finding him, and the boy and they are still asking the question, "Where and who is M. C. McFarlane?"

Hotel Marion Grill—Will be open every night until 12 o'clock. Table d' hote luncheon 12 to 2 p. m. dall. 50c. Tues-Thurs-Sat-tf

Out for Big Money—A $125 pennant is at stake in the big league games and only five mortgages to play. Senators will try to regain position at top of column next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock on league grounds when they meet the Woodburn Giants. 7-21-2

Big League Game Sunday—The Woodburn Giants and Salem Senators will meet on the Salem league grounds, 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. "Little Jimmy" Richardson, one of the best semi-pro umpires in the country, will officiate. Both teams in fine trim. 7-21-2

Savage Bike Arrested—Special Officer Stimpson "arrested" a bicycle at State and High streets Wednesday, which, he says, has been standing there for several days. The bicycle is a Savage Model "A". The patrolman took the wheel to the police station and the chief would like to locate its owner.

Buy a Bulletin Sign—Help the ball team pay for the new grounds and get dollar for dollar in return for your ad. Twenty thousand people yearly see these ads. See Manager Jerman or our solicitor. 7-15-eod

Accepts the Franchise—The Portland Railway, Light & Power company yesterday afternoon filed with the city recorder a written acceptance of the franchise granted the company on Belmont and Nebraska streets. Manager Page says the work of building the lines on these streets will commence as soon as it is possible to make the necessary arrangements.

Ball Game Tonight—The street car boys will meet the Y. M. C. A. team of the Twilight League on the Willamette grounds at 6:30 this evening. The association team has several nifty players and Walker and Fleming of the Ticket Punchers are doing good work for the railway boys. The attendance is gradually increasing at the evening games and there is plenty of sport for all lovers of the great national game.

Investigated Rates—Members of the Oregon Railroad Commission returned last evening from Portland where yesterday they held a hearing on the complaint preferred against the Pacific Railway & Navigation company. The complaint charged that the railroad company was discriminating in its favor of certain lumber companies. As it was impossible to secure all the necessary evidence at the hearing yesterday afternoon it was postponed until July 27.

Big Assortment of Jewelry—That the parties who broke into Smart's jewelry store at Eugene, Wednesday night, were well paid for their trouble is evidenced today by a description of the stolen jewelry, which Sheriff Brown, of Lane county, has supplied Chief of Police Hamilton. In the assortment of jewelry taken from the store were 75 set rings, opals, topaz, emeralds, ruby and sapphire; 10 solid gold bands, two small diamond rings, and eight gold-filled men's watch chains. No clue to the robbers has yet been found, although the police in the valley are keeping a sharp watch for them.

IDENTITY DISCLOSED BY DEATH

MRS. KATHERINE PORTER, A DOMESTIC, KILLED BY AUTO, PROVES TO BE EX-WIFE OF S. C. EDGAR, A MULTI-MILLIONAIRE OF ST. LOUIS.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Chicago, July 21.—Killed here when she stepped in front of a speeding automobile, "Mrs. Catherine Porter," 32, a domestic in the home of W. F. Hobbs, was identified today as Mrs. Catherine Edgar, the divorced wife of Selwyn C. Edgar, a multi-millionaire steel manufacturer of St. Louis.

A heavy veil worn by the woman as she stepped in front of a speeding automobile, "Mrs. Catherine Porter," 32, a domestic in the home of W. F. Hobbs, was identified today as Mrs. Catherine Edgar, the divorced wife of Selwyn C. Edgar, a multi-millionaire steel manufacturer of St. Louis.

Twenty years ago Mrs. Edgar was a leader of St. Louis society. Her husband was rich and they had a two-year-old son. Then came domestic trouble and divorce. Too proud to seek aid from her relatives, the former society queen sought means to work to support herself. Finally she came to Chicago, where she married a man named Porter, but whether he is living or dead is not known.

As "Mrs. Porter" the dead woman worked in the Hobbs home for five years. She had no friends and sought solitude. Once she told her employers that her son, Sullivan Edgar, was a wealthy manufacturer in St. Louis and though she wrote to him frequently she never dared to permit herself to return to be seen of her triumphs and sorrows.

YODER CASE MAY BE CALLED BEFORE NIGHT

A. H. Yoder, former principal of the Woodburn schools, will this afternoon—unless the plans of the prosecution fall—face a jury on the charge of assault and battery upon the person of Laddy Schembeck, a 12-year-old girl, and a pupil of the school of which he was the principal.

The offense is alleged to consist in Yoder enticing the girl to his office in the school building and taking undue liberties with her person. Yoder is an educator of considerable prominence and when his preliminary examination was held before Judge Webster he flashed a big roll of certificates of good character and recommendations in general. There are people in the little town or Woodburn who believe that Yoder is innocent and there are people there who are convinced that he is guilty and his case has split educational circles in that little town.

The state has summoned eight witnesses to prove its case, and making a desperate fight to clear Yoder the defense has summoned more than double that number—18 in all. The case will be the hardest fought criminal case of this term of court.

Hunter on Trial.
H. Hunter was on trial this forenoon. The charge against him is that of attempting to pass a forged check for the sum of $9.50 on the U. S. National bank. His case, it is figured, will be concluded in time, so that the Yoder case may be taken up before the court's work for this day is at an end.

To remove rust from cultivator shovels, scour with a brick and then draw them lengthwise of a corn row until all the rust is removed, keeping up the process until the corn begins to silk out.

A Lull in the Fight.
[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Washington, July 21.—A lull in the fight to oust Dr. Harvey W. Wiley from his position at the head of the bureau of chemistry of the department of agriculture came here today when Secretary Wilson declared that he would not have his report on Wiley read until after the return of President Taft from Beverly next week.

Our military enthusiasts claim that polo is good training for military service; the Feed Chopper rises to extol the incomparable value of tidde-de-winks as a training for chopping wood.

A CONVENTION OF FUNERAL DIRECTORS

One of the first conventions of the Oregon State Funeral Directors' association, which organization was formed about six months ago, will convene in Salem Tuesday and Wednesday, August 1 and 2. The local members of the association are making elaborate plans to entertain the visiting members during the convention. One of the pleasant features of the program is an automobile trip into the surrounding country. A trip of inspection to the state institutions and a special entertainment at one of Salem's big theaters are also on the list of attractions.

Among the speakers who will address the visiting delegates are Rev. R. N. Avison, Charles L. McNary and Dr. W. J. Clements. On Tuesday evening a banquet will be served at the Hotel Marion.

Dr. Clements will discuss "Disinfection." Mr. McNary will speak on "The Undertaker as Seen by the Layman," and Rev. Mr. Avison will address the convention on the "Relation of Minister to Undertaker."

Coroner A. M. Clough, U. J. Lehman, W. T. Rigdon and G. E. Terwilliger are in charge of the program for the entertainment of their visiting fellow members.
