Leave for Home—Mr. and Mrs. Don Downing and little daughter, Ione, who have been visiting Mr. Downing's mother, Mrs. J. H. Cradlebaugh, for the past week, will leave for their home, Council Bluffs, Iowa, tonight, going by way of San Francisco. Mr. Downing is the stenographer for Attorney Rich, of Omaha, the principal attorney for the Union Pacific system.

Attended the Meeting—W. A. Shewman, of Oregon City, secretary of the State Editorial association, in the city attending the Portland to Salem highway mass meeting last night and visiting old friends today. He is publisher of the Oregon City Courier, and honored the Journal office by letting the light of his countenance shine therein for a few moments.

Just Drifted In—Miss Bessie Schultz, at present of Lewiston, Idaho, came home this morning for a brief visit before going to Alaska for which she leaves Sunday. She did not forget the Journal office, but finding the door open, blew in, as welcome and sweet as the first breath of Spring and bright as a ray of light through a stained glass window. It's a real pleasure to have Salem's girls go away from home, just to enjoy the gladness of their home coming.

Storm Does Much Damage.—Wichita, Kan., Aug. 4.—Late reports from districts swept by the heavy wind and rain storms today state that no lives were lost, as far as known. Enormous property damage has been inflicted, however, in Butler, Sumner and Cowley counties.
