The Sheridan team has accepted Woodburn's challenge for a three name series for $100 a game, and the nanagers of the two teams are now rying to make final arrangements for the playing of the three games. is possible that one will be played at Sheridan another at Woodburn, and possibly the third in Salem.

winner of the Twilight League pen nant for this season, defeated the O. W. P. min., at Portland Monday, by a score of 7 to 2. Walker and Fleming did the battery work for the Salem team. A good sized crowd witnessed the contest, and the score indicates that they got their money's worth. The boys report having had a good time. A special car was sent to Oregon City to transport the boys to Portland, and the members of the Salem team spent the afternoon and evening in sightseeing and various forms of amusement, after the conclusion of the game.

After reading Savage's statement Captain Fleming classed it as a fabrication from beginning to end and stated that he would merely ignore the challenge. He declared that his team would not meet the East Salom nine on account of the treatment accorded the railway boys in the opening half of Friday night's Manager Zinn treats the chal-Rame. longe in the same light and refuses to consider it.

Manager Evans, of the Merchants' team,, who is also an officer of the Twilight League said this morning that he believed Umpire Ercel Kay had tried to deal squarely with all teams during the evening games. Ex ans, however, was of the opinion that Kay had made an unintentional slip Friday night in calling the ball which was at issue in the controversy a le-gal ball, as Evans believes it should have been declared a foul. He is emphatically of the opinion, however, that Kay was trying to deal square with both team, and made the mis- gall stones. when the guide lines are dim as they are said to have been in the final game. Ercel Kay refused to give an opinion this morning as to whether or not the game should be played over. He like Evans, was not close to the players who were enough charged with using abusive language, and fragrance to the breath.

Despite the fact that "Mysterious" Mitcheil, former plicher for the Frisco team of the Coast League, pliched for the Sheridan nine in their game with the Grasham Glants Sunday, at Sheridan, Sheridan was defeated by a wore of 5 to 3. Ten hits were gamered off Mitchell's de-livery while five bingles were secured of Diversed Dilly Kell ratcher off Townsend. Billy Kelt, catcher for Gresham was given credit for losing two scores to the opposing leam. Mitchell was given poor support, and this in part, accounts for his poor showing Sunday. The Gresham chowing Bunday. The Gresham Giants have lost only four games out of 22 played this season. This game was of interest to Salem as Manager Jerman, of the Safem valley team, is aiming to secure a game Gresham nine, as soon as the present cason closes If Salem wins the valley championhip in the present league series, and then defeats the Gresham Giants, the local hoys can claim the championship of the Willamette valley beyond a doubt. Manager Jerman expects to secure a game with this snapby team, and a win over them will win the title for the Salem boys without room for doubt. The Gresham as, and consequently cannot very well claim the premicrahip of the pennant.
